New Year's Nirvana

Under the new postseason format, a team like Arkansas won't slip out of the new BCS bowl tier, as it did last year.

As more details emerge about the six-bowl premium package, one thing is clear: It will be difficult to abandon your couch on New Year's Eve or New Year's Day, says Stewart Mandel. FULL STORY

THE SCHEDULE

Arkansas opens the 120th year of Razorback football on Aug. 31 against Louisiana in Fayetteville. The Razorbacks have won six straight season-opening contests and 14 of their last 15. UA is 93-22-4 (.798) in season openers.

Arkansas will boast one of the toughest schedules in the country in 2013, with its 12 opponents combining to post a 99-54 record (.647) in 2012, including seven with at least nine wins. Only two FBS teams played a schedule with a cumulative opposition winning percentage higher than .647 in 2012, and Arkansas' 2012 schedule tied for the sixth-toughest in the country with an opponents' winning percentage of .612.

The Razorbacks face nine opponents that played in bowl games following the 2012 season, the highest number among SEC schools, and five teams that finished the 2012 season ranked in the top 14 of the Associated Press poll, which is tied for the most in the conference.

Arkansas plays at Florida, Alabama and LSU during the 2013 season, marking the third time in school history the Razorbacks will face each team on the road in a single season. Since 1992, Arkansas is the only school to play at Florida, at Alabama and at LSU in the same season multiple times, with four other schools having trips to Gainesville, Tuscaloosa and Baton Rouge on their schedule once.

UA's schedule includes games against teams that have won the last seven national championships (Florida 2006, LSU 2007, Florida 2008, Alabama 2009, Auburn 2010, Alabama 2011, Alabama 2012). Including this year's meeting with Alabama, Arkansas has played the defending national champion 13 times since 1993.

Arkansas is traveling to Piscataway, N.J., for the return trip of a home-and-home with Rutgers. The game marks the first time the Razorbacks have played a football game in northeast part of the country since playing at Fordham in 1940.

The 2013 season marks the 75th anniversary of Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium in Fayetteville. The first game was a 27-7 Arkansas victory over Oklahoma A&M on Sept. 24, 1938, and the Razorbacks have compiled a 166-81-2 (.667) record all-time inside the stadium.

The Razorbacks host Texas A&M in Fayetteville for the first time since 1990. Arkansas leads the all-time series 41-25-3 and has won three of the last four matchups.

THE STAFF

Head coach Bret Bielema's first staff at Arkansas is a collection of renowned recruiters and highly respected teachers of the game with a combined 174 years of coaching experience.

Head coach Bret Bielema and the nine assistant coaches have combined for 1,376 wins, three national championships, 29 conference championships, 14 BCS bowl appearances and 130 winning seasons.

Bret Bielema was hired as Arkansas' head coach Dec. 4, 2012.

The coaching staff also has tutored 203 all-conference honorees, 20 All-Americans, 25 major award winners and 153 NFL Draft selections, including 28 first-round picks. Once in the NFL, 32 former players have appeared in 40 Super Bowls with two earning Super Bowl MVP honors.

THE TEAM

Arkansas' leaders in each of the following categories from the 2012 season are projected to return to the 2013 squad: scoring, tackles for loss, sacks, quarterback hurries, fumble recoveries, forced fumbles, blocked kicks, field goals, PATs, kickoffs and punt returns.

UA is set to return five starters on offense and eight on defense, while also bringing back its kicker from 2012. The Razorbacks return 25 players who made at least one start in 2012 (13 on offense and 12 on defense), including 13 who made at least six starts last season.

THE OFFENSE

The Razorbacks begin their transition on offense under new offensive coordinator Jim Chaney. Chaney is expected to have 23 returning lettermen on offense and 15 who have started at least one game in their career. Arkansas also returns players who accounted for 53 percent of its scoring in 2012.

Arkansas' offensive line, which ranked third in the SEC in fewest sacks allowed in 2012 with an average of 1.58 per game, enters its first season under offensive line coach Sam Pittman. Last season, Pittman's offensive line at Tennessee led the SEC and ranked fifth in the NCAA with an average of 0.67 sacks allowed per game.

Travis Swanson, a second-team All-SEC selection in 2012 and 2013 Rimington Trophy candidate, anchors the offensive line and has started all 38 games of his career.

Jonathan Williams is the Razorbacks' leading returning rusher after carrying 45 times for 231 yards, an average of 5.1 yards per carry, in 2012. Williams also caught eight passes for 208 yards and two touchdowns in his true freshman season. The backfield figures to benefit from the return of fullback Kiero Small, who missed the final 11 games of 2012 due to injury. The backfield rotation also features junior Morgan Linton and sophomores Nate Holmes and Kody Walker.

Sophomore Brandon Allen exited spring practice on top of the depth chart at quarterback looking to replace Tyler Wilson. Allen was 21-of-49 passing for 186 yards and one touchdown as a redshirt freshman in 2012. AJ Derby, who joined the Razorbacks in January of 2013, entered the summer number two on the depth chart.

Arkansas' wide receiver group features a wealth of playing experience and contributions. The group is led by sophomore Mekale McKay and senior Javontee Herndon, who each pulled in 21 catches in 2012. McKay totaled 317 yards, an average of 15.1 yards per catch, and two touchdowns, while Herndon earned 304 yards and caught three touchdowns. Julian Horton, Demetrius Wilson and Keon Hatcher all return after catching at least one touchdown pass in 2012.

Senior Austin Tate headlines the tight end group after catching 14 passes for 111 yards last season. Sophomore Alex Voelzke caught two passes for 28 yards and one touchdown, while classmate Mitchell Loewen and redshirt freshman Jeremy Sprinkle could also be included in the rotation.

THE DEFENSE

New defensive coordinator Chris Ash will have 21 returning lettermen, including eight starters, and 12 players who have started at least one game in their career at his disposal for the 2013 season.

Arkansas returns players who accounted for 73 percent of the team's quarterback hurries, 71 percent of its sacks, 63 percent of its forced fumbles, 59 percent of its tackles for loss, 56 percent of its tackles and 50 percent of its interceptions in 2012.

Chris Smith and Trey Flowers return to bookend the Razorbacks' defensive line after being the only set of teammates to rank in the top five of the SEC in tackles for loss per game and in the top eight of the SEC in sacks per game. Smith and Flowers each registered 13.0 tackles for loss to tie for fifth in the conference. Smith also recorded 9.5 sacks, the seventh-highest single-season total in school history, to rank fourth in the SEC, and Flowers added 6.0 sacks, tying for eighth in the conference.

Mekale McKay averaged 15.1 yards per reception with a long of 61 yards as a true freshman in 2012.

Rohan Gaines was named a Freshman All-American in 2012 after ranking second on the team with 75 tackles.

The interior of the UA defensive line boasts strong returners as well, led by senior Byran Jones. Jones tied for sixth on the team with 52 tackles, including 5.0 for loss with 1.5 sacks, and added four quarterback hurries, one fumble recovery and one blocked kick in 2012. Classmate Robert Thomas ranked third among Razorbacks last season with five quarterback hurries and added 18 tackles, including 5.0 for loss with 2.5 sacks.

Arkansas returns two linebackers who were on the SEC All-Freshman Team last year in A.J. Turner and Otha Peters. Turner started the final six games of 2012 and ranked fifth on the team with 53 tackles, including a career-high 12 in the season's final game vs. No. 8 LSU, and Peters recorded 32 tackles, including eight in each of his first two starts at No. 12 South Carolina and at Mississippi State.

Arkansas returns four starters in the secondary, including sophomore safety Rohan Gaines who was a Freshman All-American last season after ranking second on the team with 75 tackles and adding four pass breakups, one quarterback hurry and one forced fumble. Senior Eric Bennett returns at the other safety spot, while junior Tevin Mitchel, who tied for the team lead with two forced fumbles, and sophomore Will Hines return after being starters at the cornerback positions in 2012.

THE SPECIAL TEAMS

Kicker Zach Hocker enters his final season as UA's career record holder for points scored by a kicker with 287, PATs made with 143 and PAT attempts with 145. He led the NCAA with an average kickoff distance of 64.66 yards in 2012, was second in the SEC and sixth in the NCAA with his touchback percentage of 67.24 and ranked third in the conference and tied for 11th in the country with 39 touchbacks.

Nate Holmes returns after ranking 10th in the SEC in punt return average. Holmes also gained kickoff return experience, along with classmate D'Arthur Cowan, as a true freshman in 2012.

Chris Smith ranked in the top five in the SEC in sacks per game and tackles for loss per game in 2012.

HEAD COACH BRET BIELEMA

Bret Bielema, who led Wisconsin to three straight Rose Bowls by winning each of the last three Big Ten titles, was named the 32nd head football coach in Arkansas history Dec. 4, 2012.

Bielema brings a 68-24 (.739) career record as a head coach, the eighth-highest winning percentage among active coaches in the NCAA with at least five years of experience, built behind strong offense, stifling defense and all-around disciplined play. He is one of only 11 active head coaches and 16 overall to have led a team to at least three BCS games. His 40 wins from 2009-12 tied for the most of any four-year stretch in Wisconsin history. The Badgers led the country in fewest turnovers from 2010-12 with 31, 10 fewer than second-place Alabama and Wake Forest.

Bielema is the only head coach in the country with an offensive lineman drafted in the first round of each of the last three NFL Drafts. Travis Frederick was selected 31st overall by Dallas in 2013, following Kevin Zeitler, taken 27th overall by Cincinnati in 2012, and Gabe Carimi, the 29th overall pick by Chicago in 2011. His Wisconsin teams also led the country with 12 offensive players picked in

"We will recruit uncommon men here. We will recruit men that are held to higher standards. I don't want people to be normal. I want them to be uncommon."

the 2011-13 NFL Drafts, one more than Alabama and USC, two more than Arkansas and three more than Georgia and Stanford.

In 2012, Bielema guided Wisconsin to its third straight Big Ten championship and the Badgers became the first team to represent the Big Ten in three straight Rose Bowls since Michigan qualified following the 1976-78 seasons. In his final game as Wisconsin head coach, Bielema led the Badgers to a 70-31 win over No. 14 Nebraska in the Big Ten Championship Game. Wisconsin became the second team to score 70 points in a conference championship game, matching the number scored by Texas in the 2005 Big 12 Championship Game. Wisconsin also had two 200-yard rushers in the same game for the first time in school history.

"He's a tremendous coach with great knowledge of the game and he is an unbelievable person. Arkansas is getting a great human being as well as a great coach. The way he handled me when I first got there was tremendous. He really pushed me to compete and instilled in me the mentality to go 1-0 every day, go 1-0 every game. He will do a great job at Arkansas and they will win a lot of games." – Russell Wilson, 2012 NFL Rookie of the Year

Also during the 2012 season, running back Montee Ball broke the NCAA career records for total touchdowns and rushing touchdowns. Ball scored 83 total touchdowns, breaking the previous record of 78, and 77 rushing touchdowns, besting the old record of 73. As a team, the Badgers ranked in the top 25 in the country in rushing offense, total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, pass efficiency defense and pass defense.

In Bielema's seven seasons as head coach, he has had 16 players earn All-America honors, including 10 first-team All-Americans. Wisconsin also had two Outland Trophy winners, one Doak Walker Award winner, one winner of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award and one Lott IMPACT Trophy winner as well as finalists for numerous other individual awards, including the Heisman Trophy. In the last five years, 20 Badgers were taken in the NFL Draft, including four in the first round.

Bielema, who served as Wisconsin's defensive coordinator for two seasons before becoming head coach, was on staff as UW compiled a 55-6 record at Camp Randall Stadium in his nine years. The Badgers won their first 16 home games under Bielema, the second-longest home winning streak in school history.

In his first two seasons as head coach, Bielema led Wisconsin to 21 wins. Only two other men in Big Ten history, Michigan's Fielding Yost (22) and Ohio State's Jim Tressel (21), have guided their teams to as many as 21 wins in their first two seasons as Big Ten head coaches.

Bielema coached Wisconsin to victories in 17 of his first 18 games. That represents the second-best start to a head coaching career in Big Ten history. Only Michigan's Yost, who went 55-0-1 from 1901-05, had a better beginning to a career.

In 2011, the Badgers won the inaugural Big Ten Championship Game, defeating Michigan State 42-39 to advance to the Rose Bowl for the second straight season. Wisconsin, winners of the Leaders Division, finished the season with an 11-3 record and recorded 11 regular-season victories for just the third time in school history, all under Bielema's watch.

Wisconsin's high-powered offense ranked sixth in the country in scoring in 2011 behind quarterback Russell Wilson and Ball. They became the first teammates in FBS history to throw at least 30 touchdowns and run for at least

"My first reaction is 'Wow, Arkansas just made a great hire'. Bret Bielema will do a phenomenal job for them. You look at what he's been able to do at Wisconsin. You imagine the way he'll be able to recruit in the SEC. His style of football will fit in very well in the SEC. I was amazed with the name when that name surfaced because I just have a lot of respect for the job that he'll be able to do."

Growing Up and Family

Bret was born in Silvis, Ill., and the family lived in Moline, part of the Quad Cities, before moving to a farm outside Prophetstown, which is 35 miles from Davenport, Iowa.

Bret is the son of Arnie and Marilyn Bielema and he was born on Jan. 13, 1970. His parents have been married for more than 50 years. His hometown is Prophetstown, Ill., which has a population of 1,800 people.

Bret's father (Arnie) ran a hog farm and worked at the Genesco Co-Op, while his mother (Marilyn) directed a day care center. The Bielema family's 2,500 hogs outnumbered the human population of their hometown of Prophetstown (1,800).

Bret's mother (Marilyn) has battled cancer and she is where he says he gets his toughness. While at Wisconsin, Bielema organized Football 101 for Women, an annual fundraising event to heighten the awareness of and raise funds to battle breast cancer. Through the instruction of Bret and his assistants, 300 women were exposed to the game's fundamentals – with all proceeds benefiting the Madison affiliate of the Susan G. Komen for the Cure.

Bret was married on March 10, 2012 to his wife Jen. The two married after dating for four years.

Jen did not know Bret coached football until about four months after they met in Las Vegas. They found out later she was at Wisconsin's Capital One Bowl victory over Arkansas, having decided to attend the game with a group of friends and her then-boyfriend.

Bret proposed to Jen on a cruise in March of 2011. The first night they were at a private dinner and he told her he did not want to be without her in the future and got down on one knee and proposed and turned his phone off for the week.

Bret did not buy the engagement ring in Madison, Wis., fearful word would get out. Instead, he purchased it from a Naples, Fla., jeweler he met through Wisconsin Athletic Director Barry Alvarez. A month before proposing, Bret attended an event in Naples and asked permission from Jen's father, Greg.

"Bret Bielema's style of football is tailor-made for the SEC. His teams play tough, hard-nosed defense, and he believes in running the ball the way NASA believes in space travel. At Wisconsin, he saw to it that the Badgers were a regular in the Rose Bowl. The Hogs are convinced that he's the kind of coach and developer of talent that will make them a regular in the SEC championship race." – Chris Low, ESPN.com

30 scores in the same season. Ball, a first-team All-American, was a finalist for the Heisman Trophy and tied Barry Sanders' FBS record for touchdowns scored in a season with 39 and broke Sanders' NCAA single-season scoring record with 236 points. Offensive linemen Peter Konz and Kevin Zeitler also earned first-team All-America recognition. The Badgers had a school-record nine players receive first-team All-Big Ten honors.

In 2010, the Badgers won a share of the 12th Big Ten championship in school history and first since 1999. UW tied a school record with seven conference victories and earned their first trip to the Rose Bowl since 1999. Wisconsin finished the season with an 11-2 record and ranked No. 7 in the final Associated Press Poll. The Badgers were explosive on offense, setting a school record and ranking fifth in the country in scoring offense by averaging 41.5 points per game. Their 45.2 points per game in conference play was the second-highest average in Big Ten history. Wisconsin nearly became the first team in FBS history to have three running backs gain 1,000 yards in the same season as James White finished with 1,052 yards, John Clay had 1,012 and Ball ran for 996.

Wisconsin was the most disciplined team in the country in 2010, leading the nation in both fewest turnovers with nine and fewest penalties per game with an average of 3.15. UW also ranked in the top 10 nationally in pass efficiency, third-down conversions, fourth-down conversions, red zone offense, time of possession and turnover margin. The Badgers were one of just six teams in the country to rank among the top 25 in both total offense and total defense.

Wisconsin players took home several national awards in 2010, including the Outland

Trophy (Gabe Carimi), the Lott IMPACT Trophy (J.J. Watt) and the Utrius Golden Arm Award (Scott Tolzien). Carimi, Clay, Lance Kendricks, John Moffitt and Watt were all named All-Americans, giving Wisconsin its most All-America honorees since 1999. Bielema also garnered national acclaim for the Badgers' tremendous season. He was named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson, Bear Bryant and Home Depot Coach of the Year awards as well as a semifinalist for the Joseph V. Paterno Coach of the Year Award.

Eighteen players received All-Big Ten recognition, including five first-teamers. Carimi, Kendricks, Moffitt, Watt and Antonio Fenelus were all named first-team All-Big Ten, while Carimi was named Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year and White was chosen as the Big Ten Freshman of the Year.

Wisconsin's success under Bielema translated to the classroom as well. UW had a record-tying 22 members of the football team honored as Academic All-Big Ten in 2010, the second consecutive season Wisconsin had 22 players named Academic All-Big Ten. Before 2009, the school record was 19, set in Bielema's second season.

In 2009, Wisconsin won 10 games for just the sixth time in school history, capping the season with a win in the Champs Sports Bowl over No. 14 Miami. The Badgers started the season 5-0 before dropping a pair of games to teams

"The road to winning a championship in the SEC is no secret. Physical, power football, road grader-sized offensive linemen, a dominant defense and balanced offense that does not beat themselves. That's who Bret Bielema is. Jeff Long made THE hire of the year in college football. Quickly, quietly and efficiently he got it done." – Jimmy Dykes, ESPN Analyst

Bret's mother (Marilyn) saw something in him at a very early age; a drive to be successful. When he was in the third grade she went to a parent-teacher conference where his teacher told her Bret says he's going to be a pro football player and don't you ever doubt him.

Bielema played college football as a defensive lineman at the University of Iowa under legendary coach Hayden Fry from 1988 to 1992, serving as a team captain his senior season.

The Mentors

ranked in the top 15. Wisconsin then won five of its last six games to finish the season 10-3. After not being ranked to start the season, UW finished the year ranked 16th in both polls.

In addition to team success, a number of Badger individuals earned honors in 2009. Running back John Clay was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year while linebacker Chris Borland took home conference freshman of the year honors. A total of five Badgers were named first-team All-Big Ten. Wisconsin led the Big Ten in scoring offense, total offense, rushing offense, rushing defense, sacks, time of possession and red zone offense. In the national rankings, UW ranked among the top 10 in rushing defense, third-down conversions, sacks, time of possession and red zone offense.

In 2008, Bielema guided the Badgers to a school-record seventh consecutive bowl game. UW began the season 3-0, including a road win at No. 21 Fresno State, Wisconsin's first road win over a ranked non-conference opponent since 1958.

Bielema took the Badgers to New Year's Day bowl games in each of his first two campaigns as head coach. In 2007, the Badgers were 9-4 overall and Bielema was a semifinalist for the George Munger Award, given by the Maxwell Football Club to the national coach of the year. The 2007 Badgers fought through key injuries and other forms of adversity to win four of their last five games and earn an invitation to the Outback Bowl in Tampa, Fla. Tight end Travis Beckum and kicker Taylor Mehlhaff earned All-America honors.

Bielema guided the Badgers to a 12-1 overall record and 7-1 mark in the Big Ten during his rookie year in 2006. Wisconsin capped that record-setting season with a 17-14 win over Arkansas in the 2007 Capital One Bowl. No previous Wisconsin team had won more than 11 games in a season. In addition, Bielema became just the third rookie head coach in NCAA Bowl Subdivision history to pilot his team to 12 victories. His efforts were rewarded when he was named the 2006 Dave McClain Big Ten Coach of the Year. Bielema also was named one of five finalists for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and was a finalist for the 2006 Schutt Sports Division IA Coach of the Year Award.

Wisconsin surprised most observers outside the program by setting school records for overall wins (12) and regular-season victories (11), as well as tying the UW mark for conference victories (seven). The Badgers did it with a defensive unit that ended the 2006 regular season ranked among the top three nationally in pass defense, pass efficiency defense, total defense and scoring defense. And they did it with an offense led by a pair of seniors (QB John Stocco and All-America tackle Joe Thomas), a young but talented offensive line, the Big Ten Freshman of the Year (P.J. Hill) at tailback and an emerging corps of receivers, including John Mackey Award semifinalist Travis Beckum.

Bielema was Wisconsin's defensive coordinator in 2004 and 2005, a period in which the program produced a 19-6 record under former head coach Barry Alvarez. The 2004 Badgers were ranked sixth nationally in scoring defense and ninth in total defense. The 2005 club, which earned Wisconsin's first shutout since 1999, finished its 10-win season with a 24-10 victory over No. 7 Auburn in the 2006 Capital One Bowl, limiting the high-powered Tigers to just 236 yards of total offense.

"I have the utmost respect for Coach Bielema. He is a great coach, and I have no doubt he will do an outstanding job. Wisconsin is going to miss him." – Joe Thomas, Six-Time Pro Bowl OL

The Community

Bret is generous with his time and energy as he made more than 55 public appearances around the state in the spring of 2013. He is active with Komen Foundation and Big Brothers/Big Sisters, among other charitable organizations.

Bret is known as a very social person. When he started kindergarten, his mother was working so his grandmother watched him in the mornings and would send him to kindergarten in the afternoon. Bret and his grandmother would go to the nursing home his aunt stayed in and push wheelchairs to the cafeteria. Ever since, it has been important for him to connect with people.

During Bielema's two years guiding the Badger defense, two players earned first-team All-America honors and two others were first-team All-Big Ten selections. While coaching the Badgers' linebackers, Bielema developed Mark Zalewski and Dontez Sanders, both of whom earned honorable mention all-conference acclaim.

Bielema was co-defensive coordinator at Kansas State under Bill Snyder in 2002 and 2003. The Wildcats were 22-6 during Bielema's time in Manhattan and finished in the top 10 nationally in scoring and total defense both seasons. The Wildcats won their first Big 12 title in 2003. Among Bielema's standout players at Kansas State were first-team All-American Josh Buhl, 2003 NFL second-round draft pick Terry Pierce and second-team All-Big 12 selection Bryan Hickman.

Prior to his years at Kansas State, Bielema spent nine seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Iowa, where he worked for head coaches Hayden Fry and Kirk Ferentz. The 1997 Hawkeyes posted three shutouts and ranked No. 4 nationally in scoring defense.

Bielema lettered from 1989-92 at Iowa after joining the program as a walk-on in 1988. He earned a scholarship after his first year and was a member of Iowa's 1990 Big Ten championship team. A starter as a junior in 1991, he was a team co-captain as a senior. Bielema signed a free agent contract with the Seattle Seahawks and later completed his playing career with the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League.

A 1992 graduate of Iowa with a degree in marketing, Bielema is married to the former Jen Hielsberg.

"I'm excited about our program moving forward under Bret Bielema. He has had a tremendous amount of success, especially in his time at Wisconsin. I feel he can carry on the tradition and foundation we have set at Arkansas to be one of the top football teams in the country and nationally relevant year in and year out." – Tyler Wilson, Oakland Raiders QB

CHRIS ASH

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SECONDARY

Chris Ash, who helped lead Wisconsin to three straight Rose Bowls, was named Arkansas' defensive coordinator Dec. 11, 2012.

Ash spent the last three seasons at Wisconsin, where he helped the Badgers win three straight Big Ten championships and become the first Big Ten team to play in three straight Rose Bowls since Michigan following the 1976-78 seasons. Ash brings experience as a defensive coordinator at two other schools and has also been a recruiting coordinator three times in his career.

In 2012, Wisconsin led the Big Ten and ranked third in the NCAA with a three-and-out percentage of 41.72, and the Badgers' 5.23 three and outs per game topped the Big Ten and was fourth in the country. The Badgers' defense was 13th in the NCAA in total defense and tied for 19th in the country in scoring defense. Wisconsin also ranked 21st in the nation in third-down conversion defense in addition to being third in the conference in sacks and ranked 21st in the NCAA in rush defense and pass efficiency defense and 23rd in the country in pass defense.

Defensive backs Devin Smith and Marcus Cromartie both ranked in the top seven in the Big Ten in passes defended with Smith fifth and Cromartie tied for seventh. In addition, Smith also tied for third in the conference in interceptions. The Badgers also produced two of the top nine sack artists in the conference, with defensive end Brendan Kelly tied for seventh with an average of 0.45 sacks per game and defensive end Tyler Dippel's 0.42 per-game average tied for ninth. Linebacker Chris Borland tied for third in the Big Ten in forced fumbles and fourth in the conference in fumble recoveries, and linebacker Mike Taylor ranked fifth in the Big Ten with an average of 1.15 tackles for loss per game.

In 2011, Ash's first season as defensive coordinator at Wisconsin, the Badgers ranked 13th in the country in scoring defense, allowing an average of 19.0 points per game, and 15th in the nation in total defense. It was the first time since 2006 that Wisconsin had allowed fewer than 20 points per game. Ten of the Badgers' 14 opponents failed to score more than 17 points. Wisconsin allowed just 163.6 yards per game through the air in 2011, the second-best mark by a Wisconsin defense in 20 years, to rank fourth in the NCAA in pass defense.

Five Wisconsin defenders earned All-Big Ten honors, including four first-team selections. Taylor and Borland finished first and second, respectively, in the conference in total tackles, and both finished in the top 10 in the country. Taylor's 150 tackles were the most by a Badger since 2001. Defensive backs Aaron Henry and Antonio Fenelus tied for second in the conference with four interceptions, and as a team Wisconsin was second in the Big Ten with 16 interceptions.

In 2010, Ash oversaw marked improvement in the Badger pass defense. Wisconsin allowed just 193.9 passing yards per game through the air. Three of the starters in the Badger secondary earned All-Big Ten honors as Fenelus earned first-team all-conference from the media, Henry was a second-team pick by the coaches and cornerback Niles Brinkley was a consensus honorable mention All-Big Ten pick.

Henry, a first-year starter at free safety in 2010, scored three defensive touchdowns, recovered three fumbles, recorded two interceptions and led the team with 47 solo tackles. Fenelus led the team with four interceptions, including one returned for a touchdown.

Prior to his time at Wisconsin, Ash spent eight of 10 seasons at Iowa State, beginning as a defensive graduate assistant in 2000. He was promoted to secondary coach in 2002 and added the title of recruiting coordinator in 2006.

Following the 2006 season, Ash moved on to become the secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at San Diego State. He stayed there for two seasons before returning to Iowa State in the same position.

In 2009, his final season at Iowa State, the Cyclones tied for second in the NCAA in red zone efficiency and ranked ninth in the NCAA with 32 takeaways. In 2005, Iowa State led the Big 12 with 22 interceptions after ranking second in the conference with 17 interceptions the year before.

Ash began his career as a volunteer assistant at Drake in 1996. The next season he served as a defensive graduate assistant for the Bulldogs and then took over as defensive coordinator for two seasons.

Ash graduated from Drake with a bachelor's degree in secondary education in 1996. He received his master's degree in education from Iowa State in 2005. A native of Ottumwa, Iowa, Ash has two children, Tanner and Jacey.

JIM CHANEY

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

Jim Chaney, who boasts experience in the NFL, SEC and Big Ten, was named Arkansas' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach Dec. 12, 2012.

Chaney spent the last four seasons at Tennessee as the Vols' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach and was the interim head coach for UT's 37-17 win against Kentucky in the 2012 season finale. Prior to his time in Knoxville, he coached the St. Louis Rams for three seasons after nine years as offensive coordinator at Purdue. Chaney also has held recruiting coordinator duties at three different schools.

Chaney has coached 26 NFL Draft picks after four of his former pupils at Tennessee were selected in the 2013 NFL Draft, including wide receiver Cordarrelle Patterson, who was taken 29th overall in the first round by Minnesota. Additionally, wide receiver Justin Hunter was the second pick in the second round, offensive guard Dallas Thomas was a third-round pick and tight end Mychael Rivera was selected in the sixth round.

Chaney oversaw the development of UT quarterback Tyler Bray, who was named the Vols' starter as a true freshman. After playing in 28 career games, Bray moved into the top five in many of the school's passing categories, ranking fourth in passing touchdowns, fourth in passing yards, fourth in pass attempts and fifth in completions.

In 2012, Bray passed for 3,619 yards and 34 touchdowns. His touchdowns were the seventh-most in a season in SEC history, and his passing yards ranked 11th in conference history. Bray also broke the Tennessee single-game record with 530 yards passing, a record previously held by Peyton Manning and the second-highest single-game total in SEC history.

Also during the 2012 season, Patterson was named first-team All-SEC all-purpose player after leading the SEC and tying for 18th in the NCAA with a single-season school-record 1,858 all-purpose yards. Patterson also was the first player in the NCAA to score a touchdown four different ways in one season since 2008. Hunter ranked third in the SEC with 1,083 receiving yards and was fourth in the conference with an average of 6.1 receptions per game. His 73 catches ranked as the second-highest single-season total in UT history, and his receiving yards ranked third on the school's single-season list.

As a team in 2012, Tennessee led the SEC and was fourth in the NCAA allowing an average of 0.67 sacks per game. The Vols also ranked 16th in the country in passing offense, 19th in total offense, 23rd in scoring offense and 33rd in passing efficiency.

In 2011, Tennessee scored at least 40 points in three of their first four games and ended the season third in the SEC in passing offense and fewest sacks allowed. Wide receiver Da'Rick Rogers led the SEC in receptions with 67 and was second in the conference with 1,040 receiving yards on his way to earning first-team All-SEC honors from the Associated Press.

The 2010 offense produced 71 plays of at least 20 yards, 19 which went for touchdowns, despite fielding a new quarterback, new starting running back and an overhauled offensive line. Hunter set the Tennessee freshman record with seven receiving touchdowns and averaged a team-high 25.9 yards per catch as he earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman Team. Bray broke Tennessee freshman records with 1,849 passing yards, 125 completions and 18 passing touchdowns and became the first UT quarterback to throw multiple touchdowns in six straight games since Manning. Running back Tauren Poole also excelled, rushing for 1,034 yards in his first season as the starter.

Before his time at Tennessee, Chaney spent three seasons with the St. Louis Rams. He coached the offensive line two seasons and worked with the tight ends in 2008. Chaney's offensive line blocked for running back Steven Jackson, who rushed for more than 1,000 yards all three seasons Chaney was in St. Louis.

Chaney made the move to professional football after nine years as Purdue's offensive coordinator. In his first four seasons, he also was the Boilermakers' recruiting coordinator and helped break a 13-year bowl drought in his first season. In his time there, Purdue led the Big Ten in passing offense five times and total offense three times. The Boilermakers were ranked in the top 10 in the NCAA in total offense six times, including in 2000 when they were fourth in the country.

While at Purdue, Chaney tutored quarterback Drew Brees, who was drafted in the second round of the 2001 NFL Draft by the San Diego Chargers and was named Super Bowl XLIV MVP and the NFL's Offensive Player of the Year in 2008 and 2009. Brees led the NCAA in total offense in 2000, averaging 349.1 yards per game, and won the Maxwell Award. Chaney also helped direct Tim Stratton to the inaugural John Mackey Award, given to the nation's best tight end, in 2000. The 2000 team won the Big Ten title and advanced to the Rose Bowl for the first time in 33 years.

As recruiting coordinator, Chaney helped Purdue sign some of the country's top high school talent. The 1998 class ranked second in the Big Ten and 11th nationally, and each of his final five signing classes were in the top 30 in the nation.

Before Purdue, Chaney was at Wyoming for four years, serving as offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator from 1994-96 after he was a graduate assistant coaching tight ends in 1993. Chaney began his coaching career at Cal State Fullerton in 1985. He served in many areas, including offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

A native of Holden, Mo., Chaney earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Central Missouri State in 1985. He played nose guard for Central Missouri State and was named an all-conference performer as a senior.

Chaney and his wife, Lisa, have two daughters, Elizabeth and Sara.

SAM PITTMAN

ASSOC. HEAD COACH/RECRUITING COORD./OFF. LINE

Sam Pittman, who has 27 years of experience with 19 coaching offensive line, was named Arkansas' offensive line coach Dec. 13, 2012 and also serves as the Razorbacks' associate head coach and recruiting coordinator. He was named one of the top 50 recruiters in the nation by 247Sports.com in 2013.

Pittman had four former players selected in the 2013 NFL Draft, including offensive guard Jonathan Cooper, who he coached for four years at North Carolina. Cooper was taken seventh overall by the Arizona Cardinals, which made him the highest offensive guard selection since 1986. Guard Dallas Thomas was taken in the third round by Miami, tackle Brennan Williams was a third-round pick by Houston and guard Travis Bond was picked in the seventh round by Minnesota.

Pittman oversaw the offensive line for offensive coordinator Jim Chaney at Tennessee in 2012, when the Volunteers led the SEC and ranked fourth in the NCAA in fewest sacks allowed per game, following five seasons coaching the offensive line at North Carolina.

In 2012, Tennessee quarterback Tyler Bray passed for 3,619 yards and 34 touchdowns. His touchdowns were the seventh-most in a season in SEC history, and his passing yards ranked 11th in conference history. Bray also broke the Tennessee single-game record with 530 yards passing, a record previously held by Peyton Manning and the second-highest single-game total in SEC history. The Tennessee offense also featured first-round NFL Draft pick Cordarrelle Patterson and second-round draft pick Justin Hunter at wide receiver.

The 2011 North Carolina team, with Pittman having been promoted to associate head coach, averaged 6.3 yards per play in the regular season, the second-best mark in the Atlantic Coast Conference. The UNC offensive line helped running back Giovani Bernard, the 37th overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft, to 101.8 yards per game, a mark that led all NCAA freshmen and included seven 100-yard rushing games. Bernard's 14 rushing touchdowns ranked second nationally among freshmen.

Additionally, sophomore quarterback Bryn Renner led the ACC in passing efficiency, a category in which UNC led the conference as a team as well. The Tar Heels ranked fifth in the ACC in total offense at 396.6 yards per game while earning a berth in the AdvoCare V100 Independence Bowl.

Named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters by ESPN.com, Pittman twice signed the No. 2-rated offensive tackle in the country with Alex Hurst in 2010 and Kiaro Holt in 2011. Hurst, who started all 12 games at left tackle for UNC as a sophomore during the 2011 season, joined Cooper as the first Tar Heel tandem to earn All-ACC lineman honors since 1993.

Pittman also developed offensive lineman Garrett Reynolds, who earned second team All-ACC honors in 2008 and was selected in the fifth round of the 2009 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons.

Pittman joined the Tar Heels after four seasons as the offensive line coach at Northern Illinois from 2003-06, including three seasons as assistant head coach from 2004-06. During that time frame, the Huskies produced a pair of standout rushers in Garrett Wolfe and Michael Turner and Pittman tutored offensive tackle Doug Free, who was selected in the fourth round of the 2007 NFL Draft by Dallas and has started 55 straight games entering the 2013 season. Wolfe led the nation in rushing with 1,928 yards in 2006, while Turner finished second in the nation as a senior at Northern Illinois in 2003 with 1,648 yards.

Pittman's first stint as offensive line coach for Northern Illinois was for two years, from 1994-95. Pittman also previously coached the offensive linemen at Kansas, Missouri, Western Michigan and Oklahoma. He also coached offensive tackles and tight ends at Cincinnati. At Kansas, he tutored Justin Hartwig, who was a sixth-round draft pick in 2002 by the Tennessee Titans and started Super Bowl XLIII for the victorious Pittsburgh Steelers. Pittman also recruited Stockar McDougle, the 20th overall pick in the 2000 NFL Draft, to Oklahoma.

Before coaching at NIU, Pittman spent two seasons as the head coach at Hutchinson Community College from 1992-93 after serving as the school's offensive line coach in 1991. He was a head coach in the high school ranks at Trenton High School in Missouri from 1989-90 and at Princeton High School, also in Missouri, from 1987-88. He began his coaching career with a two-year stint as a student assistant at Pittsburg State from 1984-85, followed by one season as an assistant coach at Beggs High School in Oklahoma.

Pittman played defensive end at Pittsburg State, where he was a first-team NAIA All-American and twice earned all-conference recognition. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in 1986 and was inducted into the PSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1998. He is married to the former Jamie Conrad.

CHARLIE PARTRIDGE

ASST. HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE LINE

Charlie Partridge, who helped lead Wisconsin to three straight Rose Bowls, was named Arkansas' defensive line coach Dec. 15, 2012 and also serves as the Razorbacks' assistant head coach.

Partridge spent the last five seasons at Wisconsin, where he helped the Badgers win three straight Big Ten championships and become the first Big Ten team to play in three straight Rose Bowls since Michigan following the 1976-78 seasons. Before the 2011 season, he was promoted to associate head coach, co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach after three seasons as the Badgers' defensive line and specialists coach.

In 2012, Wisconsin led the Big Ten and ranked third in the NCAA with a three-and-out percentage of 41.72, and the Badgers' 5.23 three and outs per game topped the Big Ten and was fourth in the country. The Badgers' defense was 13th in the NCAA in total defense and tied for 19th in the country in scoring defense. Wisconsin also ranked 21st in the nation in third-down conversion defense in addition to being third in the conference in sacks and 21st in the NCAA in rush defense and pass efficiency defense and 23rd in the country in pass defense.

The Badgers also produced two of the top nine sack artists in the conference, with defensive end Brendan Kelly tied for seventh with an average of 0.45 sacks per game and defensive end Tyler Dippel's 0.42 per-game average tied for ninth. Defensive backs Devin Smith and Marcus Cromartie both ranked in the top seven in the Big Ten in passes defended with Smith fifth and Cromartie tied for seventh. In addition, Smith also tied for third in the conference in interceptions. Linebacker Chris Borland tied for third in the Big Ten in forced fumbles and fourth in the conference in fumble recoveries, and linebacker Mike Taylor ranked fifth in the Big Ten with an average of 1.15 tackles for loss per game.

The 2011 Wisconsin defensive line typically rotated at least eight linemen every game, even after losing starting defensive end David Gilbert to a season-ending injury after the fourth game. They were a key component in Wisconsin finishing among the top 15 nationally in both scoring and total defense.

The 2010 season was highlighted by the play of J.J. Watt, who won the Lott IMPACT Trophy. Watt was the leader of Wisconsin's defense, finishing the season tied for seventh in the country in tackles for loss with 21.0. A consensus first-team All-Big Ten selection, Watt tied for second in the Big Ten in sacks with 7.0 and tied for third with three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. He tied for second on the team in tackles with 62, led the team with 10 quarterback hurries and also broke up eight passes, blocked three kicks and grabbed one interception.

A second-team All-American by Walter Camp, Rivals.com and CBSSports.com, Watt was named Lott IMPACT Defensive Player of the Week three times during the season. He was selected 11th overall by the Houston Texans in the 2011 NFL Draft, the highest for a Wisconsin defensive player since 1992.

In 2009, the UW defensive line exceeded all expectations after losing three senior starters from the prior year. The headliner of the group was senior defensive end O'Brien Schofield, who ranked second in the country with 24.5 tackles for loss, the second-highest total in school history. He also tied for seventh in the country and third in school history with 12.0 sacks, while Watt pitched in with 15.5 tackles for loss. The duo's 40.0 combined tackles for loss were the most by a pair of teammates in the country in 2009.

The defensive line also was instrumental in transforming Wisconsin's rush defense into one of the best in school history. The Badgers led the Big Ten and ranked fifth in the country in rushing defense, allowing just 88.2 yards per game on the ground, the second-best season average in school history. Wisconsin held each of its last 10 opponents to less than 100 yards rushing, the longest streak in the country and the longest streak in school history.

In his first year at Wisconsin, Partridge led a veteran line. The three senior starters, Matt Shaughnessy, Mike Newkirk and Jason Chapman, all earned All-Big Ten accolades while Schofield, in his first season as a starter at defensive end, tied for the team lead in sacks. Following the season, Shaughnessy was a third-round draft pick by the Oakland Raiders.

In his work with the specialists, Partridge led four-year starters placekicker Philip Welch and punter Brad Nortman to leave their mark on Wisconsin's record book. Welch, a first-team Freshman All-American in 2008, finished his career ranked second in school history in points with 384, field goals made with 59 and field goal percentage at .776. Nortman, a two-time honorable mention All-Big Ten selection, was third in school history with a 42.1 career average.

Before his time at Wisconsin, Partridge spent five years at Pitt. For his first four seasons, he coached the defensive line before switching to tutor the Panthers' linebackers in 2007. He also had special teams coaching responsibilities for the last three seasons, including the last two as special teams coordinator.

Pitt ranked No. 5 nationally and led the Big East in total defense in 2007, allowing just 297.7 yards per game. In addition, the Panthers led the conference and were No. 3 in the country in pass defense, surrendering only 167.3 yards per game. Pitt was fourth in the Big East and 20th in the NCAA with 2.92 sacks per contest. The Panthers' signature defensive effort that year came when they shut down high-powered and No. 1-ranked West Virginia in a 13-9 win that eliminated the Mountaineers from national title contention. Defensive lineman Joe Clermond was a second-team All-Big East selection.

Partridge's special teams units flourished at Pitt. In 2006, his first season as special teams coordinator, Pitt led the Big East in net punting with a 37.54 average and kickoff returns at an average of 24.14 yards per return. Punter Adam Graessle was an All-Big East selection, and kick returner Lowell Robinson led the conference and finished ninth nationally with a 27.9-yard average. ESPN's 2006 college football "play of the year" selection was a 73-yard punt return for a touchdown by Pitt's Darrelle Revis against West Virginia. Revis was drafted 14th overall in the first round by the New York Jets in the 2007 NFL Draft.

Prior to his years at Pitt, Partridge served as recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach at Eastern Illinois in 2002 and helped lead the team to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs after sharing the Ohio Valley Conference title.

Partridge worked for head coach Dan McCarney at Iowa State from 1998-2001. He was a defensive graduate assistant in 1998-99 and worked with outside linebackers. He became the program's director of football operations in 2000.

Partridge was an NSCA All-American at Drake, where he played defensive line. He was a three-year starter and team captain for the Bulldogs before starting his coaching career at his alma mater as a graduate assistant in 1996-97. He coached running backs, including a pair of 1,000-yard rushers, and served as a strength and conditioning coach.

Partridge, a Plantation, Fla., native, earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education from Drake in 1995 and a master's degree in education from Iowa State in 2002. Partridge and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Alexa and Kylee.

TAVER JOHNSON

CORNERBACKS

Taver Johnson enters his second season with the Razorbacks and will coach cornerbacks in 2013 after coaching linebackers in 2012.

Johnson was named assistant head coach and guided the linebackers in 2012 after coming from Ohio State where he spent five seasons as cornerbacks coach before being retained following the Buckeyes' coaching staff change in December of 2011. In his first spring practice in Fayetteville, Johnson handled all of the administrative duties of the head coach while leading the Razorback football program over the final two weeks.

Johnson tutored the youngest position group on Arkansas' roster in 2012 as true freshmen A.J. Turner and Otha Peters each made multiple starts for the Razorbacks and were named to the SEC All-Freshman Team. Five different players started at linebacker throughout the season. Senior captains Alonzo Highsmith and Tenarius Wright each suffered season-ending injuries in October, with Highsmith tied for second in the SEC and 23rd in the NCAA in tackles when he was hurt. Turner made six starts and finished fifth on the team with 53 tackles, while Peters started three games and recorded 32 tackles with two quarterback hurries. The Razorbacks ranked fifth in the SEC and 20th in the NCAA in rush defense and fifth in the conference and 24th in the nation in red zone defense.

During his five seasons in Columbus, Ohio State put together a record of 50-15 that included four straight Big Ten titles and BCS appearances. Johnson helped produce 2008 Jim Thorpe Award winner Malcolm Jenkins, who was a two-time first-team All-Big Ten performer. The Buckeyes had three cornerbacks selected in the NFL Drafts between 2008-12, led by Jenkins as the 14th overall pick by New Orleans in 2009. Ohio State had three different cornerbacks earn four first-team All-Big Ten honors under Johnson.

In 2011, the Buckeyes ranked fourth in the Big Ten in turnover margin and fifth in the conference in pass defense. Ohio State also ranked in the top 30 in the NCAA in total defense and scoring defense.

In 2010, Ohio State finished the season with a 12-1 record and a victory in the Sugar Bowl. The Buckeye defense led the Big Ten and ranked second in the NCAA in total defense by allowing 250.6 yards per game and topped the conference and ranked third in the country with an average of 13.3 points per game allowed. They also led the Big Ten while tying for third in the country in turnover margin, and ranked fourth in the nation in rushing defense, pass defense and pass efficiency defense.

In 2009, the Buckeyes were 11-2 and defeated Oregon in the Rose Bowl. Ohio State allowed just 262.5 yards per game, first in the Big Ten and fifth in the NCAA, and 12.2 points per game, second in the conference and fifth in the country, while also ranking number one in the Big Ten and fifth in the NCAA by allowing 83.4 rushing yards per game. Ohio State also was second in the Big Ten and seventh in the nation in pass efficiency defense and second in the conference and 17th in the nation in pass defense.

Jenkins brought the Thorpe Award to Columbus as the nation's best defensive back in 2008. He recorded 57 tackles, three interceptions and three forced fumbles while leading the Buckeye secondary that held opponents to 164.3 passing yards per game, first in the Big Ten and eighth in the NCAA. Ohio State ranked in the top 20 in the country and top three in the conference in rushing defense, scoring defense, total defense and pass efficiency defense.

In 2007, the Buckeyes played in the BCS National Championship Game and led the country in total defense, allowing 233.0 yards per game, scoring defense, giving up just 12.7 points per game, and in pass defense, as opponents passed for 150.2 yards per game. Ohio State also led the Big Ten in rushing defense, allowing 82.9 yards per game to rank third in the country, and in pass efficiency defense with a mark of 98.73, which was fourth in the nation.

Johnson served as special teams coach with the Cleveland Browns in 2004. He was the linebackers coach at Miami (Ohio) from 2000-03. During that time he produced four first-team All-MAC selections, including two-time honoree Terrell Jones, who finished his career among the top 10 tacklers in program history. Johnson also was responsible for grooming two-time All-MAC linebackers and NFL signees Terna Nande and John Busing.

From 2005-06, he was the assistant head coach and defensive coordinator for the RedHawks, and in his first year back the unit forced 35 turnovers to rank fourth nationally. The defense also ranked among the MAC's top three teams in both scoring and rushing defense. In 2006, Miami (Ohio) grabbed 14 interceptions while forcing 22 turnovers. The RedHawks had six defensive players named All-MAC during the 2005 and 2006 seasons.

Johnson was a graduate assistant in 1999 at Notre Dame where his responsibilities were on the defensive side of the ball in addition to working with the Irish defensive scout team.

Johnson spent the 1998 season as the defensive coordinator at Millikin University in Decatur, Ill. His defense ranked first in scoring defense, allowing 14.1 points per game, in the College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin and was ranked second in total defense. Johnson coordinated all recruiting activities at Millikin and also was involved in practice organization, game planning and film breakdown.

In 1997, Johnson was the linebacker coach at Millikin after serving as the strength and conditioning coordinator. During the 1996 season, he also was the director of the Fitness and Wellness Center at the school. He spent the 1994 and 1995 seasons as the defensive line coach at Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio.

Johnson is a native of Cincinnati and a high school graduate of Cincinnati Academy of Physical Education (C.A.P.E.). After an outstanding high school career, he went on to play three years of football at Wittenberg, where he was a two-time All-American and the North Coast Athletics Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1992 and 1993.

Johnson and his wife Sharday, a Toledo marketing graduate who ran track for the Rockets, have a son, Tyree and a daughter, Brooklynn.

BARRY LUNNEY JR.

TIGHT ENDS

Barry Lunney Jr., a former UA letterman and graduate assistant coach, returned to his alma mater to coach tight ends for head coach Bret Bielema on Jan. 15, 2013.

Lunney most recently served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Bentonville High School from 2005-12. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas before coaching at Tulsa and as the co-offensive coordinator at San Jose State.

In his eight years at Bentonville, the Tigers won 78 games, including 25 straight in 2010-11, played in four state championship games, claiming state titles in 2008 and 2010, and won six straight 7A West Conference crowns from 2007-12. Bentonville played in the 7A state championship game in each of his final three seasons and won at least 12 games in four of his final five seasons.

Bentonville quarterback Dallas Hardison broke the Arkansas state single-season completion percentage record in 2010 and bettered the record in 2011 under the direct guidance of Lunney. In 2011 and 2012, the Tigers won their first 12 games to advance to the state championship game with an offense that averaged 42.5 and 36.8 points per game, respectively.

The 2010 Bentonville team finished the season 13-0 and won the 7A state championship. The offense averaged 47.0 points per game and scored at least 40 points nine times, including 49 points in the semifinal round and the state championship game. In 2009, the Tigers averaged 38.5 points per game and scored more than 40 points in six games while advancing to the quarterfinal round of the state playoffs and finishing with a 9-2 overall record.

Lunney's first state title at Bentonville came in 2008 as the Tigers won 12 games for the first time since 2001. The offense averaged 30.2 points per game and scored more than 30 points in seven of 13 games. In 2007, Bentonville won the first of its six straight conference crowns and advanced to the semifinal round of the state playoffs behind an offense that averaged 31.1 points per game. The 2006 Tigers qualified for the state playoffs for the first time since 2001 as the offense averaged 34.2 points per game. In 2005, Lunney's first year in charge of the Bentonville offense, its per-game scoring average improved by more than 20 points from the previous year.

Before moving to the high school coaching ranks, Lunney compiled seven years of collegiate coaching experience. His coaching career began with two seasons as a graduate assistant at Arkansas. In 1998, Arkansas won its first eight games and rose to No. 9 in the national rankings on the way to sharing the SEC Western Division title and earning a berth in the Florida Citrus Bowl. Lunney served as the Razorbacks' running backs coach for the bowl game and throughout the spring of 1999. Arkansas spent the majority of the 1999 season in the top 25 of the national rankings and finished the year with a 27-6 win over No. 14 Texas in the Cotton Bowl.

After his time as a graduate assistant, he spent three seasons at Tulsa, first working with quarterbacks in 2000 and 2001 and then moving to wide receivers in 2002. In 2000, quarterback Josh Blankenship, who was named to the conference's all-academic team, ranked fifth in the WAC in total offense, and receiver Don Shoals led the conference and ranked 11th in the NCAA in receptions per game.

Lunney was hired from Tulsa to be the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at San Jose State. In his two seasons there, the offense produced six all-conference performers, and tight end Courtney Anderson was selected by the Oakland Raiders in the 2004 NFL Draft. In 2003, the Spartans ranked 17th in the NCAA in passing offense and quarterback Scott Rislov ranked third in the WAC in passing efficiency and total offense.

As a player for the Razorbacks, Lunney lettered from 1992-95, starting 40 games at quarterback, and was a team captain on the 1995 team that played in the SEC Championship Game for the first time in school history. In his first game as the starting quarterback, he led Arkansas to an upset win at No. 4 Tennessee. He left Arkansas holding UA career records for passing yards, passing touchdowns, pass completions, pass attempts and total offense plays. Lunney also played baseball at Arkansas. He was drafted by the Montreal Expos out of high school in 1992 and by the Minnesota Twins in 1996 and played one season of minor league baseball in the Twins organization.

Lunney graduated from Arkansas in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology. He and his wife, Janelle, have two sons, Luke and Levi. His grandfather, John, lettered at Arkansas from 1946-49.

RANDY SHANNON

LINEBACKERS

Randy Shannon, who has won three national titles as a player and coach, was named Arkansas' linebackers coach on Dec. 30, 2012.

Last season, Shannon coached linebackers at TCU following a four-year stint as head coach at the University of Miami, where he led the Hurricanes to a 28-22 record from 2007-10. Before rising to the head position, Shannon was the defensive coordinator for Miami from 2001-06 and was an assistant coach for the Hurricanes from 1991-97. In between his stints on the Coral Gables campus, Shannon spent three seasons as an assistant coach with the Miami Dolphins. Shannon, who lettered at Miami from 1985-88, was part of three of the Hurricanes' five national championships as a player and assistant coach.

Shannon's linebacker unit excelled in TCU's first season in the Big 12. Kenny Cain was a second-team All-Big 12 selection by the Associated Press and the conference's coaches, and Joel Hasley was an AP honorable mention all-conference performer. Cain made a career-high 14 tackles in a victory at Texas, the most for a TCU linebacker in a game since 2004, and Hasley ranked ninth in the conference in tackles for loss per game.

As a team, the Horned Frogs led the Big 12 in rushing defense and total defense and ranked second in the conference in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense. TCU's average of 103.92 rushing yards per game allowed was 10th in the NCAA, and the team's average of 332.0 total yards allowed per game ranked 18th in the country despite facing five of the nation's top-12 offenses. TCU also led the Big 12 in third-down defense, first downs allowed and three-and-outs per game.

In 2010, Miami earned a 7-5 record, including a 5-3 mark in the ACC, and a berth in the Sun Bowl. In 2009, Shannon guided his team to the program's best mark since the 2005 campaign as Miami made its 35th overall bowl appearance, finishing 9-4 overall and 5-3 in ACC play. Four Hurricanes earned first team All-ACC honors, and Miami was one of only nine teams to rank in the top 35 in both total offense and total defense. Miami knocked off three teams ranked in the Top 25 in its first four games, had nine players earn All-ACC postseason honors and saw its offense put up 5,199 yards, the most since 2002 when the team played for the national championship.

All of Shannon's Miami teams were able to uphold UM's academic success off the field. His UM football teams achieved NCAA Academic Progress Rates (APR) of 978, 977, 969 and 966, which all ranked in the top 10 nationally. The 978 APR in the 2010 APR report was tied for the sixth-highest rate in the country. The 977 APR in the 2009 report was the seventh-highest rate in the country out of 119 Bowl-Subdivision football programs. Those rates also were the second highest in the ACC and highest among all schools in Florida.

In his second season in 2008, he guided the Hurricanes to the program's 34th overall bowl appearance at the 2008 Emerald Bowl. Miami finished the season 7-6 and one game out of first place in the ACC Coastal Division. The squad had a five-game winning streak, which was the longest for the Hurricanes since 2005. Freshman linebacker Sean Spence was named the ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year, and kicker Matt Boshier was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award given to the nation's best kicker. Spence, defensive tackle Marcus Forston, defensive end Marcus Robinson and returner Travis Benjamin earned Freshman All-America honors. Miami also ranked No. 7 nationally in pass defense, 25th in tackles for loss and 28th overall in total defense yielding 317.56 yards per game. The 2008 Hurricanes also ranked in the top four in the ACC in punt returns, pass defense, scoring offense, net punting and tackles for loss.

Shannon coached Miami to a 31-3 win over Marshall in his head coaching debut on Sept. 1, 2007 as the Hurricanes went on to finish the season 5-7. Miami's 2008 signing class was ranked as the No. 1 class in the country by ESPN.com. The 2009 signing class ranked in the top 10 nationally as Miami signed six players ranked in the ESPN.com Top 150.

Prior to being named head coach at Miami, Shannon was the school's defensive coordinator for six seasons and coached top-10 defenses in five of those six seasons. In his first season back, 2001, the Hurricanes won their fifth national championship and he became the first UM coach to be named the winner of the Frank Broyles Award, presented annually to the nation's top assistant coach. The Hurricanes had 25 defensive players taken in the NFL Drafts from 2002-07, including 12 first-round picks.

Shannon produced defenses that rank among the best in the history of the program. The 2006 defense ranked seventh in the country in total defense, allowing just 255.5 yards per game, fourth in rushing defense with a school-record 67.9 yards allowed per game and 13th in scoring defense at 15.5 points allowed per game.

In 2005, Shannon was named defensive coordinator of the year by Rivals.com. His aggressive 4-3 scheme led the nation most of the season in nearly every category and finished No. 1 in pass defense with a mark of 152.17 yards per game allowed and pass efficiency defense at 89.48. The Hurricanes also ranked fourth in total defense at 270.08 yards per game allowed and scoring defense with a mark of 14.25 points per game allowed, and their average of 117.92 rushing yards per game allowed ranked 23rd in the nation.

In 2004, Shannon's defense ranked ninth in the country in pass defense despite having three new starters in the secondary. The UM defenses in 2002 and 2003 led the nation in fewest passing yards allowed, and the 2003 unit was fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense with a mark of 96.16 while finishing second in the nation in total defense at 257.5 yards per game allowed. The 2003 Hurricanes also ranked fourth in the country with an average of 15.1 points per game allowed.

His 2002 unit led the nation with 119.7 passing yards per game allowed and in pass efficiency defense with an 83.91 rating, while finishing seventh in the nation in total defense at 285.0 yards per game allowed. That year, Miami fielded an entirely new starting unit in the defensive secondary.

In 2001, Miami led the nation in turnover margin by forcing a school-record 27 interceptions and 45 total turnovers. Miami defenders allowed a national-best 9.4 points per game, led the nation in pass efficiency defense with a 75.60 rating, ranked second in pass defense with an average of 138.2 yards per game allowed through the air and ranked sixth in total defense with an average of 270.9 yards per game allowed. The 2001 Hurricanes gave up just 12 touchdowns while adding seven touchdowns of their own.

In his six seasons as defensive coordinator, the Hurricanes had seven All-America players, and he tutored eight other All-Americans as a position coach. As a head coach and defensive coordinator, he's coached 14 defensive players who were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

Shannon was a graduate assistant in 1991 when the Hurricanes won their fourth national championship and in 1992 became a full-time assistant coach working with the defensive line. From 1993-97 he coached linebackers, including Ray Lewis, a 13-time Pro Bowl selection, Super Bowl XXXV MVP and two-time NFL Defensive Player of the Year who was a first-round pick by the Baltimore Ravens in the 1996 NFL Draft. Shannon was a defensive assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 1998 and 1999 before assuming the role of linebackers coach in 2000.

As a player at Miami, Shannon was a four-year letterman at linebacker and a starter on the 1987 national championship team. He received the Christopher Plumer Award for most inspirational player as a senior in 1988. Shannon concluded his career in 1988 when he ranked fourth on the team in tackles, sacks and tackles for loss while leading the team in passes broken up and forced fumbles.

Shannon attended Miami's Norland High School and earned all-state and honorable mention All-America recognition from Street & Smith's as a senior linebacker. He also lettered in basketball, averaging 19 points per game, and competed in the triple jump on the track and field team.

An 11th-round draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys in 1989, he became the first rookie to start at outside linebacker for Dallas since 1963 and also was a standout on special teams. Shannon played for the Cowboys for two seasons before going into coaching.

MICHAEL SMITH

WIDE RECEIVERS

Michael Smith, a record-setting receiver at Kansas State who went on to earn a reputation as one of the best recruiters in college football, was named Arkansas' wide receivers coach on Jan. 17, 2013.

Smith, who was named one of the top 10 recruiters in the Big 12 Conference in 2012 by Rivals.com, spent the first 11 years of his coaching career at Kansas State and was the running backs coach at Rice in 2006 before moving to Arizona for the 2007 and 2008 seasons, coaching running backs his first season before moving to coach inside receivers. He returned to Kansas State in 2009 as the Wildcats' wide receivers coach.

Smith has directly coached eight players who were taken in the NFL Draft, including Darren Sproles. In the 2013 draft, wide receiver Chris Harper was selected in the fourth round by Seattle after three years under Smith's direction.

The 2012 season saw Kansas State capture its second Big 12 title and play in the Fiesta Bowl as the Wildcats posted an 11-2 record and finished the year ranked No. 12 in the AP poll. Harper led the Wildcats with 58 receptions for 857 yards and three touchdowns and earned second-team All-Big 12 honors. In 2011, true freshman Tyler Lockett earned All-America honors as a kick returner and made an immediate impact at the wide receiver position. He set the Big 12 and Kansas State single-season records for kickoff-return average at 35.2 yards per return.

In 2010, Smith tutored a wide receiver group that featured numerous players stepping up and contributing throughout a season that saw several injuries at the position. Aubrey Quarles provided the most consistency throughout 2010 en route to All-Big 12 honors, while newcomers Tramaine Thompson, Brodrick Smith and Harper all proved they had playmaking abilities.

In 2009, Kansas State was led by All-American Brandon Banks, who set school and Big 12 records in kickoff returns as well as leading the squad in receptions. Banks led the Big 12 and was eighth nationally with his average of 174.8 all-purpose yards per game and ranked third in school history with 3,828 career all-purpose yards. At wide receiver, Banks also led the team in receptions with 56 and receiving yards with 705 and also ranked seventh in Kansas State history with 123 career receptions and ninth in career receiving yards with 1,754.

Smith helped lead Arizona to a 2008 Las Vegas Bowl win over BYU while he tutored Mike Thomas, who became the Pac-10 career receptions record holder with 259 grabs. In 2007, Smith coached true freshman tailback Nic Grigsby to a 700-yard performance in seven starts, emerging from reserve to full-time duty.

At Rice, Smith helped the Owls to a 7-6 record in 2006, advancing to their first bowl game in 45 seasons. He coached senior Quinton Smith to 1,096 yards in 2006, making him only the sixth Owls' running back to eclipse the 1,000-yard mark.

The 1995 Kansas State graduate has coached the top three career rushing leaders in Kansas State history in Sproles, Eric Hickson and Mike Lawrence.

Smith also directed a running back to the single-season rushing record in three of the last five seasons of his first tenure at Kansas State, including Sproles, a first team All-American. Sproles surpassed the mark during the 2003 season with 1,986 yards, which ranked as the 10th-best rushing total in NCAA history. At the conclusion of the 2003 regular season, Sproles finished fifth in Heisman Trophy voting and was the runner-up for the Doak Walker Award.

A second-team All-Big 12 pick in 2002, Sproles rushed for 1,465 yards and 17 touchdowns. Sproles concluded his four-year career as the Big 12's leader in all-purpose yards with 6,812 and was the Wildcats' career rushing leader with 4,979 yards. In 2001, Josh Scobey set the single-season rushing record with 1,263 yards and also broke the school's career rushing touchdown record with 31.

After spending the 1992 season in the NFL with Kansas City, Smith returned to Kansas State as a student assistant. As a graduate assistant in 1995 and 1996, Smith assisted Greg Peterson with the receivers and helped tutor wideouts Kevin Lockett and Mitch Running, who became just the fifth receiving tandem in Big Eight history to snag at least 50 passes in the same season.

In nine seasons as running backs coach, Smith coached seven former backs in the NFL, including David Allen (Jacksonville and St. Louis), Rock Cartwright (Washington), Thomas Clayton (New England), Joe Hall (Kansas City), Frank Murphy (Chicago, Tampa Bay, Houston and Miami), Scobey (Arizona) and Sproles (San Diego and New Orleans).

During his playing career, Smith was one the Big Eight's all-time great receivers. He concluded his playing career as the Big Eight's second-leading receiver with 179 receptions, trailing only All-American Hart Lee Dykes. Smith's total of 179 catches ranked 40th in NCAA history at the time.

Smith was named a third-team All-American in 1991, honorable mention All-American in 1989 and a two-time All-Big Eight selection in 1989 and 1991.

His career total of 2,457 receiving yards was third-best in Big Eight history behind Dykes and 1972 Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Rodgers. The total was bolstered by nine 100-yard receiving games, which was a school record at the time. Smith also posted three of the top four games in Kansas State history with 179 yards vs. New Mexico (1990), 174 yards vs. Washington (1991) and 172 vs. Nebraska (1991). Smith also owned three of the top five reception games in school history. He led the Big Eight as a sophomore in 1989 and was seventh in the nation with 70 catches for 816 yards. In 1990, he had 46 receptions for 796 yards and tallied 55 for 768 in 1991.

Smith graduated from Kansas State with a bachelor's degree in social science. He is married to the former Karyn Ticken. Smith has four children: Kylie, Kenzie, Kason and Kamryn.

JOEL THOMAS

RUNNING BACKS

Joel Thomas, who has produced record-breaking players in the Big Ten and Pac-12, was named Arkansas' running backs coach on Dec. 24, 2012.

Thomas spent the last four seasons as running backs coach at Washington, coaching a 1,000-yard rusher in each, and added the title of associate head coach for offense prior to the 2012 season. Thomas also has experience as running backs coach at Purdue, Louisville and Idaho.

In 2012, Thomas tutored honorable mention All-Pac-12 running back Bishop Sankey, who ranked third in the Pac-12 and tied for 13th in the NCAA with 16 rushing touchdowns, the second-highest single-season total in school history. Sankey rushed for 1,439 yards, the third-highest single-season total in school history, and his average of 110.69 rushing yards per game was fifth in the conference.

In Thomas' final game at Washington, Sankey was named MVP of the MAACO Bowl Las Vegas after he compiled a career-high 205 rushing yards, breaking the UW bowl record, as part of his 279 all-purpose yards in the game. Sankey became the seventh running back named MVP in the 21-year history of the bowl, joining a list that includes current NFL running backs Steven Jackson and Marshawn Lynch.

The 2011 season was another highly successful campaign for Washington running backs as Chris Polk became just the second player in school history to rush for more than 1,000 yards in three straight seasons and one of only seven players in Pac-12 history to reach the 4,000-yard mark for a career.

Polk ran for 1,488 yards, the second-most in the long history of UW football, and his 4,049 career yards also ranked No. 2 on the school's all-time list. Polk also broke school records for career rushing attempts with 799, career yards per game average at 101.2, career 50-plus-yard carries with six and career 100-yard games with 21. He also became the first player in school history to compile 100 or more rushing and receiving yards in the same game, as he did against Arizona. Polk earned first-team All-Pac-12 and honorable mention All-America honors following the season and made the Philadelphia Eagles 53-man roster as an undrafted rookie free agent.

Ball security, one of Thomas' most prominent teaching points, paid off in 2011 and 2010 as Washington running backs lost just three fumbles combined over those two seasons.

The 2010 season was highlighted by the play of Polk, whose 1,415 yards were, at the time, second-most in Washington history and ranked No. 2 in the Pac-10

Conference. Polk posted the best game of his career in the Apple Cup win over Washington State, when he ran for 284 yards, just six shy of Hall of Famer Hugh McElhenny's 59-year old single-game record.

In his first season with the Washington running backs in 2009, Thomas coached Polk to the first 1,000-yard season by a freshman in Husky history. Polk's 1,113 yards ranked seventh on the school's single-season list at the time. As a team, Washington gained an average of nearly 40 more rushing yards per game than they did in 2008.

In 2007, Purdue led the Big Ten in total offense and scoring offense. In 2008, the Boilermakers set a school record for fewest fumbles in a season with 12. Also in 2008, running back Kory Sheets rushed for 1,131 yards to become Purdue's first 1,000 yard rusher in six seasons and post the fourth-highest single-season rushing total in school history. Sheets tied the school's single-season rushing touchdowns record with 16 in 2008 and broke the career record with 48. He also ended his career second on the school's career rushing list with 3,341 yards.

Thomas also was at Purdue in 2000 and 2001, working as a graduate assistant under offensive coordinator Jim Chaney. In 2000, quarterback Drew Brees led the NCAA in total offense, averaging 349.1 yards per game, and won the Maxwell Award. Tight end Tim Stratton won the inaugural John Mackey Award, given to the nation's best tight end, that year as the team won the Big Ten and advanced to the Rose Bowl for the first time in 33 years.

In between stays at Purdue, Thomas served as co-offensive coordinator at Idaho in 2004-05 and as running backs coach at Louisville in 2002-03. In 2003, Louisville averaged 228.2 rushing yards per game to rank 10th in the NCAA and broke the UL record with an average of 5.7 yards per carry. The Cardinals also gained a school-record 445 rushing yards as part of 779 yards of total offense, also a school record, against Houston. The 2004 Idaho squad set a school record for completion percentage, and the 2005 team ranked 28th in the country in passing yards per game.

Thomas gained NFL experience from two training camp internships, serving with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2008 and the New Orleans Saints in 2012. He also was a member of the NCAA Champion Forum in 2011.

Thomas played running back at Idaho from 1993-98 and still holds Vandals' career records with 3,929 rushing yards, 51 rushing touchdowns and 765 rush attempts. He was a two-time first-team All-Big West selection and rushed for 272 yards, the third-highest single-game total in school history, in a game against rival Boise State. As a senior, he was named the Big West Player of the Year and also earned the Humanitarian Award prior to the 1998 Humanitarian Bowl victory over Southern Miss. Following his senior season, he was invited to play in the Senior Bowl and the East-West Shrine Game.

Thomas was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008. He earned his bachelor's degree in public communications from Idaho in 1998. He is married to the former Ebbie Metzinger, who was a three-time Big Ten pole vault champion at Purdue. The couple has two sons, Teyo and Niko.

BEN HERBERT

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Ben Herbert was announced as Arkansas' head strength and conditioning coach on Dec. 18, 2012.

Herbert joined the Razorbacks after spending the previous 11 seasons working in strength and conditioning at Wisconsin, including the last four as head strength and conditioning coach. He started his career as an intern during the 2002 season following his playing days at Wisconsin and was promoted to assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2003. He was involved in all aspects of sports conditioning for the football team during his time with the Badgers.

In his 15 total seasons at Wisconsin, he was part of 14 bowl appearances and five Big Ten championships. The Badgers claimed three straight Big Ten titles and became the first Big Ten team to appear in three straight Rose Bowls since Michigan following the 1976-78 seasons by making the trip to Pasadena following the 2010, 2011 and 2012 seasons.

During his time with Wisconsin, Herbert helped develop 44 NFL draft picks, including seven first-round selections. In the last three years, defensive end J.J. Watt and offensive tackle Gabe Carimi were both taken in the first round of the 2011 draft, offensive guard Kevin Zeitler was picked 27th overall by the Cincinnati Bengals in 2012 and center Travis Frederick was taken 31st overall by the Dallas Cowboys in 2013.

The Badgers also produced five national individual award winners, including 2012 Doak Walker Award recipient and the NCAA record-holder for career touchdowns Montee Ball, 28 All-America honors and 48 first-team All-Big Ten selections in his 11 seasons on staff in Madison.

Wisconsin's work with Herbert was evident in the fourth quarters of games, when the Badgers outscored opponents 435-309 from 2009-12. The team's strength and conditioning work also was apparent late in the season, as Wisconsin was 15-5 in games played in the month of November or later during Herbert's four years as head strength and conditioning coach and outscored its opponents 856-442 in games played in November, December and January.

Herbert was a four-year letterman on the defensive line at Wisconsin, which won two Rose Bowls during his time as a student-athlete. He holds the Wisconsin bowl record for most tackle for loss and sacks yardage and is tied for the school's bowl record for sacks after collecting 2.0 sacks for 20 yards lost in the 2000 Rose Bowl victory over Stanford.

A native of Pittsburgh, Pa., Herbert earned his bachelor's degree from Wisconsin in 2002. He is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA) and the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA).

Herbert and his wife, Kelly, have two sons, Charlie and Thomas.

The Herbert family (l-r): Ben, Charlie and Kelly.

CHRIS HAUSER

Director of Recruiting

Chris Hauser is in his first season at Arkansas as director of recruiting.

As director of recruiting, Hauser organizes the recruiting process for the football team, including initial eligibility for each incoming student-athlete. He also plans and organizes all official and unofficial recruiting visits while assisting with the daily operations of the Razorback football program.

Hauser spent the 2012 season as the director of recruiting and player development at Wisconsin and was Toledo's director of recruiting and program enhancement in 2011. Prior to those roles, he collected 11 years of coaching experience.

Hauser served as defensive coordinator, recruiting coordinator and linebackers coach at Capital University in 2010. There, he coached two all-conference linebackers, including Sam Jacobs, who was named the Ohio Athletic Conference's Defensive Player of the Year.

Hauser spent four seasons at Ohio State helping produce one of the top defenses in the nation, first as a graduate assistant and then as defensive quality control coach. During his tenure with the Buckeyes, he worked directly with Vernon Gholston, who was selected sixth overall in the 2008 NFL Draft. Hauser also helped Ohio State to four Big Ten championships and appearances in four BCS bowls, including two BCS National Championship Games. He spent the 2005 season as wide receivers coach at Fort Hays State.

Hauser played at Akron for two seasons before suffering a career-ending injury. He stayed with the program as an undergraduate assistant coach and also was a graduate assistant for the Zips.

Hauser graduated from Akron in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in health education and earned his master's degree in sports science and coaching in 2004. He and his wife, Whitney, have one daughter.

MARK TAURISANI

Director of Football Operations

Mark Taurisani is in his first season as Arkansas' director of football operations.

As director of football operations, Taurisani is responsible for team logistics and day-to-day operations. His tasks include organizing fall camp, team game weekend arrangements at home and on the road, weekly team schedules, bowl game preparations and spring football schedule and logistics, in addition to assisting with high school camps.

Taurisani spent the previous seven seasons working in football operations at Wisconsin, including the last three as the Badgers' director of football operations. Prior to taking over the post in 2010, Taurisani was football operations coordinator for the Badgers.

Taurisani spent the summer of 2005 as a training camp assistant with the Seattle Seahawks. In that role, he helped with setup and operational duties, transportation and scheduling.

Taurisani is a native of Utica, N.Y., and graduated from SUNY Fredonia with a bachelor's degree in sociology/sports in 2003. At SUNY Fredonia, he was a captain on the baseball team and was a first-team all-conference performer. He earned a master's degree in sport administration from Louisville in December of 2005.

BOBBY ALLEN

Director of High School and NFL Relations

Bobby Allen is in his 16th year on the staff at Arkansas and first as director of high school and NFL relations.

Allen served two separate stints as defensive coordinator for the Razorbacks, serving in that role in 1998 and 2000. He also has coached defensive line, linebackers, cornerbacks and free safeties. In 1998, Allen helped direct a Razorback defensive unit that ranked sixth nationally in rushing defense, 10th in turnover margin and 13th in scoring defense. In 2000, Allen helped guide a Razorback defense that allowed just 292.1 yards per game to lead the SEC and rank 12th nationally in total defense.

During the 2011 season, he oversaw a defensive tackles group that contributed 132 tackles, led by Byran Jones' 47 that ranked eighth on the team. The position group also added 9.5 tackles for loss and 11 quarterback hurries. Jones was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team. The defense also ranked second in the SEC in sacks with an average of 2.85 per game that tied for eighth nationally.

Under Allen's guidance, the Razorback secondary ranked among the best units in the nation in defending the pass in 2007. Arkansas led the SEC and was second in the nation in pass efficiency defense with a rating of 97.8 and ranked second in the SEC with 20 interceptions, including 11 by Allen's cornerback unit. In addition Michael Grant and Jerell Norton ranked in the top four of the conference's passes defended category.

Allen began his coaching career at Colorado, where he served as a graduate assistant during the 1983 and 1984 seasons. After helping Minnesota to an Independence Bowl berth as a defensive secondary graduate assistant in 1985, Allen landed his first full-time position when he was named defensive coordinator at Drake where he served from 1986-88.

Allen was a standout prep quarterback at Seneca Valley High School in Gaithersburg, Md., where he was named the Washington, D.C., area player of the year as a senior and also excelled in baseball and basketball. He went on to earn three varsity letters while playing three positions, kicker, quarterback and outside linebacker at Virginia Tech, where he earned a bachelor's of science degree in marketing in 1983.

Allen is married to the former Marcela Garcia. The couple has one daughter, Daniela, and three sons, Christian, Brandon and Austin. Brandon is a sophomore quarterback for the Razorbacks, and Austin is a true freshman quarterback who was part of UA's 2013 signing class.

MATTHEW ENGELBERT

Director of Video

Matthew Engelbert, who has nearly 25 years of collegiate experience, is in his first season as Arkansas' director of video.

Engelbert oversees the video department responsible for ensuring the Razorback coaches and student-athletes are able to utilize video to study themselves and opponents. He also is responsible for making film of recruits available to the coaching staff.

Engelbert came to Arkansas after 24 years at Iowa, where he earned conference and national recognition for leading the Hawkeyes' video department to a premier level. He was named Big Ten Conference Video Coordinator of the Year three times, most recently in 2010-11, when he also was recognized as the National Video Coordinator of the Year.

Engelbert oversaw many technological upgrades during his time at Iowa. In 2011, he headed a Big Ten committee to develop an improved standard of acquiring game video. The Hawkeyes were one of the first college football programs in the country to shoot in high definition beginning with the 2011 season. He also had Iowa ahead of the curve in 1999 when it was the first program in the nation to use Beta SX and in 2004 when the Hawkeyes adopted Smart Acquisition Technology that allowed for shooting video directly to portable drives and eliminated most tapes. In addition, he also created the Iowa Football Fan Fest.

In his 24 seasons at Iowa, the Hawkeyes claimed three Big Ten championships, won 166 games and advanced to 16 bowl games, including two Orange Bowls and one Rose Bowl. During that time, Iowa also produced 36 All-Americans, nine consensus first-team All-Americans and 77 NFL draft picks.

Engelbert earned his bachelor's degree in sports management from Iowa in 1993. He and his wife Dana, who also graduated from Iowa, have two sons, Colin and Andrew.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTS

TERRANCE BUTLER

Graduate Assistant - Defense

Terrance Butler enters his second season as a graduate assistant on the Razorbacks' coaching staff, working with defense in 2013 after coaching with the offense in 2012. In 2010 and 2011, he worked on the Arkansas strength and conditioning staff.

Butler was a four-year letterman at Louisville, where he played linebacker and helped the Cardinals to the first BCS appearance in school history. He appeared in 46 games and collected 66 tackles, 50 solo, including 3.0 tackles for loss. In 2007, he played in 10 games and made 19 tackles, with 16 solo stops. His junior season, he played in all 13 games and made 17 tackles as the Cardinals finished the year 12-1, won the Big East championship, defeated No. 15 Wake Forest in the Orange Bowl and ended the season ranked No. 6 in the country. In his first two seasons at Louisville, Butler saw action in 23 games, including all 12 as a true freshman in 2004, and recorded 30 tackles.

Butler, a Green Cove Springs, Fla., native, was a three-year starter at linebacker and safety and two-time all-county and all-district performer at Clay High School. He earned second-team all-state accolades and was named to the Florida Times-Union Top 24 after recording 88 tackles, 9.0 for loss, and 10 pass breakups as a senior. He also was a discus thrower for the Clay track and field team and finished fourth in the event at the state championships with a throw of 176 feet, six inches.

Butler graduated from Louisville in 2008 with a bachelor's degree in business marketing. He has a daughter, Lauren.

NICK CALEY

Graduate Assistant - Defense

Nick Caley is in his first season at Arkansas as defensive graduate assistant and has eight years of experience on staffs at four different universities, including time in the SEC and Big 12.

Caley joined the Razorbacks following one season as secondary coach at Eastern Illinois University. In 2012, the Panthers won the Ohio Valley Conference title with a 6-1 conference record, advanced to the FCS playoffs and ranked 25th in the final FCS Coaches poll. Nick Beard was a first-team All-OVC selection after helping lead the defense that ranked second in the conference in pass efficiency defense.

Prior to his time at Eastern Illinois, Caley worked four seasons under Paul Rhoads, spending the 2008 season as a defensive administrative assistant at Auburn while Rhoads served as defensive coordinator and then joining Rhoads for the next three seasons at Iowa State. While he was at Iowa State, the Cyclones reached two bowl games, participating in the 2009 Insight Bowl and the 2011 Pinstripe Bowl. During the 2011 season, Iowa State beat No. 2-ranked and undefeated Oklahoma State 37-31 in Ames, the Cowboys' only loss in a 12-1 season that included the Big 12 title and a victory in the Fiesta Bowl.

Caley was at Akron from 2005-07, starting as a volunteer recruiting assistant for his first year. Akron pulled in the Mid-American Conference's top-ranked recruiting class in 2005 and 2006. The Zips' 2005 team made the school's first NCAA Division I bowl appearance with a berth in the Motor City Bowl. In 2007, Caley moved into a coaching role where he assisted with coaching defensive backs.

A native of Canton, Ohio, he attended Walsh University for his first two years and played football. He finished his degree at John Carroll University in 2006 and worked one season as a student assistant while finishing his degree. He also earned master's degrees from Akron in 2008 and Iowa State in 2011.

Caley is married to the former Grace Samolczyk.

TOMMY MANGINO

Graduate Assistant - Offense

Tommy Mangino is in his first season at Arkansas as offensive graduate assistant after serving on the coaching staffs at Kansas and Hutchinson Community College.

Mangino coached at Hutchinson from 2010-12, spending the last season as offensive coordinator after he was passing game coordinator in 2011 and coached quarterbacks and wide receivers in 2010. The Blue Dragons' offense broke or tied 15 Hutchinson game or season records in 2012, including season team pass completions and individual season passing yards, total offense, rushing yards and receptions. He also coached Cordarrelle Patterson, who transferred to Tennessee for the 2012 season and was a first-round pick by the Minnesota Vikings in the 2013 NFL Draft.

Mangino began his coaching career as an offensive graduate assistant at Kansas for the 2008 and 2009 seasons. In that time, the Jayhawks won 13 games, including a 2008 Insight Bowl victory over Minnesota, and averaged 31.4 points per game. Mangino worked with quarterback Todd Reesing, who broke nine career records and many other single-game and single-season records at Kansas, and wide receiver Dezmon

Briscoe, who broke the school's career records for receiving yards and receiving touchdowns in three seasons. Briscoe's 3,240 career receiving yards ranked fourth in Big 12 history.

Four Jayhawks were named All-Big 12 in 2009, including Briscoe, who was a first-team selection after catching 84 passes for 1,337 yards and nine touchdowns. Offensive tackle Tanner Hawkinson also was named to the FWAA Freshman All-American Team.

Mangino earned his bachelor's degree in sport management from Washburn University in 2008. He was a two-sport athlete at Washburn, playing baseball and football. He completed his master's degree in health, sport and exercise science at Kansas in 2010.

Mangino is married to the former Danielle Huff, and the couple has one son, Vinny.

ERIC MATEOS

Graduate Assistant - Offense

Eric Mateos is in his first season at Arkansas as offensive graduate assistant and comes to Fayetteville with collegiate playing and coaching experience.

Mateos' most recent position was offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Hutchinson Community College, a post he earned following the 2012 season. In 2012, he was the tight ends coach and assistant offensive line coach, tutoring Devonte Danzey, who was ranked as the No. 1 junior college offensive guard prospect in the country, and Solomon Normore, who signed with New Mexico. The Blue Dragons broke or tied 15 Hutchinson game or season records on offense that year, including season team pass completions and individual season passing yards, total offense, rushing yards and receptions.

Mateos began his coaching career at Southwest Baptist University as the assistant offensive line coach in 2011. That year, the Bearcats averaged 25.5 points and 376.7 yards of total offense per game while earning six victories. The offense featured a balanced attack that rushed for an average of 154.8 yards per game and averaged 221.9 yards per game passing.

Mateos transitioned into coaching after playing the 2009 and 2010 seasons at Southwest Baptist. He was the starting center and a team captain both seasons and helped lead the Bearcats to the best two-year stretch in school history. In 2010, the offense ranked third in the country with an average of 504.7 yards of total offense per game. In 2009, Southwest Baptist averaged 482.0 yards of total offense per game, totaling more than 200 yards per game rushing and passing, to rank fifth in the nation. He began his playing career with two years at Hutchinson, where the 2008 team advanced to the Region IV championship game.

Mateos earned his bachelor's degree in public relations from Southwest Baptist in 2011.

QUALITY CONTROL

PATRICK DOHERTY

Quality Control - Offense

Patrick Doherty is in his first season at Arkansas as the offense quality control coach and brings a wealth of coaching experience at all different levels.

Prior to joining the Razorbacks, he worked with the defensive line and tight ends during three seasons at Emporia State University. In 2012 he was the tight ends coach and developed first-team All-American Adam Schiltz as the Hornets won 10 games for the first time since 1989 and finished the 10-2 season with a victory in the Kanza Bowl. He served as a graduate assistant the two years prior, working with the tight ends in 2011 and the defensive line in 2010.

Doherty began his collegiate coaching career at St. John Fisher College as a defensive assistant in 2008 and 2009. In each of his two seasons, the Cardinals won the ECAC Bowl, completing a seven-win campaign both years. The 2009 team also finished as co-champions of the Empire 8 Conference.

Doherty's first coaching experience came at Eastridge High School, where he coached the freshman team for two seasons beginning in 2004 after graduating from Eastridge. He served as the varsity team's offensive coordinator in 2006 and 2007, with his second season resulting in the first undefeated regular season in school history and the first league championship in nearly 30 years.

Doherty graduated from St. John Fisher College with a bachelor's degree in American studies in 2010 and earned his master's degree in health, physical education and recreation in December 2012 from Emporia State.

BRIAN EARLY

Quality Control - Defense

Brian Early, who has coached or recruited eight All-Americans, two conference players of the year and three NFL Draft picks in his career, is in his first season at Arkansas as the defense quality control coach.

Early spent the previous four years as defensive coordinator at Fayetteville High School, where he helped the Bulldogs to three straight 7A state championship game appearances and back-to-back titles in 2011 and 2012. The 2011 and 2012 Fayetteville teams were ranked in the top 50 nationally by MaxPreps. His Fayetteville defense produced two Arkansas signees for the 2013 class in Brooks Ellis, a two-time Arkansas High School Defensive Player of the Year, and Alex Brignoni, whose 19 career interceptions ranked first in the state's largest classification.

Prior to his time at Fayetteville, Early coached defensive line for four years and linebackers for one year while also serving as special teams co-coordinator at the University of Central Arkansas. In his time with UCA, the Bears won two conference championships in two different classifications, taking the Division II Gulf South crown in 2005 and the FBS Southland Conference title in 2008. They twice led the conference in scoring defense, and Larry Hart was named the 2008 Southland Conference Defensive Player of the Year. UCA also led the nation in net punting in 2008, and in 2007 All-American Tristan Jackson led the country with an average of 23.6 yards per punt return. Early also coached the two highest-drafted players in UCA history as Hart was a fifth-round pick by Jacksonville in 2010 and Jacob Ford was a sixth-round selection by Tennessee in 2007.

During the 2002 and 2003 seasons, Early was the linebackers coach and co-special teams coordinator at Minnesota State-Mankato. He was the defensive coordinator and strength and conditioning coordinator at West Memphis High School in 2001. In 1999 and 2000, he was the linebackers coach and strength and conditioning coordinator at the University of Arkansas at Monticello. There, he coached Danielle Rollins, who led the nation in total tackles in 1999 and in tackles per game in 2000 and was named the Gulf South's Defensive Player of the Year in 2000. Early began his coaching career in 1994 as defensive coordinator and strength and conditioning coordinator at Greenland High School.

Early graduated from the University of Arkansas at Monticello with a bachelor's degree in physical education and health in 1994 and earned his master's degree in secondary education from UAM in 2000. He and his wife, Nanci, have three daughters, Sydney, Aivery and Camryn, and one son, Dre.

CHRIS HURD

Quality Control - Special Teams

Chris Hurd is in his first season at Arkansas as the special teams quality control coach and came to Fayetteville with eight years of collegiate coaching experience.

Most recently, Hurd worked in strength and conditioning at Tennessee for two seasons. He was an intern in 2011 and an assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2012. During his time at Tennessee, the Vols produced seven All-SEC selections and five NFL Draft picks, including 2013 first-round selection Cordarrelle Patterson. In 2012, Tennessee ranked in the top five in the SEC in 10 different categories, including leading the conference in sacks allowed and ranking in the top three in four other categories.

Prior to Tennessee, Hurd spent four seasons coaching at Cisco College in Cisco, Texas, where his positions included defensive coordinator for three seasons and special teams coordinator for two seasons. In 2007, his first season at Cisco, he coached defensive backs, a position he continued to coach throughout his time there, in addition to handling punt and kickoff units.

Hurd began coaching at North Texas as a strength and conditioning graduate assistant in 2004. He moved to the field in 2005 and 2006, to coaching tight ends his first season and defensive backs the next year. The 2004 squad stretched the program's bowl streak to four consecutive seasons with an appearance in the Wyndham New Orleans Bowl.

He also played for the Mean Green, lettering from 2000-03, helping them to 25 wins in those four seasons and bowl appearances in each of his last three seasons. He was the Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Year and a first-team All-Sun Belt selection at linebacker in 2003, recording 120 tackles, 7.0 for loss with 2.0 sacks, five forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries. The team's trip to the 2001 New Orleans Bowl was its first bowl game since 1959 and began a streak of four straight bowl appearances.

Hurd, a native of Killeen, Texas, graduated from North Texas in 2004 with a bachelor's degree in history.

CAREER SUMMARY: Bennett has appeared in 36 games with 21 starts and recorded 129 tackles, 4.5 for loss, seven pass breakups, three interceptions and one fumble recovery. His career interception and pass breakup totals are the most among current Razorbacks. He played his true freshman season at cornerback and was moved to safety in the spring of 2011.

2012: Bennett appeared in 11 games, missing only the contest at Texas A&M, with eight starts and recorded 40 tackles, 0.5 for loss, and three pass breakups. He opened the season with four tackles in the 49-24 win vs. Jacksonville State. He recorded a season-high six tackles and one pass breakup vs. ULM and matched his season-high tackles total the next week vs. No. 1 Alabama. He registered three tackles and one pass breakup vs. Rutgers. After missing the Texas A&M game, he returned to make two tackles in a 24-7 win at Auburn. He made one tackle in the 49-7 victory vs. Kentucky. He recorded five tackles and one pass breakup vs. Ole Miss. In the 19-15 win vs. Tulsa, he registered two tackles and matched that tackles total the next week at No. 12 South Carolina. He recorded five tackles, including 0.5 for loss, at Mississippi State and ended the season with a four-tackle performance vs. No. 8 LSU.

2011: Bennett started all 13 games at safety after moving from cornerback during spring practice and finished the season with 74 tackles, 3.0 for loss, three interceptions and three pass breakups. He ranked second on the team and tied for 12th in the SEC in interceptions, fourth on the team in tackles and tied for fourth among Razorbacks in pass breakups. His two interceptions on the road tied for fifth in the SEC. He put out a two-tackle performance in the first start of his career, a 51-7 season-opening win vs. Missouri State. He made five tackles, including 0.5 for loss, in the 52-3 win vs. New Mexico. The next week, he recorded a then-career-high eight tackles, 0.5 for loss, and one pass breakup in a 38-28 victory vs. Troy. At No. 3 Alabama, he made seven tackles. He made six tackles in the come-from-behind 42-38 win vs. No. 14 Texas A&M. He had a career-high nine tackles, 0.5 for loss, and made his first career interception in the 38-14 victory vs. No. 15 Auburn. He made five tackles and the game-clinching interception, which he grabbed with less than one minute to play in the 29-24 win at Ole Miss. He extended his interception streak to three straight games the next week as he made one interception and six tackles, including five solo, in a 31-28 victory at Vanderbilt. He recorded five tackles in the 44-28 win vs. No. 10 South Carolina. The next week he made three tackles, including 1.0 for loss, in a 49-7 win vs. Tennessee. He made four tackles, 0.5 for loss, and one pass breakup in the 44-17 victory vs. Mississippi State. At No. 1 LSU, he tied his career high with nine tackles and added one pass breakup. He made five tackles, four solo, as the Razorbacks ended the season with a 29-16 defeat of No. 11 Kansas State in the AT&T Cotton Bowl.

2010: He appeared in 12 games, missing only Arkansas' 38-24 win vs. Ole Miss, and made 15 tackles, 1.0 for loss, with one fumble recovery and one pass breakup. Bennett made his Razorback debut in his first game on campus and made three tackles in UA's 44-3 win vs. Tennessee Tech. He posted a season-high seven tackles with one fumble recovery and one pass breakup in the Razorbacks' 38-31 double-overtime victory at No. 22 Mississippi State. He made one tackle in UA's 31-24 win at Georgia. He made two tackles, 1.0 for loss, in Arkansas' 49-14 win vs. Vanderbilt and also recorded two tackles in a 58-21 victory vs. UTEP.

HIGH SCHOOL: Bennett was a versatile athlete who played quarterback, running back, wide receiver and cornerback at Booker T. Washington High School and was one of the top-rated players in the state of Oklahoma. 2012: Benton worked with the UA scout team while redshirting.

HIGH SCHOOL: Benton was a three-year contributor at Memphis University School and helped the Owls win the 2009 state title. His senior season, he helped his team reach the semifinal round of the Tennessee Division II - Class AA state playoffs before they fell to the eventual state champions and finished with an 8-4 overall record. During the year, Memphis University School averaged more than 27 points per game and scored 35 or more points six times. In his junior year, the Owls advanced to the quarterfinal round of the state playoffs and concluded the season with a 7-4 overall mark while averaging 30 points per game. As a sophomore, he was part of a state championship team that rolled through the season with a perfect 13-0 record and an average of more than 38 points per game. He elected to walk on at Arkansas despite scholarship offers from multiple schools, including Memphis. He was coached at Memphis University School by Bobby Alston.

PERSONAL: Born Jan. 10, 1994, he is the son of Bill and Laurie Benton. He is majoring in recreation and sport management.

2012: Boyd worked with the UA scout team while redshirting.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was the leader of the offensive line at Ridgeway as a three-year starter. He was regarded as the No. 35 offensive guard in the nation by Rivals.com and as the 40th-best offensive guard in the country by 247Sports.com. In 2011, Ridgeway advanced to the third round of the playoffs and Boyd was an all-state honoree. As a junior, he helped the Roadrunners to a 13-1 record with an appearance in the Class 5A semifinals and was named first-team All-District 15AAA for his efforts. Boyd earned the starting left tackle spot as a sophomore and was one of the main reasons Ridgeway rushed for more than 3,500 yards in 2009. He was coached at Ridgeway, where he was teammates with Brandon Lewis, by Duron Sutton. Boyd selected Arkansas over Vanderbilt, Auburn, Stanford, Duke and Miami.

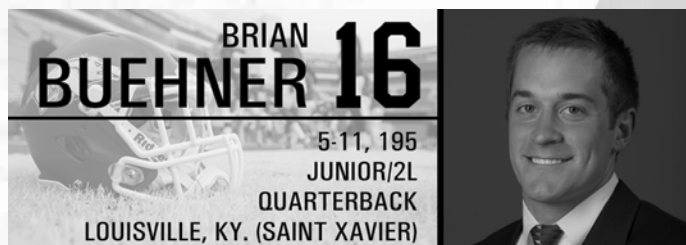

PERSONAL: Born July 18, 1994, he is the son of Robert and Levon Boyd. He is majoring in management and was named to the Razorback Honor Roll for his work in the classroom in the fall of 2012.

2012: Buchanan worked with the UA scout team while redshirting.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was ranked as the 59th-best cornerback in the nation by Rivals.com. In his senior season, he made 39 tackles, two interceptions, 11 pass breakups, one safety and one forced fumble and was selected to play in the Offense-Defense All-American Bowl held at Cowboys Stadium. Peachtree Ridge put together an 8-3 record in 2011 and advanced to the 5A state playoffs. He recorded 30 tackles in five games as a junior before suffering an injury. He was coached at Peachtree Ridge by Bill Ballard and Mark Fleetwood. Buchanan selected Arkansas after receiving interest from multiple schools, including Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Louisville and Illinois.

PERSONAL: Born Dec. 8, 1993, he is the son of Ray and Sheree Buchanan. His father was drafted in the third round of the 1993 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts and spent 12 seasons in the NFL playing for the Colts, Atlanta Falcons and Oakland Raiders. Buchanan is majoring in recreation and sport management.

2012: Buehner appeared in all 12 games as UA's holder for extra point and field goal attempts. With Buehner as holder, Zach Hocker was 32-of-32 on PATs and 11-of-18 on field goal attempts to score 65 points. Hocker's average of 0.92 made field goals per game tied for eighth in the SEC. During the season, Hocker broke UA career records for scoring by a kicker, made PATs and PAT attempts.

2011: He played in all 13 games as UA's holder for extra point and field goal attempts. With Buehner as holder, Zach Hocker was 55-of-57 on PATs and 21-of-27 on field goal attempts to score 118 points. Hocker broke the Arkansas single-season record for points scored by a kicker, and his total ranked as the second-highest single-season point total by any player in UA history. He ranked second in the SEC, first among kickers, and 17th in the NCAA with an average of 9.1 points per game and was tied for second in the conference and for 11th in the nation with an average of 1.6 field goals made per game. Hocker's 21 made field goals were the second-most in a season in school history and his 55 made PATs ranked fourth on UA's all-time single-season list.

2010: He worked with the Arkansas scout team while redshirting.

HIGH SCHOOL: Buehner quarterbacked Saint Xavier High School to the 2009 Kentucky Class 6A state championship, outpacing Trinity High School 34-10 in the title game. That season, he passed for more than 1,000 yards with nine touchdowns while directing the Tigers to a 14-1 record. Saint Xavier, coached by Mike Glaser, made the state semifinals in 2008 and earned a state runner-up finish in 2007. Buehner also played tennis for the Tigers.

PERSONAL: Born Aug. 27, 1991, he is the son of Rick and Vicki Buehner. His father played football for Notre Dame (1977-78) and Kentucky (1979-81). Brian is majoring in finance. He was named to the Athletic Director's List for his work in the classroom in the fall of 2010 and 2012, the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll in 2011 and 2012 and the Razorback Honor Roll in the fall of 2011.

2012: Cacciarelli worked with the UA scout team and did not appear in any games.

2011: He worked with the UA scout team but did not see any game action.

2010: He worked with the Arkansas scout team while redshirting.

HIGH SCHOOL: Cacciarelli was a three-time all-conference performer on the football field for Westminster Christian Academy and head coach Cory Snyder, helping the Wildcats to a Class 4 State Tournament appearance as a senior. Also in his final season at Westminster, Cacciarelli qualified for the state wrestling tournament.

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 29, 1991, he is the son of Marc and Nancy Cacciarelli. His father was a wrestler at Missouri and his mother was a swimmer for the Tigers. Cacciarelli is enrolled in the Walton College of Business and majoring in marketing. He was named to the Razorback Honor Roll for his work in the classroom in the fall of 2010, 2011 and 2012 and to the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll in 2011 and 2012.

2012: Carr saw action in the Razorbacks' 49-7 win vs. Kentucky.

2011: He appeared in three games and made one tackle, which he recorded in the 44-17 win vs. Mississippi State. He also saw playing time in the 49-7 victory vs. Tennessee and the 29-16 defeat of No. 11 Kansas State in the AT&T Cotton Bowl.

2010: He worked with the Arkansas scout team while redshirting.

HIGH SCHOOL: Carr's high school teams combined to go 56-2 in his career, and he was a member of two state championship teams and two runner-up squads. After playing at Buford High School for three years, he transferred to Gainesville High School for his senior season where he played for coach Bruce Miller. During his senior campaign, the Red Elephants went 13-1 and played for the state championship. As a senior, he had 104 tackles, three interceptions and two forced fumbles. He had a season-high 13 tackles against North Hall. He was selected to play in the Max Emfinger All-Star game in Dallas and GACA's North-South All-Star Game. As a junior, he had 73 tackles, 12 tackles for loss, four fumble recoveries and three interceptions. He chose Arkansas over Stanford, UCLA, Ole Miss, Duke, South Carolina, Wake Forest and West Virginia.

PERSONAL: Born Sept. 11, 1991, he is the son of Dwight and Vanessa Carr. He is majoring in kinesiology and exercise science. He was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in the fall of 2011.

2012: Charpentier appeared in eight games and started vs. Rutgers. The Arkansas offensive line paved the way as 24 UA or SEC records were broken and Arkansas produced a 1,000-yard receiver in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history and a 3,000-yard passer for the fourth straight year. Quarterback Tyler Wilson led the SEC in passing, while Cobi Hamilton topped the conference in receptions per game and receiving yards per game. Hamilton's season totals of 90 catches and 1,335 receiving yards broke school records and allowed him to break the UA record for career receptions with 175. In addition, the offensive line allowed 1.0 or fewer sacks in eight games in 2012 and ranked third in the SEC with an average of just 1.58 sacks allowed per game.

2011: He saw action in seven games, mostly on special teams, and made one tackle. He recorded his tackle in the 31-28 win at Vanderbilt. He also played vs. Missouri State, vs. New Mexico, at No. 3 Alabama, vs. No. 14 Texas A&M, vs. No. 15 Auburn and vs. Mississippi State.

2010: He worked with the Arkansas scout team while redshirting.

HIGH SCHOOL: Charpentier was a two-year starter at John Curtis Christian, a team that won the Louisiana Class 2A state championship in 2008 and finished as the runner-up in 2009. He was rated No. 50 nationally as an offensive tackle and No. 12 among Louisiana seniors by Rivals.com. He was a member of The Times Picayune Preseason Top 20 Blue Chip List, was a two-time all-district honoree, earned all-metro honors from The Times Picayune as a junior in his first full season as a starter and then added all-state laurels from the Louisiana Football Coaches Association as a senior. Charpentier did not play as a sophomore while he gained athletic eligibility at John Curtis Christian following a transfer from South Lafourche midway through his freshman year. He was coached at John Curtis Christian by J.T. Curtis. He was successful in the classroom in Curtis' honors curriculum. Charpentier also participated in track and field, where he recorded a mark of 50 feet in the shot put. He was also recruited by Kentucky, Louisiana Tech, Northern Illinois, Northwestern, Southern Miss, SMU and Tulane.

PERSONAL: Born Feb. 20, 1992, he is the son of Robert and Melanie Charpentier. He is enrolled in the Walton College of Business and majoring in food, human nutrition and hospitality. He was named to the Razorback Honor Roll for his work in the classroom in the fall of 2012.

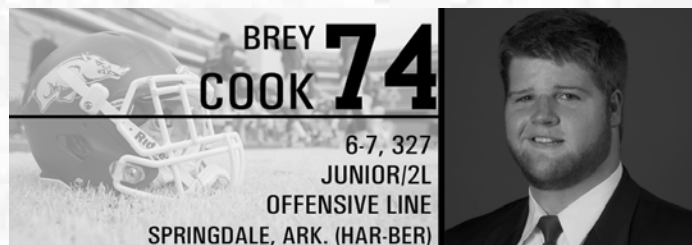

2012: Collins worked with the UA scout team while redshirting.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made an impact in all three phases at Booker T. Washington and was ranked as the 63rd-best cornerback prospect in the nation by 247Sports.com. During his senior season, he made 79 tackles while catching 11 passes for 227 yards and two touchdowns, rushing 17 times for 203 yards and two touchdowns and returning five punts for 92 yards. In 2010, Collins made 21 tackles and intercepted three passes while helping Booker T. Washington to the 5A state championship. The defense did not allow its opponent to score in seven of the 14 games and allowed just 114 total points during the 13-1 season. He was coached at Booker T. Washington by Darrell Hall. Collins chose the Razorbacks after also receiving interest from Kansas, Oklahoma and Oklahoma State.

CAREER SUMMARY: Cook has appeared in 23 games and made six starts.

2012: Cook appeared in all 12 games and made six starts, including each of the first four games of the season. The Arkansas offensive line paved the way as 24 UA or SEC records were broken and Arkansas produced a 1,000-yard receiver in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history and a 3,000-yard passer for the fourth straight year. Quarterback Tyler Wilson led the SEC in passing, while Cobi Hamilton topped the conference in receptions per game and receiving yards per game. Hamilton's season totals of 90 catches and 1,335 receiving yards broke school records and allowed him to break the UA record for career receptions with 175. In addition, the offensive line allowed 1.0 or fewer sacks in eight games in 2012 and ranked third in the SEC with an average of just 1.58 sacks allowed per game.

2011: He played in 11 games during his true freshman season, missing the game at No. 3 Alabama and the AT&T Cotton Bowl vs. No. 11 Kansas State. As part of the field goal unit, he blocked as Zach Hocker broke the Arkansas single-season record for points scored by a kicker, and his total ranked as the second-highest single-season point total by any player in UA history. Hocker ranked second in the SEC, first among kickers, and 17th in the NCAA with an average of 9.1 points per game and was tied for second in the conference and for 11th in the nation with an average of 1.6 field goals made per game. Hocker's 21 made field goals were the second-most in a season in school history and his 55 made PATs ranked fourth on UA's all-time single-season list.

HIGH SCHOOL: The Springdale, Ark., native was ranked as the No. 1 prospect in the state of Arkansas, the 12th-best offensive tackle in the nation and 124th overall recruit, according to Rivals.com. Cook also was named the No. 6 offensive tackle in the country by Scout.com. His Har-Ber squad won the 2009 Class 7A Arkansas state championship in his junior season. Har-Ber High School advanced to the state semifinals in 2008 and 2010. Cook was honored as an Under Armour All-American, playing in the Under Armour All-American Game in Tampa, Fla., in January, and was named to MaxPreps.com's 2010 U.S. Air Force All-America team. Cook was also named to the ESPN Top 150 class of 2011 list. He was recognized on the AHSAA's Class 7A West All-State team as a senior. Cook was selected to ArkansasVarsity.com's All-State team, receiving first-team accolades. He was named to the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette's All-Arkansas team. He was coached by Chris Wood. Cook had numerous offers from around the nation and selected the Razorbacks over Oklahoma, Auburn, Alabama and USC. Cook enrolled at Arkansas in the spring of 2011.

PERSONAL: Born April 13, 1993, he is the son of Melissa Cook. He is majoring in communication. He was named to the Razorback Honor Roll for his work in the classroom in the fall of 2011.

CAREER SUMMARY: Hocker has appeared in all 38 games as a Razorback. He is 143-of-145 on PATs and 48-of-64 on field goals for a total of 287 points scored and has kicked off 151 times for an average of 66.6 yards per kick and 79 touchbacks. Entering the 2013 season, he holds the Arkansas record for career points by a kicker with 287, career made PATs with 143 and career PAT attempts with 145. He ranks second in career field goal percentage (min. 20 made) at 75.0, his points total ranks second overall in UA history, his made field goals total ranks fourth in school history and his field goal attempts rank fifth on the school's all-time list. He enters the 2013 season as the SEC's active career leader in PATs made, total points and points per game.

2012: During the 2012 season, Hocker broke Arkansas career records for points scored, PATs made and PAT attempts. He scored 65 points, courtesy of a 32-of-32 mark on PATs and making 11-of-18 field goal attempts, in addition to kicking off 58 times for an average of 64.7 yards and 39 touchbacks. He averaged at least 64 yards per kickoff in 10 of 12 games. His kickoff average led the NCAA, and his touchback percentage of 67.27 ranked second in the SEC and sixth in the NCAA while his 39 total touchbacks were third in the conference and tied for 11th in the nation. He was recognized as an SEC Special Teams Player of the Week following the 49-7 win vs. Kentucky when he tied his career highs with seven made PATs and six touchbacks. He also recorded seven made PATs and six touchbacks in the season-opening 49-24 victory vs. Jacksonville State. He averaged 70.8 yards on five kickoffs with four touchbacks while adding one 37-yard field goal and 4-of-4 on PAT attempts vs. ULM. He recorded a touchback in his lone kickoff vs. No. 1 Alabama. He was 2-of-2 on field goals and 2-of-2 on PAT attempts in addition to registering five touchbacks on six kickoffs vs. Rutgers. He was 1-of-1 on PATs and 1-of-2 on field goals while adding two touchbacks on three kickoffs at Texas A&M. He was 3-of-3 on PATs and made one 27-yard field goal in addition to two touchbacks on five kickoffs in a 24-7 win at Auburn. He broke the UA record for career PATs made vs. Ole Miss, as part of a 3-of-3 game. He also was 2-of-2 on field goals with four touchbacks on six kickoffs. He was 2-of-3 on field goals, including a season-long 46 yarder, 1-of-1 on PATs and registered four touchbacks on five kickoffs in the 19-15 victory vs. Tulsa. At No. 12 South Carolina, he broke the UA kick scoring record with eight points as he was 2-of-2 on field goals and 2-of-2 on PATs and added three touchbacks on four kickoffs. He was 2-of-2 on PATs and kicked off three times with one touchback at Mississippi State and added one touchback in the season finale vs. No. 8 LSU.

2011: He broke the Arkansas single-season record for points by a kicker with 118 as he made 21-of-27 field goal attempts and 55-of-57 PATs. He also kicked off 93 times for an average of 67.8 yards per kick with 40 touchbacks in his first season as a collegian handling kickoff duties in addition to placekicking. He led all SEC kickers and was second overall in the conference and 17th in the NCAA with his average of 9.1 points per game. He also tied for second in the SEC and for 11th in the NCAA with 1.6 made field goals per game. His 40 touchbacks were the most in the SEC and ranked second in the NCAA, and his touchback percentage of 43.01 was second in the conference and third in the country. His average kickoff distance of 67.8 yards also was second in the SEC and ranked fourth in the nation. His 21 made field goals and 27 field goal attempts both ranked second on the respective single-season lists at UA, while his 57 PAT kick attempts stood as the third-highest single-season total in school history and his 55 PAT makes ranked fourth on the single-season list. His 77.8 field goal percentage was the seventh-best single-season percentage in school history among kickers with at least 10 makes in a season. He scored a career-high 14 points, which tied for sixth on Arkansas' single-game kick scoring list, vs. No. 10 South Carolina and vs. Mississippi State. Against the Gamecocks, he was 3-of-5 on field goal attempts and 5-of-5 on PATs while tying his career high with nine kickoffs that resulted in three touchbacks as UA won 44-28. He was 3-of-4 on field goals and 5-of-5 on PATs with nine kickoffs for a then-career-high-tying five touchbacks in the 44-17 victory vs. the Bulldogs. He opened the season with nine points on 6-of-7 PATs and 1-of-1 field goals with a career-high nine kickoffs and a career-high five touchbacks in a 51-7 win vs. Missouri State. He was 5-of-5 on PAT attempts and 1-of-1 on field goals with two touchbacks on seven kickoffs in the 38-28 victory vs. Troy. At No. 3 Alabama, he was 2-of-2 on PATs and kicked off three times for an average of 70.0 yards per kick and two touchbacks. He was 4-of-4 on PATs and 2-of-2 on field goals with eight kickoffs resulting in two touchbacks in the 42-38 win vs. No. 14 Texas A&M. The next week, he was 5-of-5 on PATs and 1-of-2 on field goals with a then-career-high-tying five touchbacks on seven kickoffs in the 38-14 victory vs. No. 15 Auburn. He was 3-of-3 on PATs and 2-of-2 on field goals while kicking off six times with two touchbacks in a 29-24 win at Ole Miss. He was named SEC Special Teams Player of the Week after he was 2-of-2 on PATs and 3-of-3 on field goals, including a season-long 50 yarder, and recorded two touchbacks on seven kickoffs in the 31-28 victory at Vanderbilt. He tied his career high with seven made PATs and added four touchbacks on eight kickoffs in a 49-7 win vs. Tennessee. At No. 1 LSU, he was 2-of-2 on PATs and 1-of-1 on field goals with two touchbacks on four kickoffs. He wrapped up the season by tying his career high for field goals with a 3-of-3 performance, tying the bowl record for made field goals, and adding two PATs and four touchbacks on seven kickoffs while helping Arkansas defeat No. 11 Kansas State 29-16 in the AT&T Cotton Bowl. He also made three tackles, one each vs. New Mexico, vs. South Carolina and at LSU, and recovered one fumble vs. South Carolina.

2010: He appeared in all 13 games for the Razorbacks and was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team after scoring 104 points, 56-of-56 on PATs and 16-of-19 on field goals. Hocker's 104 points scored were seventh in the SEC in 2010 and ranked as the fourth-highest single-season total in school history and the third most by a kicker. He was one of just two kickers in the SEC to be perfect on PAT kicks, and his 56 made PATs ranked second in the conference and tied for 12th in the NCAA and as the third-most in a season by a Razorback kicker. His .842 field goal percentage ranked third in the SEC and tied for 21st in the NCAA and was the third-best single-season percentage (min. 10 attempts) in school history. His long of 51 yards was an Arkansas freshman record and the longest by any UA kicker since 1988. It came as part of a 2-of-2 field goal performance with five PATs in the Razorbacks' 41-20 win at No. 18 South Carolina. The Gamecock contest was in a run of seven consecutive games in which he made at least four PAT kicks, a streak that began at No. 7 Auburn and stretched through Arkansas' 31-23 win vs. No. 6 LSU. He also started the season with three straight games of at least four PATs, making six in the season opener vs. Tennessee Tech and four each vs. ULM and at Georgia. He made a career-high three field goals on three attempts, with a long of 47, to go with one PAT made in the Allstate Sugar Bowl vs. No. 6 Ohio State. He was 2-of-2 on field goals vs. No. 1 Alabama and vs. Vanderbilt and connected on one field goal vs. ULM, at Georgia, vs. Texas A&M, vs. Ole Miss, vs. UTEP, at No. 22 Mississippi State and vs. No. 6 LSU.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hocker earned all-state honors in 2009 at Russellville High School under head coach Jeff Holt. As a senior, he was also named the Defensive Player of the Year by the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette. He was ranked as the best kicker in the state of Arkansas by Scout.com. Hocker was selected to play in the Arkansas High School Coaches Association East-West Shrine game. As a senior, he helped Russellville to an 8-3-1 record and kicked a school-record 15 field goals. All but three of his 61 kickoffs reached the end zone for a touchback, resulting in opponents starting from their 20-yard line more than 95 percent of the time. He finished the season with a 45-yard average on 35 punt attempts. He averaged more than 45 yards in seven games and 14 of his punts were downed inside the 20. He kicked four field goals in a 26-26 tie at Fayetteville, including a school-record 52 yarder. As a junior, he averaged 38 yards per punt. He selected Arkansas over Hawaii, Arkansas State, Memphis and North Carolina.

PERSONAL: Born Aug. 23, 1991, he is the son of Roy and Sandy Hocker. He is majoring in communication.

2012: Hurd started all 11 games in which he appeared, missing only the season finale vs. No. 8 LSU. The Arkansas offensive line paved the way as 24 UA or SEC records were broken and Arkansas produced a 1,000-yard receiver in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history and a 3,000-yard passer for the fourth straight year. Quarterback Tyler Wilson led the SEC in passing, while Cobi Hamilton topped the conference in receptions per game and receiving yards per game. Hamilton's season totals of 90 catches and 1,335 receiving yards broke school records and allowed him to break the UA record for career receptions with 175. In addition, the offensive line allowed 1.0 or fewer sacks in eight games in 2012 and ranked third in the SEC with an average of just 1.58 sacks allowed per game.

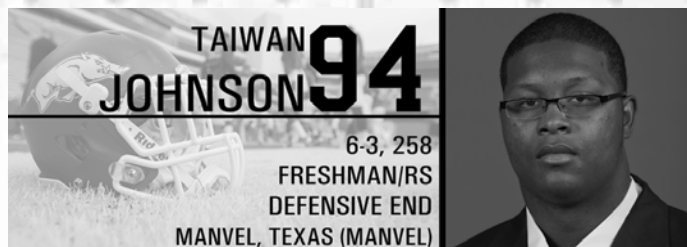

2011: He appeared in the 49-7 win vs. Tennessee and the 44-17 victory vs. Mississippi State.

2010: He did not see any game action while working with the Arkansas scout team.

2009: He worked with the UA scout team while redshirting.

HIGH SCHOOL: Hurd decided to walk on at Arkansas rather than take a scholarship offer at other schools. He also received interest from SMU. He was a second-team Class 5A District 1 selection as a senior.

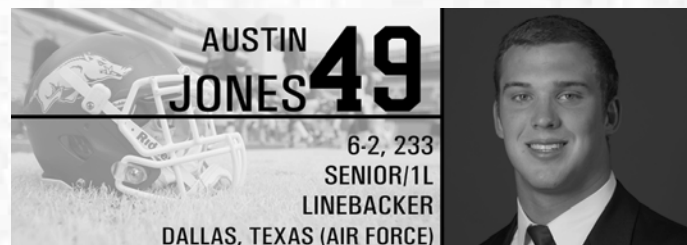

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 20, 1990, he is the son of Paul and Cathy Hurd. He is majoring in biology and was named an Academic Champion for maintaining a 4.0 GPA in the fall of 2009. He was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll and the Razorback Honor Roll in the fall of 2010.

2012: Johnson worked with the UA scout team while redshirting.

HIGH SCHOOL: Johnson was rated as Scout.com's 34th-best defensive end in the country and Rivals.com ranked him as the 37th-best defensive end in the nation and the 59th overall prospect in Texas, while 247Sports.com tabbed him as the No. 55 prospect in the state. As a senior, he totaled 86 tackles with 11.0 sacks and one forced fumble while helping lead the Mavericks to the Texas 4A Division 2 state championship game. His junior season, Johnson recorded 61 tackles with 7.0 sacks and one forced fumble and Malvern advanced to the quarterfinals of the state playoffs bracket. He was coached at Manvel by Kirk Martin. Johnson chose the Razorbacks over Michigan State, Nebraska and Texas A&M.

PERSONAL: Born April 6, 1994, he is the son of Taiwan and Dimitria Johnson. He is majoring in psychology.

2012: Jones saw action in two games and made one tackle. He recorded one tackle vs. ULM and also appeared vs. No. 1 Alabama.

2011: He worked with the UA scout team and did not appear in any games.

2010: He worked with the UA scout team after transferring from Air Force.

BEFORE ARKANSAS: Jones attended the Air Force Academy in 2009. In 2008, he helped Lake Highlands to district, area and regional championships. He was voted first-team all-district for his senior season performance, which included 160 tackles. As a junior, he recorded 100 tackles and one interception. He also earned academic all-state honors.

PERSONAL: Born May 16, 1991, he is the son of Brian and Lauren Jones. He is majoring in journalism and was named to the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll and the Razorback Honor Roll in the fall of 2012.

2012: He played in the season-opening 49-24 win vs. Jacksonville State, helping pave the way for Arkansas to rush for 164 yards and gain 564 yards of total offense. He suffered a season-ending injury in practice the next week and was granted a medical redshirt.

2011: Small saw action in all 13 games and started in the 38-14 win vs. No. 15 Auburn and the 31-28 victory at Vanderbilt. He rushed one time for a one-yard touchdown, caught one seven-yard pass and totaled 17 yards on two kickoff returns. Small also served as the lead blocker for UA's rushing attack, which ranked third in the SEC by averaging 4.53 yards per carry in conference games and tied for third with a total of 14 rushing touchdowns in SEC play. Running back Dennis Johnson was fourth in the SEC in yards-per-carry average and ranked seventh in the conference in average rushing yards per game. Small caught one pass for seven yards in the season-opening 51-7 win vs. Missouri State. He scored a one-yard rushing touchdown and returned two kickoffs for a total of 17 yards in the 44-17 victory vs. Mississippi State.

BEFORE ARKANSAS: A junior college All-American in 2010, Small played both fullback and linebacker for his Hartnell Community College football team. As a freshman in 2009, Small scored five rushing touchdowns and led the team in tackles with 109 stops en route to Hartnell claiming Coast Conference co-championship honors. In 2010, Small scored one rushing and one receiving touchdown and led the squad in tackles for the second straight season with 120 tackles, including 21 for loss. Small received All-America accolades from the California Community College Football Coaches Association in 2010 and All-California honors in 2009. He was named an All-Coast Conference performer at linebacker in both his seasons at Hartnell. Small's junior college head coach was Matt Collins, and his high school head coach was Donald Davis.

As a high school senior at Cardinal Gibbons in 2006, Small earned second-team all-state accolades from the Maryland Football Coaches Association. Small was also recruited by Cal and Oregon State.

PERSONAL: Born May 1, 1989, he is the son of Johnny Stith and Leslie Mackall. He is majoring in sociology.

SOPHOMORE/1L

OFFENSIVE GUARD

SPRINGDALE, ARK. (SPRINGDALE)

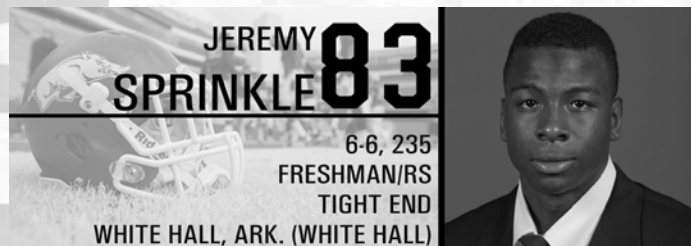

CAREER SUMMARY: Smothers has played in seven games with four starts. He became the first true freshman in school history to start a season opener on the offensive line when he opened the 2011 season at tackle vs. Missouri State.

2012: He worked with the UA scout team while redshirting.

2011: He saw action in seven games and started the first four games of the season. With his start in the season-opening 51-7 win vs. Missouri State, he became the first true freshman in school history to start a season opener on the offensive line and was one of just four true freshman offensive line starters on a BCS automatic-qualifying team in the season's first week. He was part of an offensive line that allowed the offense to break 16 game or season school records and produce a 3,000-yard passer for the third straight season. Arkansas led the SEC in total offense, passing offense and scoring offense to become just the fifth different school, and first since 2001, to lead the conference in all three categories in a single season and became the sixth team in conference history, and second since 1992, to lead the SEC in passing offense for three straight seasons. The Razorbacks ranked 13th in the country with their average of 300.7 passing yards per game, 15th in the nation with an average of 36.8 points per game and 29th in the NCAA with an average of 438.1 yards of total offense per game. Quarterback Tyler Wilson broke nine UA records and led the SEC in passing and total offense while becoming the first Razorback to be a first-team All-SEC selection at quarterback. Wide receiver Jarius Wright also earned first-team All-SEC honors after he broke seven school records and led the conference in receiving yards per game with an average of 93.1 to rank 18th in the country and in receiving touchdowns with 12, a total that tied for seventh in the NCAA. The Razorback offense posted the second-best single-season total in school history for completions (299), passing yards (3,909), passing yards per game (300.7), first downs (279) and passing first downs (166) while totaling the third-highest total offense yardage total (5,695) and third-best total offense per play average (6.45).

HIGH SCHOOL: Smothers was recognized on ESPN's Top 150 class of 2011 list and was part of three Arkansas Class 7A playoff teams at Springdale High School. He was rated as the fourth-best prospect in the state of Arkansas and as the No. 17 offensive guard in the country by Rivals.com. He was ranked No. 29 in the 2011 class of offensive tackles by Scout.com. After his senior season under head coach Shane Patrick, Smothers was selected to Under Armour's All-America team and appeared in the Under Armour All-American Game held in Tampa, Fla. Smothers was a first-team Class 7A West All-State pick by the AHSAA and a first-team all-state selection by ArkansasVarsity.com. He was also recruited by Auburn, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Missouri, Oklahoma State, South Carolina and UCLA.

PERSONAL: Born Oct. 20, 1992, he is the son of Kirk Smothers and Lori Cornella. He is majoring in food, human nutrition and hospitality.

2012: Sprinkle worked with the UA scout team while redshirting.

HIGH SCHOOL: He was a versatile two-way standout for White Hall, playing tight end and defensive end. He was ranked as the No. 5 overall prospect in Arkansas and the 15th-best tight end in the country by 247Sports.com and as the No. 7 overall prospect in the state by Rivals.com. In 2011, he caught 45 passes for 841 yards and six touchdowns and made 92 tackles, including 14 sacks, in helping the Bulldogs win the 5A Southeast Conference championship and reach their first state semifinal in 20 years. He was named to the 2011 Arkansas Super Team by the Associated Press and was a three-sport All-Southeast Arkansas selection by The Commercial, being honored in football, basketball and baseball. He was selected to play in the 2012 Arkansas High School Association All-Star Game. He had 73 tackles, 25 for loss with 15 sacks, as a junior and also made 10 catches for 227 yards and three touchdowns. He was coached at White Hall by Mike Vaughn. Sprinkle chose Arkansas over Mississippi State, Purdue, Kansas and Louisville.

PERSONAL: Born Aug. 10, 1994, he is the son of Billy and Shelia Sprinkle. His brother Aaron is an offensive lineman at Ouachita Baptist. Jeremy is majoring in criminal justice.

CAREER SUMMARY: Stringer has appeared in 14 games as a Razorback.

2012: Stringer saw action in 11 games, with the only exception being vs. No. 1 Alabama. He appeared mainly on special teams, blocking for a field goal unit that allowed Arkansas to make all 33 PAT attempts as a team and finish the year 13-of-20 on field goal attempts for a total of 72 points scored.

2011: He appeared in the first three games, a season-opening 51-7 win vs. Missouri State, a 52-3 victory vs. New Mexico and a 38-28 win vs. Troy, before missing the rest of the season due to injury. He was granted a medical redshirt for the 2011 season.

BEFORE ARKANSAS: At Citrus College in 2010, Stringer earned all-conference honors after just one season, taking a spot on the Central Division West second team at offensive tackle. Stringer was coached in junior college by Ron Ponciano. At Alta Loma High School in 2009, Stringer played on the offensive line for head coach Dan Bornfeld.

PERSONAL: Born October 11, 1991, he is the son of Ed and Sue Stringer. He is majoring in history and was named to the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll in 2012.

CAREER SUMMARY: A 2013 Rimington Trophy candidate, Swanson has started all 38 games of his Razorback career and blocked for three seasons with a 3,000-yard passer, including the first season in school history with a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard rusher in 2010.

2012: He was selected as a team captain, started all 12 games and was named second-team All-SEC by the Associated Press. The offensive line paved the way as 24 UA or SEC records were broken and Arkansas produced a 1,000-yard receiver in consecutive seasons for the first time in school history and a 3,000-yard passer for the fourth straight year. Quarterback Tyler Wilson led the SEC in passing, while Cobi Hamilton topped the conference in receptions per game and receiving yards per game. Hamilton's season totals of 90 catches and 1,335 receiving yards broke school records and allowed him to break the UA record for career receptions with 175. In addition, the offensive line allowed 1.0 or fewer sacks in eight games in 2012 and ranked third in the SEC with an average of just 1.58 sacks allowed per game.

2011: He started all 13 games as part of an offensive line that allowed the offense to break 16 game or season school records and produce a 3,000-yard passer for the third straight season. Arkansas led the SEC in total offense, passing offense and scoring offense to become just the fifth different school, and first since 2001, to lead the conference in all three categories in a single season and became the sixth team in conference history, and second since 1992, to lead the SEC in passing offense for three straight seasons. The Razorbacks ranked 13th in the country with their average of 300.7 passing yards per game, 15th in the nation with an average of 36.8 points per game and 29th in the NCAA with an average of 438.1 yards of total offense per game. Quarterback Tyler Wilson broke nine UA records and led the SEC in passing and total offense while becoming the first Razorback to be a first-team All-SEC selection at quarterback. Wide receiver Jarius Wright also earned first-team All-SEC honors after he broke seven school records and led the conference in receiving yards per game with an average of 93.1 to rank 18th in the country and in receiving touchdowns with 12, a total that tied for seventh in the NCAA. The Razorback offense posted the second-best single-season total in school history for completions (299), passing yards (3,909), passing yards per game (300.7), first downs (279) and passing first downs (166) while totaling the third-highest total offense yardage total (5,695) and third-best total offense per play average (6.45).

2010: He started all 13 games for the Razorbacks at center as Arkansas was the only school in the SEC to start the same offensive line every game in 2010. He was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team. The line allowed Arkansas to break 24 game or season school records on offense. He blocked for the first season in UA history with a 3,000-yard passer and a 1,000-yard rusher. Quarterback Ryan Mallett set the Arkansas single-season passing yards record with 3,869 and running back Knile Davis posted the fourth-highest single-season rushing yards total in program history with 1,322 yards. The Razorbacks were the only team in the country to boast a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and five 600-yard receivers. Arkansas finished the season first in the SEC and fourth in the NCAA in passing (333.7), becoming just the third team since 1992 to lead the conference in passing in consecutive seasons. The Razorbacks also ranked second in the SEC and ninth in the country in total offense (482.5) and second in the conference and 17th in the NCAA in scoring offense (36.5).

2009: He redshirted and worked out with the Arkansas scout team.

HIGH SCHOOL: Swanson was a first-team all-state selection by the writers and a second-team honoree by the coaches. He was rated as the No. 33 offensive guard by Scout.com and the No. 73 offensive guard by Rivals.com. He was named one of 10 finalists for the Greater Houston Area Offensive Player of the Year and was the only lineman among the finalists. He was coached by Dougald McDougald. He was also recruited by Arizona, Houston, Kansas and Texas Tech.

PERSONAL: Born, Jan. 30, 1991, he is the son of Todd and Gina Swanson. He is majoring in criminal justice. He was named to the Razorback Honor Roll for his work in the classroom in the fall of 2011.

FRESHMAN/RS
WIDE RECEIVER
PINE BLUFF, ARK. (FAYETTEVILLE)

2012: Thurman worked with the UA scout team while redshirting.

HIGH SCHOOL: Thurman came to Arkansas fresh off a 7A state championship with Fayetteville. In his senior season, he helped the Bulldogs to a 12-2 mark, including a 29-28 defeat of Bentonville in the state title game that avenged a loss in the championship game from the year before. In 2011, Fayetteville scored an average of 38.9 points per game, topping 30 points in 11 games, more than 40 points in nine games and scoring at least 50 points twice. During his junior year, Fayetteville produced a 10-4 overall mark and advanced to the state championship game while averaging 39.4 points per game. During that 2010 season, Fayetteville scored more than 30 points 11 times, topped 40 points eight times and eclipsed 50 points in two games. Thurman was coached at Fayetteville by Darryl Patton.

PERSONAL: Born Aug. 3, 1994, he is the son of Regina and Scotty Thurman. His father is currently the Razorback men's basketball Director of Student-Athlete Development and lettered in basketball at Arkansas from 1993-95. His mother also attended Arkansas and was a member of the spirit squad. Thurman's uncle, Corliss Williamson, lettered in basketball at Arkansas from 1993-95 and went on to a 13-year NBA career with four different teams. His cousin, Keith Jackson, was an NFL tight end playing for three teams from 1988-96. Scotty is enrolled in the Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences.

CAREER SUMMARY: Walker has appeared in five games with one start. He has rushed 21 times for 69 yards and six touchdowns and caught one pass for five yards.

2012: Walker played in each of the first two games, including a start vs. ULM, and rushed one time for one yard and one touchdown and caught one pass for five yards. He scored the Razorbacks' first points of the season on a one-yard touchdown rush in the first quarter of the 49-24 win vs. Jacksonville State. He caught one pass for five yards vs. ULM before suffering an injury in the fourth quarter and being forced to miss the rest of the season.

2011: He played in each of the first three games and collected 68 yards and five touchdowns on 20 rushes before missing the rest of the season due to injury and being granted a medical redshirt. At the time of his injury, his five rushing touchdowns were tied for the most in the NCAA among true freshmen and for fourth in the SEC. He scored a one-yard touchdown on his first collegiate carry and finished the season-opening 51-7 win vs. Missouri State with 33 yards and two touchdowns on nine carries. He scored two more touchdowns the next week as he rushed the ball 10 times for 32 yards and the two scores in a 52-3 victory vs. New Mexico. He scored a three-yard rushing touchdown on his only carry in the 38-28 win vs. Troy.

HIGH SCHOOL: Walker was rated as the No. 4 overall recruit in the state of Missouri and the 32nd-best running back prospect in the country, according to Rivals.com. The Jefferson City High School running back put together two straight 1,000-yard seasons, totaling 1,554 yards and 16 touchdowns in 2009 and 1,004 yards and 16 touchdowns as a senior in 2010. The Jefferson City team, coached by Ted Lepage, earned a berth in the Class Six State Tournament. Scout.com recognized Walker as the No. 51 running back in the country. Walker was named second-team all-state by the Associated Press and Missouri Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association following his senior campaign. He selected the Razorbacks after also considering Missouri.

PERSONAL: Born July 19, 1992, he is the son of Twila Walker. He is majoring in recreation and sport management.

He was involved in FCA, assisted with Special Olympics and was a member of the Future Business Leaders of America. He was coached at Greenwood by Rick Jones. Morgan selected Arkansas over multiple offers, including Auburn. Born Dec. 2, 1994, he is the son of Matt and Annie Morgan.

Skipper was rated as the No. 32 offensive tackle in the country by Scout.com, the No. 4 prospect in Colorado and the No. 46 offensive tackle in the country by Rivals.com, and the state's No. 5 prospect and the country's 47th offensive tackle by 247Sports.com. He earned 5A all-state recognition as a senior, helping Ralston Valley average 35.8 points per game while advancing to the semifinal round of the state playoffs, and after the season was selected to play in the Offense-Defense All-American Bowl. His junior season, the Mustangs put together a 10-2 record and advanced to the quarterfinal round of the state playoffs. He was a member of student government all four years in high school, where he contributed more than 100 hours of community service and served his senior year as student body president. He also was a member of the National Honor Society and volunteered for a program to mentor incoming freshmen. His coach at Ralston Valley was Matt Loyd. Skipper received numerous scholarship offers and chose Arkansas over Ole Miss, Tennessee, Ohio State and Michigan. Born Sept. 20, 1994, he is the son of Ken and Brigid Skipper.

Spaight was a two-time junior college All-American at Coffeyville Community College. He was ranked as the No. 8 junior college outside linebacker in the nation by 247Sports.com and was 82nd in ESPN's Junior College 100 ranking. He was a first-team NJCAA All-American and the Jayhawk Community College Conference's Defensive Player of the Year in 2012 after collecting more than 100 tackles for the second consecutive season. As a sophomore, he recorded 130 tackles, 13.5 for loss with 1.5 sacks, three pass breakups, one forced fumble and one blocked kick. His tackles total was fourth on Coffeyville's single-season list. In his freshman year, he earned NJCAA All-America honors after making 101 tackles, 9.0 for loss with 1.5 sacks, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble. As a senior at North Little Rock, he was a 7A Central all-state selection. He was coached at Coffeyville by Aaron Flores and at North Little Rock by Brad Bolding. Spaight selected Arkansas over Kansas State. Born Aug. 5, 1993, he is the son of Mark and Tela Spaight.

Tavarres came to Arkansas as a two-time all-conference selection at College of the Siskiyous in California. He was ranked as the No. 7 junior college outside linebacker in the country by 247Sports.com and 63rd in ESPN's Junior College 100 ranking. He recorded 85 tackles, 12.5 for loss with 2.5 sacks, two interceptions, five pass breakups, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble in 2012, helping lead the Eagles to a 10-1 record, the most wins in school history, and the CCCAA Central Division championship. As a freshman, he made 51 tackles, 12.5 for loss with 4.5 sacks, one interception and four pass breakups. As a senior at Lakeridge, he collected 135 tackles, including 20 in one game and 17 the next week, and 5.0 sacks with one interception, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble. He was coached at Siskiyous by Charlie Roche and at Lakeridge by Tom Smythe. Tavarres chose the Razorbacks over offers from Boise State and Arizona, among others. Born Nov. 18, 1992, he is the son of Robert Tavarres and Cathy Shroyer. He joined the Razorbacks in January of 2013 and participated in spring practice.

Washington was ranked as the No. 1 junior college cornerback and the No. 10 overall junior college player in the nation by 247Sports.com. He was an all-conference performer and collected 25 tackles as a sophomore in 2012 while adding three interceptions, six pass breakups, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. In his freshman season for Hartnell, he recorded 27 tackles, four interceptions, six pass breakups, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery while earning all-conference recognition and helping the Panthers to Coast Conference and Southern Division titles. He played on both sides of the ball in high school and made 38 tackles, two interceptions, three pass breakups and one forced fumble on defense while catching 35 passes for 653 yards and one touchdown and rushing 21 times for 204 yards and two scores as a senior. In his junior season, he quarterbacked the Red Storm into the second round of the state playoffs, finishing the year 60-of-110 passing for 1,088 yards and eight touchdowns and rushing 53 times for 437 yards and seven touchdowns. On defense, he collected 11 tackles, two pass breakups and one forced fumble. He has volunteered at the Baltimore Boys & Girls Club, assisting with after-school programs. He was coached at Hartnell by Matt Collins and at Edmondson-Westside by Dante Jones. Washington chose Arkansas over Mississippi State, among others. Born April 4, 1991, he is the son of Carroll Washington and Diarchel Murphy. He joined the Razorbacks in January of 2013 and participated in spring practice.

2012 SEC FOOTBALL REVIEW

- During the last seven years (2006-12), Southeastern Conference football has experienced success that is unparalleled in its football history and in the history of college football. The SEC has won seven consecutive national championships, nine of 14 BCS National Championships and 23 overall national titles (AP, BCS, FWAA, coaches poll).
- Four different SEC schools have won the BCS National Championship since 2006 (Auburn, 2010; Alabama, 2009, 2011, 2012; Florida, 2006 and 2008; LSU, 2007). Tennessee (1998) and LSU (2004) have also won the BCS crown. The Big 12 (Texas and Oklahoma) and the ACC (Miami and Florida State) have each had two schools win titles since 1998.
- Since 2006, more than half of the slots in the BCS National Championship Game have been taken by SEC teams (9 of 16). The Big Ten and the Big 12 have two each and the Pac-12 has one.
- No other conference has won a BCS National Championship Game since Texas defeated Southern California 41-38 in the Rose Bowl following the 2005 regular season.
- An SEC team has led or tied for the lead at the end of 24 of the last 28 quarters of BCS National Championship Game play.
- Since 2006, an SEC team has been ranked first in the weekly BCS standings in 30 of the 56 weeks, with four different teams holding the top spot. Florida was first for seven weeks, Alabama for 10 weeks, Auburn for three and LSU for 10 weeks, including all eight polls of this season. The Big Ten has held the top spot for 13 weeks (all Ohio State), the Big 12 for six weeks (Texas and Oklahoma twice, Missouri and Kansas State once) and the Pac-12 four weeks (all Oregon).
- The SEC has had more teams ranked in the BCS standings for the most times than any other conference since 2006. The league has had 12 of its 14 teams ranked at one time or another since 2006 for a total of 290 times. The SEC breakdown: LSU (53), Alabama (43), Florida (41), Georgia (31), Auburn (29), South Carolina (29), Arkansas (23), Tennessee (14), Mississippi State (12), Texas A&M (8), Kentucky (4) and Ole Miss (3).
- Since 2006, the SEC has posted a 10-4 record in BCS bowl games, more wins and a higher winning percentage (.750) than any other conference. The win total nearly equals that of the next two highest conferences.

- During the current seven-year streak, the SEC's average margin of victory in BCS National Championship Games is 17 points, which includes a three-point victory over Oregon in 2011, the only game during the streak decided by single digits.
- Since 2006, the SEC has accrued more bowl wins (42) and appearances (73) than any other conference. The conference's .656 bowl winning percentage is third behind the Big East (23-10, .697) and Mountain West (20-9, .690) during that time.
- In the 2012-13 bowl season, the SEC had the most wins (6) and had the third highest win percentage (6-3, .667), tied for second-highest among conferences that had six-or-more teams in bowl games.
- In January bowl games, the SEC is 27-12 (.692) against non-conference competition. Since 2008, the league is 21-8 (.724) against non-conference foes in January bowl games.
- Since 2006, the SEC has posted the highest non-conference winning percentage (regular season & bowls) than any other conference. The league has a 333-74 record, an 81.8 winning percentage. The SEC has won no less than 43 non-conference games (regular season & bowls) during the last seven seasons (2006-2012). This season, the SEC was 54-11 (.831), the highest percentage among FBS conferences.
- Teams from the SEC have posted 44 wins in the last seven years against non-conference Top 25 teams (at time game was played), an average of over six wins per season. Nine of the 14 SEC teams have at least one win against a non-conference Top 25 team in the last six years.
- Since 2006, SEC football student-athletes and coaches have won 59 major individual awards, an average of more than eight per year. The league won an all-time high 12 individual honors in 2010 and won eight in 2011 and 2012.

SEC CHAMPIONSHIP

2013 SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The SEC's Western and Eastern Division winners meet in Atlanta's Georgia Dome to battle for the league championship and the right to represent the conference in the Bowl Championship Series.

The 22nd annual title game is set for Dec. 7 and will be nationally televised by CBS Sports.

The game is a result of conference expansion, which saw Arkansas and South Carolina become the first members added in SEC history in 1992. Under NCAA regulations, a conference with 12 members may play a 12th football game to determine its champion, provided the regular season is played in divisions.

The participants of the game are determined each year during the eight-game regular-season conference schedule as the teams with the best overall SEC winning percentage in each division.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME QUICK FACTS

Date: Saturday, Dec. 7
Site: Georgia Dome, Atlanta, Ga.
Capacity: 71,500
TV: CBS Sports

ARKANSAS IN THE SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

2006: Florida 38, Arkansas 28 — Florida scored a touchdown with nine minutes left in the game and held on for the 38-28 victory over Arkansas.

Down 17-7 at the half, Arkansas took a 21-17 third-quarter lead on a two-yard reception by Felix Jones and a 40-yard interception return by Antwain Robinson. Arkansas could have had a chance to build on the lead, but the Gators recovered a fumbled punt in the end zone to move back in front 24-21 with 3:47 left in the third period. Percy Harvin, who scored on a 37-yard pass from Chris Leak in the second quarter, scored on a 67-yard run early in the fourth to put Florida up 31-21.

Jones scored his second touchdown on a 29-yard pass from Cedric Washington to cut the margin to three.

Darren McFadden finished with 73 yards on 15 carries and Jones 57 on 13. Casey Dick was 10-of-22 passing for 148 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions.

Harvin had 105 yards on six carries for Florida, which went on to win the national title at 13-1, while Leak was 16-of-30 for 189 yards with a touchdown and two interceptions.

2002: Georgia 30, Arkansas 3 — Georgia scored on its first five possessions for a 23-0 halftime lead and posted a 30-3 victory. Georgia claimed the SEC title just 75 miles from its Athens campus.

Musa Smith rushed for 106 yards and two touchdowns. David Greene threw for 237 yards and a score, earning the game's MVP award. Terrence Edwards had seven catches for 92 yards, becoming the SEC's career leader in receiving yards.

Arkansas had won six in a row to earn its second trip to the league championship game.

The Razorbacks had a punt blocked by Decory Bryant on their first possession and Thomas Davis scooped up the loose ball and ran to the Arkansas 2-yard line.

On Georgia's next possession, Smith, who scored after the blocked punt, finished off the drive with a 17-yard scoring run. Georgia's next three possessions ended with field goals by Billy Bennett, who connected from 29, 42 and 39 yards to provide the halftime margin.

Arkansas led the SEC in rushing offense with an average of 243 yards per game but managed just 65 against Georgia. Fred Talley, a 1,000-yard rusher, was held to 51 yards on 17 carries while Matt Jones managed only 12 yards on nine carries. Jones completed 9-of-17 passes for 60 yards.

1995: Florida 34, Arkansas 3 — A prime-time (ABC) television audience and a sell-out crowd (71,325) in the Georgia Dome saw Florida post a 34-3 victory.

Florida out-gained Arkansas by only 97 yards, 396-299, but the Gators committed no turnovers while Arkansas lost the ball four times.

Arkansas got on the scoreboard first when Todd Latourette kicked a 36-yard field goal with 7:26 left in the first quarter. The Razorbacks were dealt some bad news on that drive, however. Sophomore running back Madre Hill, who finished third in the conference in rushing, was lost for the game with a knee injury.

Without question, the proudest moment in the history of Arkansas Razorback football is the 1964 national championship. Head coach Frank Broyles led his '64 team to an undefeated 10-0 regular season record and a 10-7 Cotton Bowl victory over Nebraska.

The 1964 national championship was historic not so much for who won but for when the title was awarded.

In 1964, seven different entities named a mythical national champion. The two most notable polls to fans at the time — The Associated Press and the United Press International — did not wait until after the bowl games to award their champion. Because of that, Alabama was named the national champ by the AP, UPI and Litkenhous groups. However, the Crimson Tide went on to lose 21-17 to Texas in the Orange Bowl and finish 10-1 on the year.

Arkansas remained the only undefeated team in the country at 11-0 with its victory over Nebraska. Two groups who waited until after the bowl games to name their champion — The Football Writers Association of America and the Helms Athletic Foundation — named Frank Broyles' Razorbacks as national champs. Notre Dame and Michigan also were honored by lesser known polls. Both the AP (1965) and UPI (1974) eventually changed their procedure, choosing to wait until after the bowls to announce their final polls.

1964 GAME-BY-GAME

PR/AP JOE ADAMS

2011 PFW, FWAA, TSN 1st/AP, SI, WC, PS 2nd
A consensus All-American and winner of the inaugural Johnny "The Jet" Rodgers National College Football Return Specialist Award, Adams led the NCAA and tied the SEC single-season record with four punt return touchdowns on his way to also earning SEC Special Teams Player of the Year. His average of 16.89 yards per punt return led the SEC and ranked second in the country. He finished his career with five punt return touchdowns, which tied for the third-highest total in SEC history, and an average of 15.83 yards per punt return, second all-time at UA.

QB LANCE ALWORTH

In 1961, he led the team in rushing (110 carries, 516 yards), receiving (18-320), punt returns (28-336) and kickoff returns (13-300). Alworth became a first round draft pick, going to the San Francisco 49ers and was eventually enshrined into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In 2005, he was inducted into the SBC Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame.

2003 AFCA, AP, CFN, ESPN.com, FWAA, TSN, CNNI.com, WC 1st

A finalist for the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award as a junior, he was also named the SEC's 2003 Offensive Player of the Year by College Football News and won the Jacobs Trophy (SEC's top blocker) for the second straight season after helping UA lead the SEC and rank fifth in the nation in rushing (241.9). In 2002, he became the first sophomore in UA history to earn first-team All-America honors.

OG JIM BARNES

1968 AP 1st

A captain in 1968, he helped lead his squad to a 10-1 record and a share of the SWC championship. A first-team All-SWC selection, he was also named to UA's all-decade team.

E JIM BENTON

1937 NANA 1st/ChP 2nd/AP, CP 3rd

One of UA's earliest All-Americans, Jim Benton led the Hogs to a record of 6-2-2 and a No. 14 final ranking by AP in 1937. He is a member of UA's all-century team. He had 48 receptions for 814 yards and seven TDs in '37.

S MARTINE BERCHER

1966 AFCA, UPI 1st

He helped lead the Hog defense to a season that saw them give up just 73 points on their way to an 8-2 season and No. 13 final ranking by UPI. He made 30 tackles with three interceptions.

C RODNEY BRAND

1969 AP, FWAA, WC 1st

A captain, he helped the Razorbacks post a 9-2 record, finish second in the SWC and play in the Sugar Bowl against Ole Miss.

OG/DT BUD BROOKS

1954 AFCA, AP, FWAA, WC 1st

Not only was he an All-American, he also won the 1954 Outland Trophy. He helped the Hogs win the SWC championship with an 8-3 record and earn a trip to the 1955 Cotton Bowl against Georgia Tech. He also was the MVP of the south team in the Senior Bowl.

DT DICK BUMPAS

1970 AP 1st

He grounded the defense on a team that went 9-2 and finished second in the SWC. He recorded 53 tackles for the league's top defense (267 yards per game) and was the MVP of the Blue-Gray Game.

OG BRANDON BURLSWORTH

1998 Football News 1st/AP 2nd

QB BILLY MOORE

1962 FWAA 1st

He led the Hogs in both passing and rushing in 1962. His 131 attempts for 585 yards on the ground and 51 of 91 passing attempts for 673 yards through the air gave him 1,258 yards of total offense and a combined 19 touchdowns.

LB JIM MOOTY

1959 AP 1st/NEA 3rd

He had 93 carries for 519 yards and five touchdowns on a team that went 9-2, was co-champion of the SWC, ended the season ranked No. 9 and played in the Gator Bowl.

K ISH ORDONEZ

1979 UPI 2nd

Ordenez was one of the most consistent scoring machines in the country in 1979. He led the country with 18 field goals and topped the SWC with 80 points. During the 1979 season, he established a national record by connecting on 16 straight field goals. His effort helped the Razorbacks to a 10-2 record, a No. 8 national ranking by the AP and a share of the SWC championship.

OG STEPHEN PARKER

2006 TSN 2nd

Also a second-team All-SEC pick, he signed a free-agent contract with the Miami Dolphins. He helped Arkansas lead the SEC and rank fourth in the nation in rushing (228.5), rank 29th in the nation in total offense (378.0) and 31st in scoring (28.9). UA's total of 3,199 rushing yards was the third-best season total in school history, and the Hogs set a school record with 5.94 yards per carry. The total of 5,292 yards of total offense is the second-best mark in school history.

LB JERMAINE PETTY

2001 AAF, AFCA 1st

He finished his career as the No. 4 tackler in a season with 140. Petty was also named the Bronko Nagurski Player of the Week two times. His biggest stop came on a two-point conversion attempt at Ole Miss when his tackle gave UA the 58-56, seven-overtime victory in the longest game ever played.

T LOYD PHILLIPS

1965 AFCA, AP, WC 1st

1966 AFCA, AP, FWAA, TSN, WC 1st

His most significant achievement was winning the Outland Trophy for the most outstanding lineman in college football. Phillips finished his career with 304 tackles, including a 22-tackle performance against Tulsa. He made 100 stops in '65 and 97 in '66.

LB CLIFF POWELL

1969 AFCA 1st

A three-year letterman, he held the school record for tackles in a career (367) from 1969 through the end of the 2002 season. His senior campaign saw him make 134 tackles to break the previous record by 10 (Ronnie Caveness).

QB JACK ROBBINS

1936 AABF

Also a first-team All-Southwest Conference selection in 1936, he produced 3,253 yards of total offense from 1935-37. He led Arkansas to a 7-3 finish, a SWC title and a No. 18 final ranking. He was 198-of-386 for 2,553 yards with 19 touchdowns and 32 interceptions in his career. He was also All-SWC in basketball in 1938.

E WEAR SCHOONOVER

1929 GR, NYS 1st/UPI 2nd/AP, INS 3rd

Arkansas' first All-American, despite playing more than 70 years ago, he still is atop the list for receptions in a game. He hauled in 13 passes for 129 yards in a matchup against Baylor in 1929. He also has one of the longest interception returns in UA history with a 96-yard jaunt for a score against Centenary.

TB CLYDE SCOTT

1948 AFCA, AP 1st

The most successful two-sport athlete in Razorback history, "Smackover" Scott lettered in football and track. His is one of just two numbers retired by the University of Arkansas, and he is the only two-sport athlete to be selected an All-American in both sports. The spring of 1948 saw Scott not only establish himself in track, earning All-America honors, but as an Olympian as well. He won the silver medal in the 110-yard hurdles at the summer games in London. Back on the gridiron, Scott led the Hogs in rushing (95-670) and kickoff returns (8-195).

DE BILLY RAY SMITH JR.

1981 AFCA, AP, FWAA, TSN, WC 1st

1982 AFCA, AP, FWAA, TSN, WC 1st

His career saw him wreak havoc in the backfield, stopping opponents a school-record 63 times behind the line of scrimmage for 343 yards lost. Smith finished his career with 299 tackles. He had 72 tackles with 19 for loss in 1981 and 90 stops with 15 for loss in '82.

K KENDALL TRAINOR

1988 AFCA, AP, TSN, WC 1st

In addition to five other school records, Trainor holds the record for most field goals made in a season, splitting the uprights 24 of 27 times in 1988, and for made field goals in a game (5-5) against TCU and Texas A&M. He made his final 24 field goal attempts as a Razorback including a 58-yard effort against Miami (Fla.).

OT TONY UGO

2006 Rivals 2nd / AP 3rd

Also a first-team All-SEC selection, he was a second-round draft choice of the defending Super Bowl champion Indianapolis Colts. He helped Arkansas lead the SEC and rank fourth in the nation in rushing (228.5), rank 29th in the nation in total offense (378.0) and 31st in scoring (28.9). UA's total of 3,199 rushing yards is the third-best season total in school history and the Hogs set a school record with 5.94 yards per carry. The 5,292 yards of total offense was the second-best mark in school history.

DT JIMMY WALKER

1978 FWAA 1st

He was in the backfield 37 times for 216 yards in losses during his career. Following the 1977 regular season, Walker recovered a fumble that aided in the Hogs' drumming of Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl. A year later, he made 86 tackles with a then-school-record 19 tackles for loss and was named the most outstanding defensive player after making 10 tackles in the 1978 Fiesta Bowl.

TE D.J. WILLIAMS

2010 SI, Scout.com 2nd / AP 3rd

The Mackey Award winner as the nation's best tight end, Williams also was named first-team All-SEC. He finished the 2010 season with a team-leading 54 receptions, the fourth-highest single-season total in school history, to give him two of the top four single-season reception marks in UA's record book. He gained 627 yards and four touchdowns on his 54 catches. His 4.2 receptions-per-game average ranked seventh in the SEC and tops among the conference's tight ends. He also won the Disney Spirit Award and was Arkansas' first Sullivan Award finalist.

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS NATIONAL INDIVIDUAL AWARD WINNERS

In 2010, D.J. Williams was the recipient of the Disney Spirit Award, given to college football's most inspirational player, team or figure, and the Mackey Award, given to the best tight end in college football. Williams was the first student-athlete in school history to win either award.

Darren McFadden (left) poses with the other 2006 Heisman Trophy finalists. McFadden was the Heisman Trophy runner-up in 2006 and 2007.

Joe Adams won the inaugural Johnny "The Jet" Rodgers National Return Specialist Award following the 2011 season.

NATIONAL INDIVIDUAL AWARD WINNERS

D.J. WILLIAMS

DISNEY SPIRIT AWARD

(COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S MOST INSPIRATIONAL PLAYER, TEAM OR FIGURE)

The Disney Spirit Award is given annually by Disney Sports to college football's most inspirational player, team or figure. D.J. Williams was the 2010 recipient after overcoming domestic abuse.

From participation in the Big Brothers and Big Sisters program, to the local Boys & Girls Clubs and Children's Hospital, Williams demonstrated his big heart and passion for giving back to his community. He used his stature as a prominent college football player to raise awareness and inspire others to abandon troubled relationships and seek help.

On the field, Williams excelled as well, finishing his career with 152 receptions, the second-highest total in school history and the most by a non-wide receiver, 1,855 receiving yards, which ranks eighth on the school's all-time list, and 10 touchdowns. He also won the 2010 Mackey Award as the best tight end in college football.

LOYD PHILLIPS

OUTLAND TROPHY

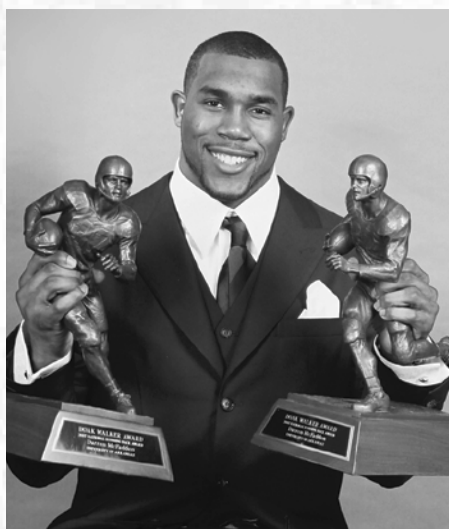

(OUTSTANDING LINEMAN IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL)

Named for John Outland, an All-American tackle at the University of Pennsylvania in 1897, this trophy is presented by the Football Writers' Association of America to the nation's outstanding collegiate interior lineman.

Arkansas boasts two Outland Trophy winners in its history. An offensive guard and defensive tackle, Bud Brooks was the first UA honoree in 1954. Tackle Loyd Phillips became the Hogs' second winner when he won the award in 1966. The honor is one of the most prestigious awards ever earned by an individual UA player.

1966: Loyd Phillips, defensive tackle

1954: Bill "Bud" Brooks, offensive guard/defensive tackle

DARREN MCFADDEN

DOAK WALKER AWARD

(OUTSTANDING RUNNING BACK IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL)

The Doak Walker Award was created in 1989 to recognize the nation's premier running back for his accomplishments on the field, achievement in the classroom and citizenship in the community. It is the only major collegiate football award that requires all candidates to be in good academic standing and on schedule to graduate within one year of other students of the same classification.

The award is named for the former SMU great, who earned All-America honors in 1947, '48 and '49, and won the Heisman Trophy in 1948. Ten semifinalist are selected by the SMU Athletic Forum Board of Directors and the winner then chosen by the Doak Walker Award National Selection Committee.

Darren McFadden won the award as a sophomore in 2006 and as a junior in 2007 when he was also named the Walter Camp National Player of the Year. He also was the Heisman Trophy runner-up each season. He set a school rushing record with 1,647 yards and 14 touchdowns as a sophomore, and topped those totals with 1,830 yards and 16 TDs as a junior. He led the SEC in rushing and all-purpose running both years.

2006: Darren McFadden

NATIONAL INDIVIDUAL AWARD WINNERS

JONATHAN LUIGS

RIMINGTON TROPHY

(MOST OUTSTANDING COLLEGIATE CENTER IN NCAA FBS)

The winner is selected by determining the consensus All-American center from four existing All-America teams — the American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp Foundation, The Sporting News and Football Writers Association of America.

The award is named after Dave Rimington, a two-time consensus All-American at Nebraska in 1981 and 1982. Rimington also won the Outland Trophy those two seasons. The trophy is sponsored by the Boomer Esiason Foundation to support treatment and research of cystic fibrosis.

Jonathan Luigs won the award in 2007 after helping clear the way for Darren McFadden, the Heisman Trophy runner-up and Doak Walker Award winner, to rush for 1,830 yards and 16 touchdowns; and for All-American Felix Jones, who ran for 1,162 yards and 11 scores.

Luigs earned first-team All-America honors from the FWAA, The Sporting News, Walter Camp, Rivals, College Football News and Phil Steele. Arkansas set school records with 3,725 rushing yards on the season and ranked fourth in the nation, with 5,850 yards of total offense, and in scoring with 485 total points and 37.3 points per game.

2007: Jonathan Luigs

JOHN MACKEY AWARD

(MOST OUTSTANDING TIGHT END IN FBS COLLEGE FOOTBALL)

The John Mackey Award, established in 2001, is awarded annually to the most outstanding tight end in FBS college football. In addition to demonstrating outstanding athletic prowess on the field, the award also stands for positive sportsman-like behavior, good academic standing and exceptional leadership qualities.

In 2010, D.J. Williams became the first Razorback to win the award after becoming the school's first semifinalist in 2008. He finished the season with a team-leading 54 receptions, the fourth-highest single-season total in school history, for 627 yards and a career-high four touchdowns. He was named first-team All-SEC after helping the Razorbacks be the only team in the country with a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and five 600-yard receivers. His 4.2 receptions-per-game average ranked seventh in the SEC and tops among the conference's tight ends.

Williams finished his career with 152 receptions, at the time the second-highest total in school history and the most by a non-wide receiver, 1,855 receiving yards, which ranked eighth on the school's all-time list, and 10 touchdowns. He was a three-time All-SEC selection and also was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team in 2007.

2010: D.J. Williams

D.J. WILLIAMS

JOHNNY "THE JET" RODGERS AWARD

(COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S BEST RETURN SPECIALIST)

Established following the 2011 season, the Johnny Rodgers Award is given to the best return specialist in college football. The award is named after 1972 Heisman Trophy winner and 2000 College Football Hall of Fame inductee Johnny Rodgers, who finished his career holding NCAA records for career punt return touchdowns (seven) and total kick return touchdowns (nine) while helping Nebraska to consecutive national titles in 1970-71.

Joe Adams won the inaugural award in 2011 after he recorded four punt return touchdowns and averaged 16.89 yards per return. Adams' touchdown total tied the single-season SEC record, and his average led the conference, ranked second in the NCAA and was the fourth-highest average in school history. Adams also tied an SEC record with two punt return touchdowns in a game, a feat he accomplished in the season opener vs. Missouri State while breaking the UA single-game punt return yardage record with 174.

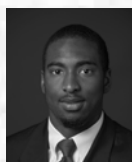

Adams concluded his career with five punt return touchdowns, tied for third in SEC history, and an average of 15.83 yards per punt return that ranked second all-time at Arkansas.

RETIRED NUMBERS

The ultimate honor is to have your jersey number retired, and in the 117 years that the Razorbacks have been on the football field, only two players have had the honor bestowed upon them. Clyde Scott (No. 12) and Brandon Burlsworth (No. 77) have worn numbers no future Razorback will ever wear.

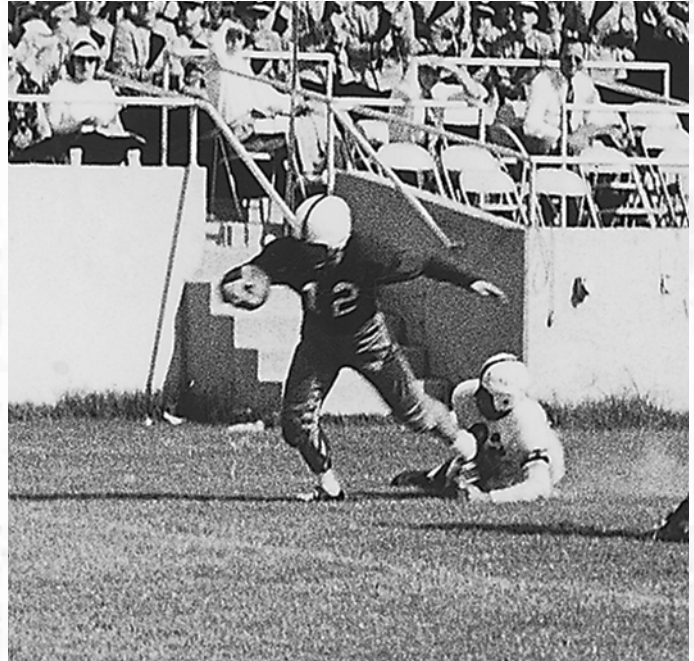

NO. 12

CLYDE "SMACKOVER" SCOTT – #12 (1946-49)

Following a glamorous career in the 1940s, the athletic department decided to retire No. 12. Nicknamed "Smackover" for his hometown, Clyde Scott made a name for himself in 1948, winning the silver medal in the hurdles at the Olympic Games in August and then reporting to football practice where he would earn All-America honors during his senior year.

Scott rushed for 1,463 yards during his career for a school record at the time. In 1948 he had an impressive 7.0 yards-per-carry average, gaining 670 yards on 95 attempts. Scott was the first Razorback athlete to win an Olympic medal as most of Arkansas' track success came in 1978 with the arrival of John McDonnell.

When Arkansas was recruiting Steve Little, Coach Frank Broyles asked Scott if Little could wear his retired No. 12. Scott graciously agreed and Little went on to an All-American career.

NO. 77

BRANDON BURLSWORTH – #77 (1994-98)

The athletic department did not see fit to retire another football jersey until after the 1998 campaign, when the No. 77 worn by Razorback All-American offensive guard Brandon Burlsworth was retired.

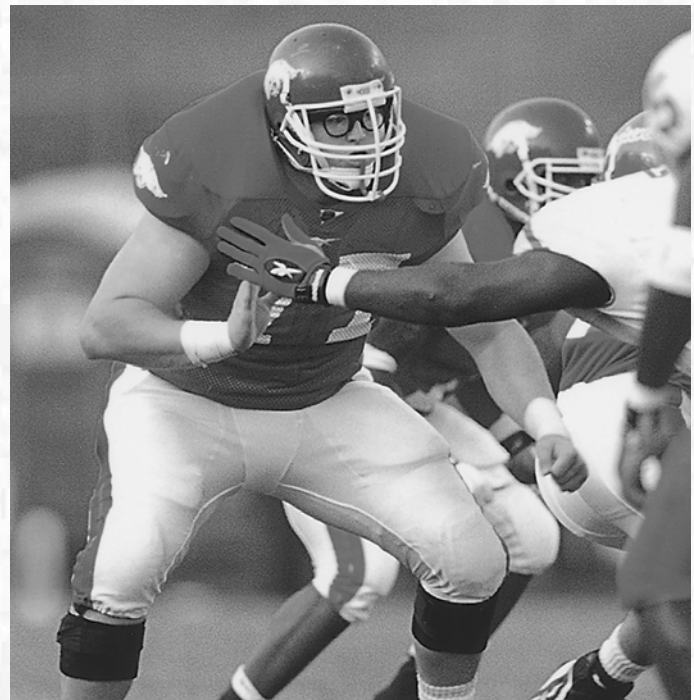

One of the most inspiring stories in Razorback history, Burlsworth joined the Razorbacks in 1994 as a walk-on. Following a redshirt year, he earned a scholarship with his work ethic in the weight room. After serving as a backup guard for the 1995 SEC Western Division champions, he earned a starting position in the spring of '96 and never yielded it. He went on to start 34 consecutive games, concluding with the Florida Citrus Bowl on Jan. 1, 1999.

Burlsworth was an All-SEC offensive guard in 1997. In 1998 he not only earned all-conference honors, but was named a first-team All-American by The Football News. He was the leader of an offensive line that helped the Razorback offense score more points than it had since 1970 and produce more yards than it had since the 1989 season.

In the classroom, Burlsworth was equally astounding. He earned his bachelor's degree in marketing management in 1997 and immediately went to work on his master's in business administration. In December 1998, Burlsworth completed his master's requirements to become the first Razorback football player to complete a master's degree before playing in his final game.

Burlsworth was drafted in the third round by the Indianapolis Colts, but unfortunately would die tragically in an automobile accident less than two weeks later. The entire state of Arkansas was stunned and head coach Houston Nutt recommended that Burlsworth's jersey be retired. Athletic director Frank Broyles quickly agreed.

Burlsworth's locker remains intact as a tribute to his memory in the UA football dressing room.

*Drafted first round

Years spent with each team not available for all players.

George Wilson signed with the Tennessee Titans after eight seasons in Buffalo. In his eight seasons as a Bill, he was voted a team captain five times, made 55 starts and was the team's Walter Payton Man of the Year winner twice.

RAZORBACKS IN THE SUPER BOWL

Billy Ray Smith became the first former Razorback to appear in the Super Bowl when the Baltimore Colts faced the New York Jets in Super Bowl III. He returned to the Super Bowl with the Colts two years later and helped them defeat the Dallas Cowboys to win Super Bowl V.

Bobbie Williams became the latest Razorback to earn the Lombardi Trophy, helping Baltimore to a 34-31 win over San Francisco in Super Bowl XLVII. Baltimore's win marked the fourth straight year a former Razorback played on the Super Bowl-winning team.

Ken Hamlin lettered at Arkansas from 2000-02 and left as UA's record holder for career tackles with 381. In 2000, he became the first Razorback freshman to lead the team in tackles as he collected 104. He was a first-team All-American in 2002 and a first-team All-SEC selection in 2001 and 2002. Following his career, he was drafted 42nd overall by the Seattle Seahawks in the 2003 NFL Draft.

A two-time All-SEC honoree, Malcolm Sheppard lettered for the Razorbacks from 2006-09 and served as team captain his final two seasons. He led the team in tackles for loss in each of his final three seasons, including a career-high 14.5 in 2008 in a season in which he also led the team with 6.5 sacks. Sheppard concluded his career tied for fifth on the school's all-time career tackles for loss list with 36.0.

Pat Summerall was a defensive end, tight end and placekicker for the Razorbacks from 1949-51. He served as a team captain in 1951 and was selected in the fourth round of the 1952 NFL Draft by the Detroit Lions. Summerall went on to a 10-year NFL career before moving into the broadcast booth, where he worked for CBS, ESPN and Fox. He was paired with John Madden for 22 years to make up one of the most well-known broadcast partnerships in TV history.

F.C. LONGMAN

2 SEASONS — 1906-07, 5-8-3

F.C. Longman was the final faculty member to serve as the football program's volunteer coach. Though the Cardinals suffered five shutouts during his tenure, they also earned a shutout win at Tulane and began Arkansas' series with Tennessee during the 1907 season.

HUGO BEZDEK

5 SEASONS — 1908-12, 29-13-1

The first full-time, paid coach in Arkansas football history, Hugo Bezdek guided the Cardinals to a 5-4 campaign in his first season.

In 1909 he led UA to what is widely regarded as the program's breakthrough season — a 7-0-0 campaign during which Arkansas outscored its foes 186-18. Upon the team's return from a win over LSU in Memphis, Tenn., that season, Bezdek told students his team had played "like a wild band of razorback hogs." The students liked the nickname and officially adopted it prior to the 1910 season.

E.T. PICKERING

2 SEASONS — 1913-14, 11-7-0

After beginning his tenure 5-0 en route to a 7-2-0 debut season, E.T. Pickering's second and final season at the helm of the UA program is best known for a contest against Ole Miss that is still disputed nearly a century later. Arkansas claims a 1-0 forfeit victory due to the Rebels' use of an ineligible player; Ole Miss denies the allegation and claims a 13-7 win on the field. The dispute led to the suspension of the series until 1924.

T.T. MCCONNELL

2 SEASONS — 1915-16, 8-6-1

The beginning of T.T. McConnell's tenure as head coach at Arkansas coincided with the inaugural season of Southwest Conference football. After a 4-2-1 debut in 1915 and four consecutive wins to open the 1916 season, McConnell's tenure culminated with consecutive losses to LSU, Texas, Oklahoma and Mississippi A&M.

NORMAN PAINE

Only a loss at Texas in the season finale prevented Norman Paine from an undefeated record in his first season, which began with five consecutive wins. His 1917 win over LSU was Arkansas' only victory against the Fighting Tigers in six games from 1915 to 1921. After playing the Sooners to a scoreless tie in 1917, Paine's 1918 team suffered the worst defeat in school history — a 103-0 loss at Oklahoma.

Although J.B. Craig's only season included a lopsided 63-7 loss to Henry Kendall, it concluded with a 7-6 win over Oklahoma in the Razorbacks' most recent home meeting with the Sooners. The win avenged the 103-0 loss at Norman, Okla., the year before.

2 SEASONS — 1920-21, 8-5-3

G.W. McLaren's Razorback teams yielded just 19 points in the six Southwest Conference games during his two-year tenure. His inaugural Arkansas team in 1920 shutout SWC foes SMU, Phillips and Rice en route to a 2-0-1 league mark. Because the SWC did not count ties toward winning percentage until 1925, the 1920 team is credited with a 1.000 league winning percentage but was not credited with a share of the league title won by Texas with a 5-0-0 conference mark.

FRED THOMSEN
13 SEASONS – 1929-41, 56-61-100

Still the second-longest-tenured head coach in Arkansas football history, Fred Thomsen was an offensive innovator who made the passing game an integral part of the UA attack. He led the Hogs to what would have been their first Southwest Conference title in 1933 only to vacate the championship for using an ineligible player. All-SWC performances by Jack Robbins and Jim Benton helped the Hogs to the SWC crown in 1936 and a tie for 18th in the final Associated Press poll in its first year of existence.

GEORGE COLE

1 SEASON — 1942, 3-7-0

The first of just two Arkansas graduates to serve as head football coach at his alma mater, George Cole went on to serve as athletic director at the school from 1970 to 1972. An All-Southwest Conference quarterback and a shortstop on the UA baseball team during his collegiate career, Cole began his administrative career as a line coach for the Razorbacks in 1936 and served as assistant athletic director under John Barnhill. Arkansas' baseball facility, Baum Stadium at George Cole Field, bears his name.

JOHN BARNHILL

Widely credited with uniting the state of Arkansas behind the Razorback program, John Barnhill led UA to a share of the Southwest Conference title and its first Cotton Bowl berth in the first of his four seasons before retiring from coaching to focus on his duties as athletic director. His coaching tenure included the debut of War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock, Ark., the Hogs' second and third bowl appearances and the recruitment of 1948 All-American and Olympic silver medal winner Clyde Scott.

3 SEASONS — 1950-52, 9-21-0

Despite personnel that included future NFL stars Fred Williams, Dave "Hawg" Hanner, Pat Summerall, Lamar McHan, Floyd Sagely and nine wins during Douglas' three-year tenure. The highlight of his stay was a 16-14 win over Texas in 1951 — the Razorbacks' first win over the Longhorns in Fayetteville.

BOWDEN WYATT

2 SEASONS — 1953-54, 11-10-0

After an inauspicious 3-7-0 mark in his initial campaign, Bowden Wyatt led the "25 Little Pigs" to Arkansas' second Southwest Conference title in 1954. That season also saw the Hogs earn their first win at Texas in 17 years, followed the next week by a 6-0 upset of Ole Miss on a 66-yard touchdown pass from Bob Benson to Preston Carpenter known to Razorback fans as the "Powder River Play." Wyatt left after the 1954 season to coach Tennessee, his alma mater.

FRANK BROYLES

Frank Broyles' arrival at Arkansas prior to the 1958 season marked the beginning of a relationship between Broyles and the institution.

He served as athletic director from 1973-2007.

With 144 wins in 19 seasons, Broyles ranks as the winningest and longest-tenured head football coach in UA history. His 1964 team went 11-0-0 to earn the school's only national championship and No. 1 final ranking by the Football Writers Association of America. He led the Razorbacks to 10 bowl appearances, including nine New Year's Day Bowls.

HOUSTON NUTT

Houston Nutt was the third Arkansas head coach to take the Razorbacks to a bowl game in each of his first six seasons. He led the Hogs to three SEC

Western Division crowns, eight bowl games, two bowl victories, three final national rankings and four nine-win seasons. Nutt's 8-0 start in 1998 marked the best debut ever for a UA head coach and helped UA reach its first New Year's Day game since 1990. In 2001 and 2006, Nutt was voted SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and league coaches.

RAZORBACKS IN OVERTIME

Arkansas has established itself as an authority on overtime games.

In 2001, the Razorbacks won the longest game ever played, the 58-56, seven-overtime thriller at Ole Miss. In 2003, UA matched that effort with another seven-overtime thriller, the 71-63 win at Kentucky. Earlier that season, Arkansas claimed a double-overtime victory at Alabama. In 2007, the Razorbacks won a 50-48, triple-overtime thriller at No. 1 LSU. At the 2010 Liberty Bowl, Arkansas topped East Carolina, 20-17, in one overtime period. The Razorbacks won 38-31 in double overtime at No. 22 Mississippi State in 2010.

Arkansas had played extra-period games before those mentioned, but the Ole Miss and Kentucky games, and the six-overtime loss at Tennessee in 2002, rank at the top of the charts for the most overtimes played in NCAA history.

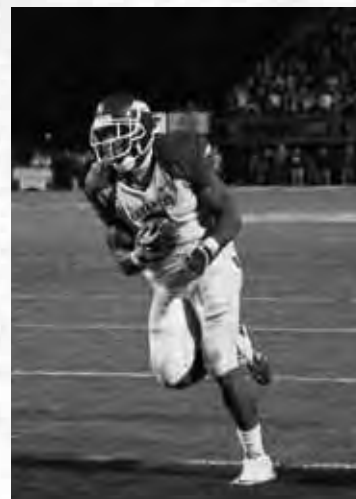

Key Points Regarding Overtime Games

- The team winning the coin toss has the option of taking the ball first or playing defense first. The team losing the coin toss selects the end of the field for both possessions.
- The team losing the coin toss has the option of going on offense or defense first for the second overtime while the other team chooses the end of the field.
- Each team gets the ball at the opponent 25-yard line.
- Beginning with the third overtime period, teams must attempt a two-point conversion following a touchdown.

ARKANSAS 58, OLE MISS 56 (7 OT)

Nov. 3, 2001 • Oxford, Miss.

Game Notes

- The seven overtimes is an NCAA record.
- The 114 combined points scored is an SEC record.
- UA All-American linebacker Jermaine Petty made his 20th tackle on his 103rd play of the game when he stopped Ole Miss tight end Doug Zeigler two yards short of the end zone on a two-point conversion attempt that would have forced an eighth extra period.
- Quarterback Matt Jones accounted for 116 of UA's 157 yards of total offense in the extra periods with 61 yards rushing and 55 passing. He did not start, but played all of the fourth quarter and all seven overtime periods.

The policies that follow have been prepared in consideration of your needs, as well as the needs of our student-athletes and coaches, in hopes of creating a positive working environment for us all. As always, we welcome your suggestions and will try to accommodate any special requests you may have.

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with our coaches and student-athletes are encouraged, but we require all interview arrangements be made via the media relations department. Coaches and student-athletes are instructed to decline any interviews not pre-arranged by the media relations department. UA football coaches and student-athletes are generally available for in-person interviews during a game week. All student-athlete and assistant coach interview requests must be made at least one day in advance to allow time to facilitate the notification process. Telephone interviews can be arranged, but student-athletes' telephone numbers will not be provided and student-athletes are instructed to politely decline interviews when contacted by telephone.

Student housing, the training room, the weight room and locker rooms are off-limits to members of the media.

DAILY PRACTICE

Following each practice session, head coach Bret Bielema or a member of the UA coaching staff will conduct a group interview with members of the media. Video and still photographers from accredited media outlets wishing to shoot practices are asked to consult with the media relations department for current guidelines prior to arrival at the practice field.

Following each practice session Monday through Thursday, the media relations department will produce a brief, Associated Press-style practice story. The story may be retrieved from the Razorbacks' official website, ArkansasRazorbacks.com.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE OPPORTUNITIES

Please consult the UA media relations department for the schedule of weekly press opportunities for Coach Bielema and student-athletes.

SEC WEEKLY COACHES' TELECONFERENCE

In conjunction with the Southeastern Conference, head coach Bret Bielema will participate each week in the league's teleconference of football coaches. The teleconferences will be conducted each Wednesday from Aug. 25 to Nov. 27 from 10 a.m. CT to Noon CT. Coach Bielema's scheduled time slot is from 11 a.m. CT to 11:10 a.m. CT. Accredited media members only may access the broadcast-quality teleconference. Callers may participate in the question-and-answer session with an individual coach or all SEC coaches. For more information and the teleconference number, contact the SEC Media Relations Office at (205) 458-3000.

ARKANSAS FTP SITE

An FTP site is available for members of the media. For more information concerning the FTP site, contact Blair Cartwright (jcartw@uark.edu) or Matt Wolfe (mawolfe@uark.edu).

ARKANSASRAZORBACKS.COM

The latest information on all Razorback sports, including football, can be found at ArkansasRazorbacks.com — the official website of UA athletics. Game notes, quotes from press conferences and daily practice stories are just a few of the items included online. The site also offers biographical information on UA coaches and student-athletes, statistics, game stories and schedules.

GAME CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

All requests for media and/or photo credentials must be made online at www.SportsSystems.com/Arkansas. Requests should be made at least two weeks in advance.

Credentials must be requested and will be granted on a game-by-game basis only. No multi-game or full season credentials will be issued.

Please see media credentialing guidelines online at www.SportsSystems.com/Arkansas. Space limitations prevent accommodation of weekly media representatives.

Only fully accredited personnel directly involved in the coverage of the game will be admitted. Credentials are non-transferable. The University of Arkansas Media Relations reserves the right to revoke any credential: (1) used by an individual other than the one for whom it was granted; (2) any individual who refuses to comply with press box and/or photographic area guidelines; (3) any individual who is not an accredited member of the media; (4) any individual under the age of 16.

Credentials will not be mailed. They may be picked up beginning two-and-a-half hours prior to kickoff at the media will call station at the base of the elevator at both Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium in Fayetteville and War Memorial Stadium in Little Rock. Photo identification is required when picking up credentials.

GAMEDAY PARKING

Limited parking is available in Fayetteville and Little Rock for media members. Those media members needing parking should make the request at least two weeks in advance to allow time for mailing.

TELEPHONES

UA provides ample telephones on a first-come, first-served basis for media members in the press boxes at both Fayetteville and Little Rock. A credit card is required for making calls from these phones.

WIRELESS INTERNET

The Arkansas press box does have wireless access. Information on accessing the internet is available in the game day information packets in the press box.

FAN GUIDE & STADIUM POLICIES

For more game day information and to download a copy of the Arkansas Football Fan Guide, please go to the University of Arkansas' athletics department website at www.ArkansasRazorbacks.com. Select the Fan button and then Fan Guides.

COUNTERFEIT TICKETS

Fans are reminded about the potential of counterfeit tickets being sold at Razorback games. The lone authorized outlet for ticket purchases is the UA Ticket Office, and tickets acquired in any other way put the buyer at risk. If fans have any doubt about the validity of their tickets, they can visit the UA Athletic Ticket Office on Razorback Road to verify their tickets during regular business hours, between 8:30 and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. On game day, fans can visit the Ticket Office at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium's Gate 1 starting four hours prior to kickoff. Further, those suspecting they have counterfeit tickets in their possession should contact UAPD to report this as soon as possible. The UA Athletic Ticket Office would also like to remind fans that any persons attempting to enter the stadium with a counterfeit ticket could be denied admission and subject to an investigation. Also, any person discovered inside the stadium with a stolen or counterfeit ticket will be escorted out.

E-TICKETS

Razorback E-Tickets, a customer-friendly interactive digital ticketing solution, was implemented prior to the 2012 football season. With the change to digital ticket scanning, Razorback football fans benefit from the heightened protection against counterfeit tickets and can take advantage of digital ticketing services including print-at-home single game tickets and ticket transfers for season ticket holders. Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, like many other college and professional venues, will scan all tickets using a bar-code on each ticket to verify admission. Scanning will identify counterfeit and stolen tickets and provide improved security and service. Help windows will be located at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium at Gates 1, 13 and 16 to help fans with any ticket scanning issues or to answer questions regarding the technology.

TAILGATING POLICIES

Tailgating at the University of Arkansas is a cherished part of the Razorback game day tradition. In order to provide a great game-day experience for all those who choose to tailgate, we remind you to please follow the tailgating policies outlined in the 2013 Arkansas Football Fan Guide. Your cooperation and consideration of all tailgating policies will be especially helpful as it pertains to one parking space/one car, no tents permitted in a parking space and adherence to the policies about the installation and size of tents.

Setting up tents, awnings and similar equipment for tailgates may commence on Friday beginning at 5 p.m. The items must be taken down and removed by Noon on Sunday. If a tent is placed before 5 p.m. on Friday, it will be removed and can be picked up from lost and found through Facilities Management, which can be contacted at 575-5050. In order to have your tent for Saturday's game, it must be picked up from the Facilities Management office before 5 p.m. on Friday.

VICTORY VILLAGE

The University of Arkansas Athletic Department features Victory Village, a reserved tailgating area near Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, for all Fayetteville home football games. The Athletic Department established the program, which is coordinated by Intents Party Rentals, to provide fans a convenient, worry-free tailgate experience close to the stadium. There are several basic packages offered that include set up and tear down, along with multiple add-on options, lending to an individually tailored, carefree gameday tailgate. Fans needing to drop off large items for their reserved space can begin to do so six hours before kickoff and continue until four hours prior to kick.

Victory Village will have two areas, a Victory Village North located above Lot 44 by the John W. Tyson Poultry Science building, and Victory Village East located across Stadium Drive from Lot 44 on the Administration Hill. Spots in Victory Village can be reserved on a single-game or season-long basis. Tailgating in Victory Village will only be permitted with a reservation. For more information, contact Intents Party Rentals at 479-251-8368. The Arkansas Athletic Department will continue to provide the popular AT&T Fan Zone at the Gardens for free. The AT&T Fan Zone at the Gardens includes inflatable games for kids, live music, televisions and food and drink vendors.

BAG POLICY

For information on the UA bag policy for events, please visit ArkansasRazorbacks.com or refer to the Football Fan Guide.

TRAVEL TO THE STADIUM

Fans are reminded that if you are parking in lots South of Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, it may be best to enter campus off of I-540 at Martin Luther King Blvd. (Exit #62). If you are parking in lots North of Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, it may be best to enter campus off of I-540 at Wedington Drive (Exit #64). As a reminder, traffic control begins four hours prior to kick. The pre-game and post-game traffic routes can be found in the 2013 Football Fan Guide at www.ArkansasRazorbacks.com.

GAME DAY PARKING

Parking lots to be used for home football games are indicated on the football parking maps on the University of Arkansas Transit and Parking website at www.parking.uark.edu. Also available is a listing of parking policies, maps and diagrams, pre- and post-game traffic flow and shuttle information for all Razorback home football games. Vehicles will be relocated from the designated parking lots by midnight prior to kick-off.

GENERAL PUBLIC PARKING

Public parking is limited on campus on game days. Fans are encouraged to arrive early. Pay parking is available at the Harmon Avenue Parking Garage located North of Center Street on Harmon Avenue. There is a $10 charge per vehicle for parking. Spaces are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

RESERVED PARKING

Certain lots will be reserved on game days. Parking passes for Fayetteville games at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium are allocated based on Razorback Foundation priority rank. For information about the Razorback Foundation, Inc. and how to obtain a parking pass, please go to www.razorbackfoundation.com. Please note that counterfeiting of any parking pass is strictly prohibited and will result in forfeiture of parking privileges. Additionally, parking passes must be visibly displayed on the windshield of the car while parked in the designated lot. Please refer to the Razorback Foundation's Scholarship parking map located at www.razorbackfoundation.com or the University of Arkansas' athletics department website at www.ArkansasRazorbacks.com for the locations of those reserved lots.

DISABILITY PARKING

Disability parking with a state-issued hang tag is available in Lot #56 which is at the corner of Martin Luther King Blvd. (6th Street) and Razorback Road. Patrons with a disability may ride the disability shuttle which originates at Lot #56 and unloads at Gates 1 and 8 (both on the West side of the Stadium) and 14 and 16 (both on the East side of the Stadium).

RE-ENTRY POLICY

Once a guest leaves the stadium, they will not be permitted back in. This is a University of Arkansas and Southeastern Conference Policy and applies to every ticket holder. Guests should plan accordingly and bring everything they need to the stadium upon initial entry.

LOST AND FOUND

During the game you may check one of three Guest Service locations at Gates 1, 13 & 16 for lost items. After the game, all unclaimed items will be turned over to the Guest Service Center at Gate 16. If you have any questions, please contact Gate 16 Guest Services at 479-575-4087. You may also stop by the Guest Service Center at Gate 16 during any home game to inquire about a lost item.

STADIUM TEXTING SERVICE

The University of Arkansas' Athletics Department will again provide a fan text messaging service that will be available inside Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium. The service will allow fans to communicate directly with event management personnel in important security and guest issue situations. Fans needing assistance should text HOGS <space> your issue and location to 69050. Standard text message rates and other charges may apply. Razorback fans are reminded that they can contact the nearest usher or security personnel, or stop by the nearest guest services location to report an issue.

SMOKING/TOBACCO FREE

The University of Arkansas is a tobacco-free campus. This means no cigarettes, pipes, cigars, dip or chew anywhere on campus and includes no stadium exiting for tobacco use outside the stadium. Additionally, violations of the State of AR Clean Air Act of 2009, which applies to smoking, may result in a fine.

FAN CODE OF CONDUCT

Razorback fans are the best of the best. They model this by loudly supporting the Razorbacks and displaying respect and good sportsmanship toward the visiting team and visiting fans. The NCAA, SEC and UA have assigned a high priority to assuring athletic events are conducted in a safe and enjoyable atmosphere which promotes good sportsmanship by spectators, student-athletes and coaches. We request your cooperation by supporting the participants, officials, those around you and event management in a positive manner and treating others with courtesy and respect. Refrain from throwing objects onto the field for any reason. Do not enter the playing areas at any time, unless directed to do so in an emergency situation, including after-game celebrations.

RAZORBACK SPORT PROPERTIES

The University of Arkansas Athletic Department and IMG are in their sixth year of a powerful partnership that created Razorback Sports Properties. As the multimedia rights-holder, Razorback Sports Properties is responsible for the corporate marketing and advertising for all 19 sports.

RAZORBACK SPORTS PROPERTIES

Along with corporate branding through the Razorbacks, RSP also creates new programming and publications for Razorback fans. They continue to expand the coverage of the Razorback Sports Network. This statewide radio network, consisting of 50+ affiliates, covers all of Arkansas and parts of all six surrounding states.

The official radio and television shows of Razorback Football continue to grow in attendance and viewership. The radio show is held weekly at the Catfish Hole and is aired live on the Razorback Sports Network. The official television show is aired statewide on Sunday nights and regionally throughout the week during football season.

Inside Razorback Athletics, the official newspaper of Razorback Athletics, continues to give Razorback fans a behind the scenes look into the University of Arkansas Athletic Department.

CHUCK BARRETT — PLAY-BY-PLAY

Barrett is entering his seventh season as the play-by-play announcer for the Razorbacks and as a member of the Athletic Department staff, but he's no stranger to Arkansas fans or the Razorback Sports Network broadcast team. This is his 19th year on the broadcast crew, including spending 12 years as the executive producer. Prior to taking over play-by-play responsibilities in the 2007 season, his duties included hosting the pre-game show, halftime and scoreboard shows, and the football version of the Razorback Report. He has also worked as the play-by-play man for baseball since Arkansas joined the SEC in 1992 and added men's basketball play-by-play to his duties prior to the 2010-11 season. Barrett was recognized by the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Hall of Fame as the 2007 and 2008 Arkansas Sportscaster of the Year.

KEITH JACKSON — COLOR ANALYST

Jackson is in his 14th season as a part of the broadcast team. The Little Rock native was a two-time All-American at Oklahoma, and a six-time Pro Bowl and three-time All-Pro selection, playing in the NFL with Philadelphia, Miami and Green Bay, and winning a Super Bowl championship with the Packers. Jackson has worked as an analyst for TNT and FOX Sports network telecasts.

QUINN GROVEY — CO-HOST AND SIDELINE REPORTER

Grovey is in his 16th year on the broadcast team. The former Hog quarterback is a co-host of the pre-game and post-game shows, and provides insight during games as a sideline reporter. Grovey is a regional personnel manager for Home Depot.

RICK SCHAEFFER — CO-HOST

Schaeffer is in his 20th year with Razorback football. He was the color analyst for 10 seasons and is now, along with Grovey, a co-host. Schaeffer worked in the UA Sports Information Department for 24 years, 21 of those years serving as director. Rick is the communication director for the Springdale School District, co-host of Drive Time

The YOU of A

The University of Arkansas provides a student-centered learning experience focused on research, innovation and outreach as a part of educating future leaders. Consistently ranked among the top public universities and best values in the U.S., the U of A is classified among the top two percent of institutions nationwide with the highest possible level of research activity.

The university's 25,000 students represent all 50 states and more than 120 countries. The U of A has 10 colleges and schools offering more than 210 academic programs — while maintaining a low student-to-faculty ratio that promotes personal attention and mentoring opportunities.

Founded in 1871, the university is the oldest publicly supported institution in the state and is the flagship of the University of Arkansas System. The U of A campus features distinctive architecture, including its signature building, Old Main, finished in 1875. The iconic building now houses the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences. The college is named in honor of former U of A President (and, later, U.S. Senator) J. William Fulbright, who helped create the prestigious international scholarship and fellowship programs that bear his name.

The university promotes undergraduate research in virtually every discipline and has an outstanding national reputation in many areas, including agriculture, architecture, business, creative writing, engineering, high-density electronics and nanoscience, as well as sustainability and environmental sciences. Programs such as Supply Chain Management, Rehabilitation Counseling, Industrial Engineering and Biological and Agricultural Engineering rank among the best in the country.

The University of Arkansas offers a vibrant campus life that is culturally, intellectually and socially enriching. On our campus you'll find more than 300 registered student organizations, from special interest to professional groups, as well as 33 Greek organizations, making it easy and rewarding to get involved. Every semester offers opportunities to attend musical performances, theater productions, art exhibits, concerts, free films, poetry readings, visiting speakers and hundreds of other varied events.

Visit arkansas.edu for more information about the University of Arkansas.

HISTORIC SENIOR WALK

As you make your way around campus, you're sure to notice something unique about many of the sidewalks. Historic Senior Walk showcases the names of more than 150,000 University of Arkansas graduates, grouped by year of graduation. Senior Walk is the university's longest tradition in both length and years. It's concrete proof of the university's commitment to students.

Senior Walk is also a perfect example of how the University of Arkansas celebrates its history and traditions while focusing on innovations for the future. When the costs involved in hand-etching names into concrete forced numerous other universities to give up, the U of A turned to its physical plant and engineering school grads to create a one-of-a-kind computerized sandblasting machine: the SandHog. Each summer, the SandHog roars across campus etching the names of new graduates into sidewalks.

BEYOND CAMPUS

Fayetteville is routinely considered among the country's finest college towns and the surrounding Northwest Arkansas region is regularly ranked one of the best places to live in the U.S. You'll find a number of attractions that will contribute to a rich college experience.

Three of America's largest corporations have their world headquarters in the region: Walmart, Tyson Foods and J.B. Hunt Transportation, Inc. Their close proximity to the U of A campus, along with their executives' and employees' active involvement in university life, offers students and faculty exceptional opportunities for research partnerships, internships, and post-graduation employment.

Arkansas is a natural wonder of forests, mountains and lakes framed by picturesque rivers and streams. Some of the nation's best outdoor amenities and most spectacular hiking trails are within a short drive of campus.

OLD MAIN

One of the original buildings on Arkansas' campus, Old Main symbolizes the strong connection to the past and the focus upon the future which come together in the present at the University of Arkansas. Completed in 1875, Old Main stood the test of time until the mid-1980s when age and modern building codes threatened to send it to the wrecking ball as had happened to its sister building at the University of Illinois. A major fund-raising campaign by alumni totally renovated Old Main. Reopening in 1992, the building maintains the feel of a Victorian-era building with high ceilings and elaborate wooden trim. Just below the surface of the period hardwood floors, Old Main is hard-wired to the internet and built to last well into its second century.

Even with renovation, Old Main remained unfinished until 2005. One of the gifts during the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century specified the installation of a clock, originally planned for the blank faces of the south tower.

As mentioned, Old Main was built from shared plans with its counterpart on the Illinois campus, with one important difference. The north tower of Arkansas' Old Main is taller than the south tower. Legend says this was symbolic of the Civil War as the lead engineer was a northern veteran.

Chancellor Dr. G. David Gearhart

Dr. G. David Gearhart became the chancellor of the University of Arkansas on July 1, 2008. Before that he served for 10 years as vice chancellor for university advancement. In that position he oversaw the most successful capital campaign in Arkansas history, the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century, which raised more than $1 billion. The Campaign transformed the U of A in many ways including substantial increases in faculty fellowships and student scholarships, as well as major capital improvements, and the creation of the Honors College.

As Chancellor, Dr. Gearhart implemented a $350 million campus building renovation and refurbishment plan, as well as a campus-wide energy savings plan. Dr. Gearhart also developed a major cost savings program that has already resulted in over $42 million in cost reduction and savings for the flagship campus. Campus enrollment has also grown by nearly 6,000 students in the past five years and the fall 2013 enrollment is expected to exceed 25,000 students for the first time in school history. At the same time, diversity in the student body has increased significantly.

A Fayetteville native, Dr. Gearhart received his bachelor of arts degree from Westminster College in Missouri. He earned his law degree and his doctor of education degree at the University of Arkansas.

Before joining the U of A administration he served as senior vice president of Penn State University, during which time he was named a Fulbright Scholar, studying at Oxford University in Oxford, England. He and his wife Jane have been married for 38 years and have two children and three grandchildren.

DR. SHARON HUNT

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Chancellor G. David Gearhart appointed Dr. Sharon Hunt to be the faculty athletics representative (FAR) for the University of Arkansas in August 2010.

Dr. Hunt is the first woman and non-lawyer to hold the post. Dr. Hunt has been on the University of Arkansas faculty since 1990, and she served as the department head of the recently renamed Department of Health, Human Performance and Recreation from July 1, 1990 until June 30, 2011 except for the 2000-01 academic year, when she served as the interim dean of the College of Education and Health Professions. On June 30, 2011 Dr. Hunt stepped down as department head and returned to the faculty at the rank of Professor giving her more time to devote to the FAR position.

A high school athlete, Hunt's involvement with collegiate athletics dates back to her own college days at the University of Arkansas when she played extramural sports with the women's basketball and tennis teams prior to the enactment of Title IX. After receiving her bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from the university, she went on to earn a Doctor of Education degree from the University of Georgia, where she taught a variety of undergraduate courses as a graduate assistant. Upon the completion of her doctoral degree, she joined the faculty of the University of Kentucky for 13 years, where she taught both undergraduate and graduate courses and served as the graduate coordinator for the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation. In 1990, she and her family returned to Fayetteville.

The FAR's responsibilities lie in three broad areas: academic integrity within the athletics program, student-athlete well-being, and institutional control of the athletics program. Dr. Hunt is involved in the student-athlete advisory council on campus and chairs the Academic Credential Review Committee and Athletic's Academic Integrity Committee, and serves as an ex-officio member of the Faculty Athletics Committee. In addition, she travels to represent the University of Arkansas at various SEC and NCAA meetings.

Dr. Hunt was instrumental in establishing the graduate athletic training education program in the College of Education and Health Professions, and she has worked closely with athletics on that program. The athletics department provides support to students in the athletic training education program in the form of a stipend, books and travel to the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association annual meeting. Two endowed scholarships for athletic training students in honor of longtime Razorback trainers Dean Weber and the late Bill Ferrell were established through the athletics department. Dr. Hunt has been married to David Hunt since 1973, and they have an adult son and daughter as well as one grandson and granddaughter.

Jeff Long

VICE CHANCELLOR AND DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Entering his sixth full year as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics, Jeff Long has helped transform the University of Arkansas' Department of Intercollegiate Athletics into one of the most successful and nationally respected programs in the country. Along the way, Long has gained national attention and earned numerous awards for his progressive leadership of a program encompassing 19 sports and more than 460 student-athletes.

Long leads a comprehensive athletics program committed to the development of student-athletes academically, athletically and socially. A member of Chancellor G. David Gearhart's Executive Committee, Long is helping to chart the course for the future of higher education at the University of Arkansas while integrating Razorback Athletics into the campus community.

Long's leadership and unwavering commitment to the student-athletes and maintaining integrity within intercollegiate athletics has not gone unnoticed. In 2013, Long was named as an Under Armour Athletics Director of the Year for the Football Bowl Subdivision. In 2012, Long was named a finalist for the SportsBusiness Journal and SportsBusiness Daily Athletic Director of the Year. In the spring of 2012, the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation and longtime chairman Fred W. Smith made a combined gift of more than $1.25 million to the program in recognition of Long's leadership of Razorback Athletics.

In each of the past four years, Razorback Athletics has transferred funds totaling more than $1 million to support the university's academic mission. The department's total support of university and student programs and initiatives includes $1.9 million in direct funding of academic programs. In 2012, Razorback Athletics committed an additional $1.2 million annually to help fund a new classroom and laboratory building to serve the entire University of Arkansas student population.

In Long's tenure, Arkansas has captured 15 conference championships and advanced to 81 post-season competitions, including the school's first Bowl Championship Series appearance in football and a national title at the 2013 NCAA Men's Indoor Track and Field Championships. In 2012-13, Arkansas finished No. 21 in the Learfield Sports Directors Cup, a year-long competition ranking the nation's most successful intercollegiate athletic programs, marking the fifth time in the past six years the Razorbacks have finished in the top 25.

In the classroom, the Razorbacks continue to set new standards including posting a school record student-athlete grade point average of 3.09 in 2012-13. It marked the fifth consecutive year Razorback student-athletes posted a GPA exceeding 3.0. In 2013, for the first time in history, Arkansas exceeded the national APR multi-year rate in all 19 sports and had a record five teams earn NCAA Public Recognition awards. Graduation success rates continue to rise with a total of 94 current or former Razorback student-athletes graduating in 2012-13.

Student-athlete development has also been a priority including the establishment of the Razorback Leadership Academy, the first of its kind in the Southeastern Conference. In the community, Razorback student-athletes are more active than ever volunteering more than 6,500 hours of time for more various agencies, organizations and schools around the state.

One of the nation's most active athletic directors on Twitter, Long embraces the opportunity to interact with members of the Razorback Nation whether in person or through social media.

Long was selected to replace legendary athletic director and former Razorback football coach Frank Broyles and even before he officially took the reins on Jan. 1, 2008, Arkansas announced that it would combine its previously independent men's and women's athletic programs into one combined athletic program. Long adeptly blended the men's and women's athletic departments into one unified department and established a new administrative structure.

Long has also worked tirelessly to maintain long-time relationships and to forge new relationships for the benefit of the Razorback program including extending Arkansas' relationship with War Memorial Stadium and partnering with former Razorback Jerry Jones to develop the Southwest Classic, a football series with Texas A&M played at the spectacular Cowboys Stadium.

Under Long's leadership, the program has fortified its financial standing ensuring more support for the development of student-athletes.

According to USA Today, Arkansas is one of only 23 financially self-sustaining Division I-A athletic programs in the nation.

As economic indicators were beginning to point toward challenging economic times, Long signed Arkansas to a deal with IMG College to form Razorback Sports Properties that guarantees the Razorback program $73 million during the course of the decade-long agreement.

Long also negotiated an extensive all sports apparel and footwear agreement with NIKE, Inc. that will outfit all 19 Razorback sports programs through the 2014-15 season. In December 2012, Forbes Magazine estimated the value of the Razorback Football program at $83 million, ranking the University of Arkansas in the top 10 nationally for the second consecutive year.

In 2010, Long moved to help meet the growing financial needs of fielding a nationally competitive all sports program. The athletic department launched the "Answer the Call" campaign through the Razorback Foundation which resulted in more than 2,600 new members and helped generate more than $6.5 million in additional support for Razorback student-athletes. In 2012, Long guided the program to a record breaking fundraising year further bolstering Arkansas' financial strength.

With an eye towards the future, Long commissioned a comprehensive plan to assess the future facility needs of the program. Unveiled in October 2011, the Razorback Athletic Facilities Master Plan provided a vision and the road map for $320 million of facility renovations and additions that will help all 19 Razorback sports remain competitive in the Southeastern Conference and nationally over the next 30 years. The first major project from the master plan, the $40 million Fred W. Smith Football Center, opened in the summer of 2013. Three other facilities, a Student-Athlete Success Center, a basketball indoor practice facility and a baseball and track indoor training facility have all been approved and are moving forward to construction. As part of the next step in the plan, a market and cost analysis study is being conducted on a potential north end zone expansion to Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

According to a recent economic impact study, Razorback Athletics will have an estimated economic impact of more than $1 billion in the next five years. The study estimated that Razorback Athletics generates $153.6 million annually to the region's economy including the benefits of drawing more than a million fans annually to campus to cheer on the Razorbacks. Planned athletic construction during the course of the next five years will generate another $239.7 million.

A veteran administrator with a track record of the highest commitment to the concept of "student-athlete," Long has had more than two decades of experience in athletic administration at the Division I level including at the University of Pittsburgh, University of Oklahoma, University of Michigan, Virginia Tech University, Eastern Kentucky University and Rice University. Long also understands the coach's perspective from time spent in coaching staff positions at Duke University, University of Michigan and North Carolina State University.

His experience as an athletic director and administrator in five of the six Bowl Championship Series conferences – the Big 12, Big Ten, Big East, Atlantic Coast and SEC - gives Long a uniquely informed perspective on intercollegiate athletics.

On the forefront of NCAA governance, Long has served on the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA's Sports Wagering Task Force and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association. Long currently serves on the NCAA Championships/Sports Management Cabinet.

Prior to assuming his current roles at Arkansas, Long served for four years as the athletic director at the University of Pittsburgh. Long redefined Pitt athletics, most notably through the "Quest for Excellence" campaign that raised nearly $34 million to enhance the student-athlete experience. During his tenure the Panthers' were selected as the No. 17 overall program in the nation in the December 2006 Sports Illustrated on Campus' All-Sport Rankings.

Before arriving at Pitt, Long was senior associate athletic director at Oklahoma for two and a half years overseeing external affairs for the Sooners. In addition, Long was the primary administrator for the Sooners' highly successful football and men's basketball programs, along with sport supervision of baseball, wrestling and both golf teams.

Long's first appointment as a director of athletics was at Eastern Kentucky where he served for two and a half years. Prior to Eastern, Long had a brief stay with Virginia Tech as an associate athletics director.

He began his career in college athletic administration at Michigan, hired by legendary coach and athletics director, the late Bo Schembechler. During his seasons with the Wolverines, Long was promoted through a series of posts to the position of associate athletics director.

A former two-sport athlete at Ohio Wesleyan, Long earned seven varsity letters for the Bishops in football and baseball before completing his degree in economics in 1982. He started his post-graduate career in athletics working on head coach Tom Reed's staff as a graduate assistant football coach at the cradle of coaches, Miami University of Ohio. Long earned his master's in education at Miami in 1983, moving on to football staff positions at Rice, Duke and N.C. State prior to joining Michigan.

An Ohio native from Kettering, Long is married to the former Fanny Gellrich of Ann Arbor, Mich. The Longs have two daughters, Stephanie and Christina.

BEV LEWIS

Associate Vice Chancellor & Executive Associate Athletic Director

Bev Lewis has served the University of Arkansas and its Razorback athletic programs for more than three decades.

The former women's athletic director prior to the department merger in 2007-08, Lewis now serves as the associate vice chancellor and executive associate athletic director.

Lewis is the coordinator of a five-member sport administrator group that provides day-to-day administrative support for each of Arkansas' 19 sports. Lewis is the sport administrator for men's and women's cross country, men's and women's track and field, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, softball and volleyball. In addition, Lewis oversees and coordinates the Razorback Performance Team, including the strength and conditioning, nutrition, psychology, athletic training and sports medicine programs. She also serves as a liaison to the faculty senate and the faculty athletic committee, and coordinates the department's Title IX compliance and strategic planning as well as assists with fundraising.

The largest portion of her service to the university was her 19-year tenure as the Director of Women's Athletics. As a result of her strong emphasis on the classroom, Razorback female student-athletes received numerous academic honors including national academic All-American of the year, team academic national titles and the university's first two SEC/H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athletes of the Year. To increase athletic participation for women at Arkansas, she also oversaw the addition of four sports at the university turning her tenure-volleyball, golf, gymnastics and softball and each team went on to become nationally competitive.

Her leadership was also a part of the success of the university's Campaign for the Twenty-First Century. Lewis directed Women's Athletics to over $11.5 million in direct support for women's teams. During the campaign, Lewis received one of her greatest personal honors as Bob and Marilyn Bogle requested that Arkansas' new facility be named the Bev Lewis Center for Women's Athletics. In 1998, she was voted into the University Of Arkansas Hall Of Honor.

Lewis served collegiate athletics at the highest level as an administrator, as a member of the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA Championship Cabinet and the Southeastern Conference Executive Committee. Prior to assuming the duties of AD, Lewis was women's cross country and track coach. Her Arkansas coaching milestones included the first women's team to achieve a national ranking, first team ranked in the top 10 and the first women's team to win a conference championship.

Lewis earned her bachelor's degree from Central Michigan in 1979 and followed it with her master's from Purdue prior to her arrival at Arkansas in 1981. The former Bev Rouse is married to Harley Lewis.

JON FAGG

Senior Associate Athletic Director for Administration and Governance

Jon Fagg joined the University of Arkansas in June of 2008. He is a member of the senior management group and assists the Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics in the daily administration of the department. Fagg serves as the sport administrator for football and men's basketball. He also has oversight of the university's compliance program and Office of Student-Athlete Success, which encompasses academic support, student-athlete development and career development services for Razorback student-athletes.

Fagg came to Arkansas after spending seven years at North Carolina State. Hired in March 2001, he served four and half years as an assistant athletics director for compliance before being promoted to associate athletics director for compliance in the fall of 2005. While with the Wolfpack, Fagg's responsibilities included coordinating all aspects of the NCAA compliance program, including rules education for intercollegiate staff and related university personnel, and advisement, education and interpretations regarding NCAA rules and regulations. He also served as sport administrator for the wrestling and women's soccer programs.

Prior to his tenure at North Carolina State, Fagg spent three years as the assistant athletics director for compliance at Fresno State. He also served one year as director of compliance for the Big South Conference. His first athletics administrative experience came at Mars Hill College where he handled compliance duties as well as serving as an assistant coach for the football team for three seasons. His coaching experience also includes a stint as an assistant coach at Davidson from February 1992 to June 1993 and as a GA coach at his alma mater, the University of Arizona, from January 1991 to February 1992.

Fagg and his wife Amanda have three children: Jon Madison and twins, Reed and Ellie.

MATT TRANTHAM

Senior Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations

Matt Trantham joined the University of Arkansas in 2008 as the senior associate athletic director for internal operations. He oversees all Razorback facilities and events.

With this role, Trantham has overseen the Razorback Athletics Facilities Master Plan recently unveiled in October 2011. Additionally he serves as administrative supervisor for the new Fred W. Smith Football Center completed during the Summer of 2013. Additional projects forthcoming as part of the Master Plan will be a Student-Athlete Success Center, a basketball practice facility and a baseball and track indoor training facility with design/constructions teams recently approved by the Board of Trustees in Sept. 2012.

He is also facilitating the current Market and Cost Analysis on a future expansion of the North End Zone in Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium. Other projects supervised have been the $2.5 million renovation of Bud Walton Arena in 2008, the $1.3 million installation of synthetic playing surface and $1.2 million installation of ribbon boards at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback stadium in 2009, expansion of Razorback soccer team facilities in 2011 and $4.6 million installation of new video displays at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback stadium prior to the 2012 season. Prior to joining Arkansas, Trantham began his career with the University of Oklahoma in July 1999 as the promotions director for the athletic department where he worked with all 20 of OU's teams. He was named assistant athletic director for event management in 2004 and was promoted to associate athletic director in 2006.

Prior to joining the Sooners, Trantham spent five seasons in professional sports in Washington, D.C. Trantham earned his bachelor's of science degree in business management from Centenary College in 1990 and a master's degree in sports management from the United States Sports Academy in 1998.

Trantham and wife Kristen are parents of two sons, Will and Davis, and two daughters, Morgan and Paige.

CLAYTON HAMILTON

Senior Associate Athletic Director and Chief Financial Officer

Clayton Hamilton joined the University of Arkansas in January 2010 and serves in the role of Senior Associate Athletics Director and Chief Financial Officer with oversight of the athletic department's financial affairs, business operations, contracts, human resources, payroll and retail store operations. Hamilton serves as a member of the department's Executive Staff, Senior Administrative Staff, Sport Administrator Group and Bowl Management Committee.

While at Arkansas, Hamilton has managed the financial affairs and business operations for all of Razorback Athletics, which includes revenues that now approach $100 million on an annual basis, and which represents one of the few financially self-sustaining athletic programs in all of college athletics. In addition, he has managed the financial planning for the department's facility master plan, which includes $98 million of projects that have been completed or are currently in progress. Hamilton also serves as an adjunct professor in the university's sports management program.

Prior to joining Arkansas, Hamilton spent three years as Associate Athletics Director for Business for the Colorado Buffalos and six years in various financial management positions for the Florida State Seminoles. Hamilton also has experience working in professional sports with both the Dallas Cowboys and Cleveland Cavaliers, and in corporate finance with the former Little Rock-based ALLTEL Corporation.

He is an active member of the College Athletic Business Management Association, having served most recently as president in 2009, and has served on various NCAA strategic task forces. He is also a past recipient of the College Athletic Business Manager of the Year Award, and was recognized within the State of Arkansas in 2011 as one of Northwest Arkansas' Top Forty Under 40. Hamilton also serves on the Board of Directors for the Walton Arts Center Foundation.

A native of Little Rock, Ark., Hamilton graduated from the University of Arkansas in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in accounting. He obtained a master's degree in sports management from the United States Sports Academy in 1997 and his CPA certification from the State of Arkansas in 1998.

Hamilton and his wife Stephanie have two daughters, Lauren and Caylee.

MICHAEL WADDELL

Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Operations and Strategic Communications

Michael Waddell joined the Razorback Athletic Department in June 2013 as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for External Operations and Strategic Communications.

Waddell joins the athletic department's senior leadership team and oversees the department's external areas including marketing, licensing, media relations, public relations, ticket operations and RazorVision. He is also the department's liaison with the new SEC Network leading the program's strategic engagement with the new television channel and digital platform.

Prior to joining Arkansas, Waddell served as the Director of Athletics at Towson University. At Towson, Waddell was the lead administrator for the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) program which captured a record seven CAA Championships in 2012-13 and recorded the biggest one-year turnaround in NCAA men's basketball history. Waddell also positioned Towson as one of the country's most progressive programs in the areas of marketing, communications and corporate sponsorships, including naming rights for Towson's new 5,200-seat SECU Arena, which opened in June 2013, and a new multi-year footwear and apparel agreement with Baltimore-based Under Armour.

Prior to being named the athletic director at Towson, Waddell spent five years as a senior associate athletic director for external relations at the University of Cincinnati. At Cincinnati, Waddell's primary responsibility was to oversee the revenue generating areas that included marketing/fan development, ticket sales/customer service, sports communications, game day programming, and information technology. He coordinated all of Cincinnati's football bowl planning, including back-to-back BCS Bowl Appearances in 2009 (FedEx Orange Bowl) and 2010 (Allstate Sugar Bowl).

Prior to his Cincinnati assignment, Waddell served as the associate athletics director for external relations at the University of Akron where sports marketing revenues increased more than five-fold during his tenure through the creation of the "Team Akron" corporate patron program. Waddell served as the Interim Director of Athletics at Akron in the Fall of 2005.

Before joining the Akron staff, Waddell served as the director of marketing and broadcasting at the United States Military Academy at West Point where he was responsible for the development of all athletics corporate partnerships, marketing, promotions and multimedia development.

From 1991-2000 Waddell, a North Carolina native, was a play-by-play broadcaster at the University of North Carolina Tar Heel Sports Network (1991-94), and at the University of Virginia Sports Network (1994-97) followed by a stint as the "Voice of the Mountaineers" and Director of External Operations at Appalachian State University from 1997-2000.

Waddell received his B.S. degree in Sport Management from Guilford College in 1991, where he was also a two-time letterwinner in football. He earned his master's degree in sport administration from Ohio University in 2010. Waddell is an active member of NACDA.

He and his wife, Heidi, have two children, Drew and Caroline.

BYRON HATCH

Associate AD for Business

Byron Hatch joined the Razorback Athletics Department in July 2012 as the Associate Athletic Director for Business after seven years at the NCAA. His areas of responsibility include contract administration and oversight of procurement, travel, equipment and camp operations.

Hatch, a native of Humphrey, Ark., earned his undergraduate degree in accounting from the University of Central Arkansas (UCA) and a law degree from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock (UALR). As the NCAA's associate director of the Division I men's basketball championship (2007-11) and then the director of championships and alliances (2011-12), Hatch served as a liaison to the Division I men's basketball committee and championship hosts assisting with the planning and conducting of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Tournament. Hatch was responsible for the financial administration of the championship and helped oversee the site selection process. He also was responsible for the supervision of NCAA officiating responsibilities for the championship, including serving as the liaison to the National Coordinator of Men's Basketball Officiating. Hatch also worked with the NCAA Corporate and Broadcast Alliances staff to coordinate NCAA corporate champions' and partners' exposure and marketing opportunities throughout the championship.

Prior to his work in the championships and alliances division, Hatch worked in the NCAA's Department of Academic and Membership Affairs as a coordinator (2005), assistant director (2005-07) and associate director (2007). Hatch and his wife Marla have two daughters, McKinley and Brooklyn.

CHRIS POHL

Associate AD for Events

A former championships director for the NCAA, Chris Pohl joined Arkansas in 2002 to manage marketing and promotion for the women's sports after 11 years at the NCAA. Pohl moved into event management in 2008 and oversees the event management department which coordinates all Guest Services and Special Events as well as all home and postseason events for the Razorbacks. In 2012, Pohl assumed sport administrator duties for soccer as well. Her primary sport event management responsibilities include football, men's basketball, soccer and swimming and diving. Pohl and her staff prepare and monitor budgets for events, work with service departments including facilities, custodial services and grounds, handle game management responsibilities for all on-campus athletic events; ensuring all aspects of the facilities are ready for competition and spectator hosting, coordinate fan services for game and event management including marketing and promotions, parking services, public safety, law enforcement, life safety/emergency responders, merchandising, concessions, and other aspects of creating a first class spectator experience.

A 1981 graduate of Central Michigan and basketball letterwinner, she earned her master's in 1984 from Penn State.

BRIAN PRACHT

Associate AD for Marketing

Brian Pracht joined the University of Arkansas Athletic Department staff as the Associate Athletic Director for Marketing and Licensing in July 2010.

His responsibilities at Arkansas include overseeing marketing, promotions, ticket operations, RazorVision Productions, website development, social media and spirit squads while also serving as the staff liaison to the university's multi-media rights holder (IMG College/Razorback Sports Properties) and outbound ticket sales team (IMG Learfield Ticket Solutions). He is a member of the athletic department's executive staff. Pracht also directs the university's trademark licensing program, which currently ranks in the top 10 for gross revenue production among all Collegiate Licensing Company partners.

With more than 18 years of experience in intercollegiate athletics, Pracht joined the Razorback staff following seven years at Wichita State where he was the senior associate athletics director for external operations managing all development, marketing, sales, ticketing and media relations activities.

Pracht graduated in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in business administration from Emporia State in Kansas. He and his wife Amy have two daughters, Caroline and Lily.

TRACEY MAYS STEHLIK

Associate AD for Compliance

Entering her 29th year with the University of Arkansas, Tracey Mays Stehlik serves as the Associate Athletic Director for Compliance for Razorback Athletics. In addition, she is a member of the sport administrator's group, overseeing women's basketball, men's and women's tennis and swimming and diving.

Stehlik began her career as an assistant women's basketball coach with the Razorbacks and was a part of the staff that won the only women's hoops conference championships at Arkansas. As an assistant coach, she recruited some of the greatest players in UA history, including former All-American Delmonica DeHorney, and helped lead Arkansas to back-to-back Southwest Conference titles.

She left the court and moved into athletic administration in 1995 and was promoted to associate athletic director for compliance in 1997. Stehlik's duties included the oversight of compliance, eligibility, academics and event management for the then-separate women's athletics department. Among her numerous areas of responsibility, Stehlik has served as the meet director for several SEC and NCAA events, including the NCAA Indoor Championships from 2003 to 2008, and the 2009 NCAA Gymnastics Regional meet. Stehlik moved into her current role when the Razorback Athletic Departments unified in 2008. As the associate athletic director for compliance, Stehlik is responsible for the oversight of all areas of compliance including eligibility, financial aid and the student-athlete opportunity fund. She oversees the day-to-day office operations and its staff and has been a leader in the on-going compliance educational efforts for the department.

A 1982 graduate of Alabama-Birmingham with a degree in communications, Stehlik has the distinction of scoring the first point in UAB women's basketball history as a member of the first Blazer team. She earned her master's degree in athletic administration at the University of Kansas where she served as a graduate assistant basketball coach from 1983 to 1985. Stehlik and her husband Wayne have two daughters, Mollie and Maggie, who both attend the University of Arkansas. Wayne is the director of athletics for the Springdale (Ark.) public schools.

KEVIN TRAINOR

Associate AD for Public Relations

In his 19th year at Arkansas, Kevin Trainor is in his sixth year as associate athletic director and his fourth as the head of the department's Public Relations department after being promoted from his previous role in media relations. Trainor coordinates the department's executive and crisis management communications and works as a department liaison with University Relations, the National Football Foundation and other external organizations. He is in charge of producing the department's annual report and serves as executive editor of Inside Razorback Athletics. He also serves as the sports administrator and game day event manager for baseball.

Trainor was a nearly 20-year veteran in the media relations office before assuming his current role including 10 years as the sports information director and Associate Athletic Director for Sports Information overseeing publicity for all 19 Razorback sport programs including football.

During his tenure in that position, Arkansas boasted nine All-Americans, including 2006 and 2007 Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden, 2007 Rimington Trophy winner

Jonathan Luigs and 2003 Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award finalist Shawn Andrews.

As associate SID, Trainor worked closely with football and served as the primary contact for the 2000 SEC Tournament champion Arkansas basketball squad. He also served as the color analyst on the Razorback Baseball Radio Network for five years.

A university graduate in journalism in 1994, he earned his master's at Arkansas in 2005. He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) and the U.S. Basketball Writers Association of America (USBWAA). Trainor is also a member of the Public Relations Society of America (PRSA) and is on the board of directors of the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame.

Trainor has been selected to serve as the press conference moderator at several major events including SEC Football Media Days and the SEC Football Championship Game.

Trainor and his wife, the former Ruth Whitehead, are the parents of two daughters, Emma and Ellie.

ERIC A. WOOD

Associate AD for Student-Athlete Services

Eric A. Wood joined the university in 2009, and is responsible for the oversight of student-athlete services including academic support, life skills and career development programs that contribute to the personal growth and character development of more than 460 Razorback student-athletes.

Other responsibilities include housing, student conduct, student-athlete appearance requests, drug testing administration, coordinator of diversity initiatives and the liaison to Student Affairs. Wood, a member of the athletics department senior staff, was promoted to Associate Athletic Director in July 2011 and currently serves on the departments Executive Staff.

Wood and his wife Celia have two daughters, Eliana Jewel and Nia Reese.

ZACK HIGBEE

Assistant AD for Media Relations

Zack Higbee is in his fifth year at the University of Arkansas. Higbee joined the Razorback staff in January of 2009 as Associate Director of Media Relations. In August of 2010, he was promoted to Director of Football Media Relations and he was elevated again to his current position in February of 2013.

Previously, he worked at Florida, UConn and Oklahoma.

Higbee's role includes media relations office oversight and he oversees media relations operations for the Razorback football program as well as serving as the primary media contact for the athletic department. In his media relations career, Higbee successfully promoted the first underclassman ever to win the Heisman Trophy as well as winners of the Maxwell Award (2007 and 2008), Sullivan Award (2007), Davey O'Brien Award (2007), ESPY for Best Male College Athlete (2007 and 2008), Manning Award (2008), Disney Spirit Award (2008 and 2010), Mackey Award (2010) and the inaugural Johnny Rodgers Award (2011). He has also been one of the primary contacts for football teams that have appeared in three BCS games including the 2007 and 2009 BCS National Championship Games and the 2011 Sugar Bowl.

Higbee joined the Razorbacks after working the previous six and a half years as one of the primary football contacts at the University of Florida. While at Florida, Higbee coordinated the football game-day operations for the media relations office. His duties included press box set up, supervising gameday staff, production of notes packages and post-game press conference management.

Prior to working with the Gators, Higbee served as the assistant director of athletic communications at Connecticut. While with the Huskies, he was the second media contact for the 2002 Big East regular season and tournament champion men's basketball team as well as for football.

Higbee interned with the Huskies and had a brief stint in the Razorback media relations office after his graduation from Oklahoma in 2000 with a degree in communications. At OU, Higbee was also active in the sports information office as a student assistant.

Higbee is married to the former Jodi Smith and the two have one daughter, McKenna.

JUSTIN MALAND

Assistant AD for Facilities

Justin Maland joined the Razorbacks in 1999, moving into the assistant athletic director position in 2006. His areas of responsibility include oversight of all Razorback athletic facilities, including budgeting, game day operations, scheduling, upkeep, maintenance, long-range planning, daily facility operations, contracting services with outside vendors and coordination of special events.

Maland supervises a staff whose responsibilities include custodial and housekeeping, buildings, grounds and other service areas and oversees external events and facility operations on campus.

As Arkansas Athletics continues its growth and development, so do Maland's duties. He is currently working on the construction oversight of the Fred W. Smith Football Center scheduled for completion in the late summer 2013. In addition, Maland is overseeing the planning and design phase of several other construction projects outlined in the Razorback Athletics Department's Master Plan including an academic and dining center, track plaza expansion, basketball practice facility and the addition of seating in the football stadium.

Maland recently completed several renovations and upgrades to the video and ribbon boards for football and baseball as well as updates to the men's and women's basketball locker rooms.

The Harrison, Ark., native and former college student-athlete provides management services in all athletic facility renovation projects and construction management of all new projects including the state-of-the-art Fred W. Smith Football Center, part of the Athletic Department's Master Plan. One of Maland's recent projects is the installation of the new videoboard for Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

Maland is a 1999 graduate of Hendrix College and earned his master's degree in sports management at Arkansas in 2001.

Maland is married to the former Sarah Parnell of Booneville and they have three children, Macy, Jack and Addy.

MARK SCOBEY

Assistant AD for Ticket Operations

Charged with the supervision of ticket operations for all University of Arkansas Athletic department-related sporting events, Mark Scobey is in his 36th season with the Razorbacks. He was promoted to Assistant AD for Ticket Operations in August 2012.

During his tenure at the University of Arkansas, Scobey has assisted with ticket sales for a wide assortment of events on the Fayetteville campus, including SEC and NCAA championship events in baseball, softball, gymnastics, tennis and track. He has also been affiliated with 20 postseason football bowl games, the 1995, 2002 and 2006 SEC football championship games, and 23 postseason basketball tournament teams, including the 1978, 1990, 1994 and 1995 Final Four clubs.

In December 2011, Scobey began the transition with Paciolan Systems, Inc., to help implement Razorback E-Tickets, a new digital ticketing system for athletic events. The user friendly system allows fans to print their tickets at home and transfer their tickets to a friend when they cannot attend an event. The system is being used again this year for baseball at Baum Stadium, football at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium and basketball at Bud Walton Arena. The addition of on-line ticket sales is now 65% of ticket volume.

Scobey joined the UA athletic staff in 1977 as an assistant athletic ticket manager and became ticket manager in 1983. A native of Warren, Ark., Scobey lives in historic Eureka Springs.

FOOTBALL SUPPORT STAFF

CHUCK HALL

Head Equipment Manager

Chuck Hall is in his third season as Head Equipment Manager for the University of Arkansas' football team after joining the staff in May of 2011.

Hall handles the ordering, maintaining and distribution of equipment for the Razorback football team as well as coordinates with the coaching staff to ensure all required practice accessories are where they should be for appropriate drills and workouts. He came to Arkansas with experience in the National Football League as well as the Big 12 and Big East.

In his first season with the Razorbacks, he implemented a move to equip each player with a practice helmet and a game helmet while also improving helmet safety and fit for each player. He also oversaw a redesign of the equipment room to make it more functional for staff and players.

Before coming to Arkansas, Hall spent the previous two years at Kansas State, where he led the equipment department for head football coach Bill Snyder. Prior to working with the Wildcats, Hall served nine seasons at Louisville, including eight as director of equipment operations. Hall spent the 2000 season as Louisville's assistant equipment manager and was promoted prior to the 2001 season.

Hall worked as a student equipment manager at Kansas State from 1995-98 and was hired as a full-time assistant following his graduation. While he was a student, he also served a summer internship with the Washington Redskins and the San Diego Chargers.

He is married to the former Leslie Begshaw. The couple has one child, Averie.

MATT SUMMERS

Director of Athletic Training

Matt Summers, who spent four seasons as the Razorbacks' Head Athletic Trainer for Football, was promoted to Director of Athletic Training in February 2013.

In his role, Summers oversees all of Arkansas' athletic training department, leading the staff of full-time, graduate assistant and student athletic trainers. He also is in charge of developing and implementing health care policies and procedures for student-athletes, coordinating contractual agreements with health care providers that make up the Sports Medicine Team and managing the athletic training budget.

Summers also continues his duties with the football program. Along with the collaboration of team physicians, he is responsible for directly overseeing the health care of football student-athletes. He also develops, designs and implements strategies to prevent, treat and rehabilitate athletic and non-athletic related injuries.

Before coming to Arkansas, Summers spent the 2008-09 year as senior athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky. He was the director of rehabilitation, generated daily injury reports for coaches, supervised graduate assistants and students, was responsible for the budget and supplies and maintained injury records.

During the 2006 and 2007 football seasons, he was assistant athletic trainer for the NFL's San Diego Chargers. He conducted and monitored the rehabilitation program, monitored the field and communicated with the coaching staff during practices, managed inventory and budgeting and was responsible for the interviewing and hiring of summer students and seasonal interns. Following the 2007 season, Summers was a member of the 2008 AFC Pro Bowl Athletic Training staff.

He worked at the University of Louisville from 2003-06. Summers was a graduate assistant from May 2003 through June 2005 and assistant athletic trainer from 2005 until going to San Diego in 2006.

With the Cardinals, he assisted the head athletic trainer with the prevention, assessment and care of athletic injuries related to football, designed and implemented rehabilitation protocols and recruited and supervised graduate assistants and students. As a graduate assistant, his responsibilities included assisting in the design, implementation and documentation of rehabilitation protocols and supervising the student staff.

Summers began his career as a student athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky, where he worked with the football, men's basketball and men's tennis teams. He earned his bachelor's degree in education majoring in kinesiology from Kentucky in 2002 and his master's degree in health and wellness from Louisville in 2005. After graduating from Kentucky, he interned with the Chargers during the 2002 NFL season.

Summers is married to the former Kim Ahr and the couple has a son, Jonathan, and a daughter, Ashlyn.

RAGEAN HILL

Director of Football Academic Counseling

Ragean Hill joined the Razorbacks in May of 2013 as the Director of Football Academic Counseling.

Hill came to Fayetteville after spending more than six years at Kansas State as the Assistant Director of Student Support Programs for Intercollegiate Athletics. Hill was also the Program Director for Football Academic Services while at Kansas State. With the Wildcats, Hill supervised all academic counselors, monitored student athlete eligibility, and mentored student athletes. She also was responsible for the coordination and training of football academic services.

A graduate of Kansas State in 2002, Hill also received a master's degree from Kansas State in 2004. After working as a graduate assistant academic counselor at Kansas State, Hill joined the University of Nebraska as an academic counselor and coordinator of multicultural programs. She spent two years at Nebraska before taking a position at the University of Wisconsin as an Academic Advisor and the Director of Diversity and Inclusion.

KATIE RAINES

Nutritionist

Katie Raines, a registered dietitian, joined the Razorbacks in August of 2012 as a graduate assistant.

Raines is pursuing her doctorate degree in recreation and sport management from the University of Arkansas. She anticipates graduation in the spring of 2015.

As a member of the athletic department staff, Raines is responsible for counseling student-athletes from all 19 Razorback sports programs on optimal nutrition for training and competition. She provides personalized meal and snack plans to promote achieving short- and long-term goals for athletic performance, recommends appropriate pre-, during, and post-event fueling tactics, and counsels student-athletes on achieving and maintaining a level of body mass, body fat, and muscle mass that is consistent with good health and optimal performance.

Additionally, she is the athletic department's NCAA designee for nutritional supplements used by Razorback student-athletes.

Prior to working with the Razorbacks, Raines was a registered dietitian at Northwest Medical Center in Bentonville, Ark.

Raines received her bachelor of science in food, human nutrition, and hospitality with an emphasis in dietetics in 2008 and her master of science in kinesiology with an emphasis in Exercise Science in 2010 from the University of Arkansas. She completed her dietetic internship at UAMS/CAVHS in Little Rock, Ark.

RAZORBACK FOUNDATION

MISSION STATEMENT

The stated mission of the Razorback Foundation, Inc., is to support the athletic endeavors of the University of Arkansas Razorbacks. The Foundation assists our student-athletes by providing for scholarships, facilities and various programs that enable them to realize their dreams of achieving a quality college education while participating in athletics on a nationally competitive level.

ABOUT THE FOUNDATION

Performing the vital role of supporting the student-athletes at the University of Arkansas with financial support, the Razorback Foundation, Inc., is in its fourth decade of working alongside the athletic department to advance Razorback Athletics.

Over the past several years, with the support of our dedicated members, the Razorback Foundation has experienced dynamic growth in multiple areas. Our membership and annual fund dollars have continued to grow each year and this growth can be directly attributed to the passion and commitment of those who love the Razorbacks. Additionally, the Razorback Foundation played a role in securing Capital gifts, that resulted in the construction of the Fred W. Smith Football Center, which was completed in the summer of 2013.

The Foundation, officially incorporated and relocated off campus in 1988, has also helped provide financial aid for the construction and/or renovation of the Broyles Athletic Center (football and administrative offices), Charlie Baum Stadium at George Cole Field (baseball), John McDonnell Field (outdoor track and field), Randal Tyson Track Center (indoor track and field), Dills Indoor Tennis Center, the George M. Billingsley Tennis Center (outdoor), Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium (football) and Bogle Park (women's softball). In the future, as new facilities are planned and others enhanced, we will again need the support of all those who have a strong desire to provide the very best for our student-athletes and the University of Arkansas.

MEMBERSHIP LEVELS

The Razorback Foundation's Annual Fund offers a variety of exciting benefits and has several levels of giving, beginning at the $50 Razorback level and continuing up to Broyles-Matthews Scholarship Platinum at $20,000 or more.

For more information about giving levels, benefits and other giving opportunities, please contact us at 1-877-436-0013 or GoHogs@RazorbackFoundation.com. More information may also be found at RazorbackFoundation.com.

RAZORBACK FOUNDATION

In the early 1970s, the Razorback Scholarship Fund was established in an effort to create an innovative way for fans to support the athletic program while receiving benefits and recognition. Today, the Razorback Foundation still aims to provide funding necessary to help all student-athletes excel while providing rewarding benefits to our members.

By supporting Razorback Athletics and student-athletes through gifts to the Razorback Foundation, members demonstrate a commitment to reaching new heights while ensuring that the past is honored and the future is built upon continued excellence in achievement. Contributions help attract top student-athletes, coaches and thousands of dedicated fans to the University to cheer on the Hogs.

The Razorbacks are truly fortunate to have loyal, passionate fans to support our athletic programs and our student-athletes. Over the past several years, the Razorback Foundation has experienced tremendous growth thanks to the generosity of our approximately 13,000 members. The continued support of our members enables the Razorbacks to continually compete in the Southeastern Conference and on a national level.

RAZORBACK FOUNDATION, BY THE NUMBERS (SINCE JULY 1, 2012):

RAZORBACK CLUBS

Twenty-three Razorback Clubs uphold the mission of the Razorback Foundation throughout Arkansas and the surrounding states. These non-profit clubs hold regular meetings that feature University of Arkansas coaches, host fundraisers to support the Foundation and foster camaraderie among the Razorback Nation well beyond Northwest Arkansas.

The Razorback Foundation acknowledges the significant contributions to those who serve in volunteer leadership positions for our Razorback Clubs. The Presidents, and their boards, allow all of us to connect in a meaningful manner with those who love the Razorbacks and support the Razorback Foundation in so many ways. During the past year, these clubs combined to contribute more than $270,000 to the Razorback Foundation and allowed our coaches and staff to interact with over 13,500 people at 36 Razorback Club sponsored events.

A CLUB

The A Club is an exclusive organization for all former Razorback student-athletes. The A Club's purpose is to provide a way for all former Razorback student-athletes to remain in contact with their athletic program, coaches, teammates and University. The A Club encourages continued involvement and participation of its members in all activities relating to the University of Arkansas. The A Club hosts a number of events throughout the year which are designed to bring former student-athletes back to campus and to recognize individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the University of Arkansas.

The A Club thanks all members of the A Club, especially the former football players below who have gone above and beyond in the support of the A Club with lifetime memberships.

DONALD W. REYNOLDS RAZORBACK STADIUM

Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium (DWRRS), following a major expansion and renovation project completed prior to the 2001 season, gives the University of Arkansas one of the finest football facilities in the nation.

The $110 million project, which included a $20 million gift from the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation, saw the capacity of the stadium increased from 51,000 to 72,000.

The concrete and steel below the stands were completely enclosed with a brick and glass facade. In addition to covering the steel and concrete, the concourses are wider and concession areas and restrooms were replaced.

The east concourse is "Championship Alley" with displays of conference championships, the 1964 national title and every football letterman. The south end zone concourse is "All-American Alley" and is dedicated to Razorback All-Americans. The west concourse is "Bowl Alley" with tributes to each bowl team.

Other than the facade covering, the other most noticeable addition was the enclosure of the south end zone, which features chairback seating and the addition of approximately 7,300 total seats with space for an additional upper deck that would push the capacity to 80,000. The enclosure also includes a food court with space for five vendors.

Other major additions include an expanded press box, which includes Orville Henry Press Row, and the addition of luxury suites.

Sixty-eight suites/skyboxes were added, bringing the total to 132. The stadium's capacity includes 8,950 club seats, inside and out.

Other additions include the 15,000 square foot Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center and the 3,800 square foot Wilson Matthews A Club, both on the east side where an upper deck, which seats 6,500, was added along with enclosed premium club seating.

Arkansas unveiled a new video display in the north end zone scoreboard for the 2012 season. Built upon LSI's SMARTVISION® LED technology, the 16mm video display is currently the second-largest on-campus video display in the country. Measuring at nearly 38' x 167', nearly doubling the dimensions of the former video board, the display gives the stadium a true high definition video display area with the actual width exceeding HD resolution.

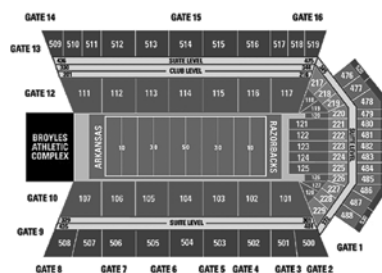

The stadium's debut came on Sept. 24, 1938 as Arkansas defeated Oklahoma A&M, 27-7. It was dedicated on Oct. 8 that year when the Razorbacks hosted Baylor.

Constructed as a Works Progress Administration project with an original capacity of 13,500, the facility was first enlarged upon the arrival of John Barnhill as athletic director in 1947 when an additional 2,500 seats were added to the north end of the east and west grandstands.

In 1950, a new press box was constructed and 5,200 more seats were built on the west side. A 5,200-seat addition to the east side was completed in 1957. Expansion projects in 1965 and 1969 increased capacity to 42,678 — a figure that held steady until a year of construction on additional seats and skyboxes brought the facility to 50,000 seats prior to the 1985 season.

Other improvements during the facility's 75-year history include the addition of AstroTurf in 1969 and the construction of the Broyles Athletic Center, which houses athletic administration, at the north end of the stadium in 1975. The Broyles Athletic Center underwent renovations, completed in 1994, while the playing surface was returned to natural grass in 1995 prior to the most recent change to synthetic turf prior to the 2009 season.

Arkansas' all-time record at DWRRS is 166-81-2 (.667). Prior to 1938, the Razorbacks played in a 300-seat stadium built in 1901 on land atop "The Hill," now occupied by Mullins Library and the Fine Arts Center.

FRANK BROYLES FIELD

Named for Arkansas' long-time head football coach and athletic director, Frank Broyles Field, located within Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, is the on-campus football playing field for the Arkansas Razorbacks.

Dedicated at halftime of the Arkansas-South Carolina game on Nov. 3, 2007, the on-field ceremony began with the legendary coach once again leading former Razorback football lettermen through the "A." The festivities included a surprise visit and narration from college football broadcasting legend and former Broyles' ABC Sports broadcasting partner Keith Jackson. The dedication culminated a memorable weekend that also included a reunion of former football lettermen spanning Coach Broyles' 19-year career as the Razorbacks' head football coach.

The Razorbacks capped the special evening with a 48-36 win over the No. 23 Gamecocks, including a record-breaking, 321-yard rushing performance by Doak Walker Award winner and Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden.

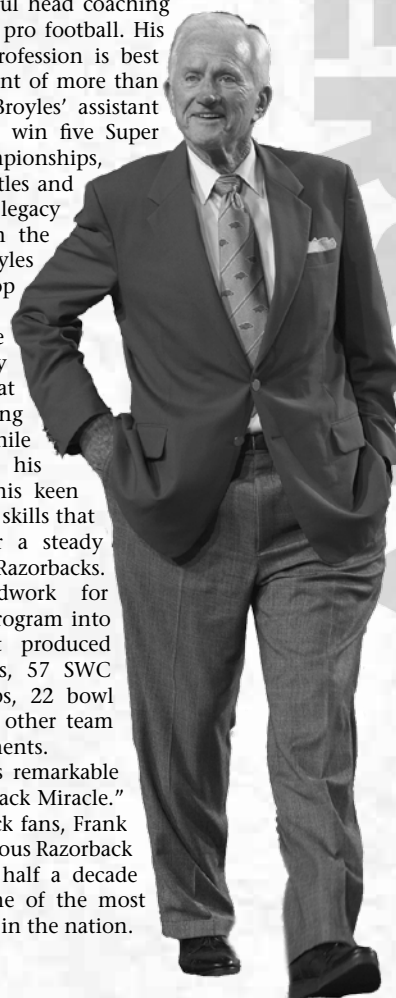

For more than five decades, Broyles helped shape intercollegiate athletics as a legendary coach, nationally respected administrator and a tireless goodwill ambassador for his university and state.

In his 19-year stint as Arkansas' head coach, the Razorbacks posted a record of 144-58-5, captured seven SWC championships, one national championship and earned 10 bowl berths. Broyles was a six-time SWC Coach of the Year and became the mentor to dozens of assistant coaches preparing them for successful head coaching careers in both college and pro football. His impact on the coaching profession is best measured in the development of more than 40 head coaches. Former Broyles' assistant coaches have combined to win five Super Bowls, five national championships, more than 40 conference titles and more than 2,000 games. His legacy is celebrated annually with the presentation of the Broyles Award to the nation's top assistant football coach.

Broyles assumed the role of athletic director in July 1973 and remained in that position long after retiring from coaching in 1976. While universally recognized for his coaching prowess, it was his keen administrative and business skills that allowed Broyles to charter a steady course of success for the Razorbacks. Broyles laid the groundwork for transforming the athletic program into an allsport program that produced 43 national championships, 57 SWC and 48 SEC championships, 22 bowl appearances and a bevy of other team and individual accomplishments.

Broyles has termed this remarkable transformation "The Razorback Miracle." But for millions of Razorback fans, Frank Broyles has been the miraculous Razorback that has spent more than half a decade nurturing Arkansas into one of the most successful athletic programs in the nation.

War Memorial Stadium AT&T Field

The Razorbacks' home venue in Central Arkansas for 65 years, War Memorial Stadium/AT&T Field is slated to host Arkansas football games until 2016 after a two-year extension was signed in August 2008. During that span, the facility will host two UA games annually, including at least one Southeastern Conference game each season.

Three-year UA letterman and Congressional Medal of Honor Winner Maurice (Footsie) Britt was the featured speaker during dedication ceremonies for War Memorial Stadium on Sept. 18, 1948. On that day, a crowd of 24,950 (a record football attendance in Arkansas at that time) watched the Razorbacks defeat Abilene Christian, 40-6.

During its 65-year existence, the facility has expanded from its original capacity of 31,000 to its current figure of 53,955.

A complete lighting system and AstroTurf surface were added for the 1970 season with a new artificial surface to follow in 1974. Ten years later, another new layer of artificial turf was installed before a return to natural grass was made in 1994. AstroPlay was installed for the 2002 season. War Memorial Stadium installed a new turf manufactured by Field Turf during the summer of 2010 and the field was named AT&T Field. In addition, a new 7.5 million dollar press box that includes 500 club seats was constructed for the 2010 football season. The War Memorial Stadium Commission along with the University of Arkansas Athletic Department has renovated the Razorback Letterman's Club and Recruit Room.

In 1974, the press box was honored as the best in the nation by the Football Writers Association of America, a recognition for the facility and the services provided. The press floor is now named for longtime sportswriter and an authority on Razorback history, Orville Henry.
